

...can be overcome. It is the most welcome news a paper can print. Although this is an advertisement, it contains facts of more vital importance than anything else in this newspaper.

It tells of a medicine known for over thirty years as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It is a medicine that purifies the blood, and restores the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs to vigor and strength. Its principal ingredient is not alcohol. It does not ruin men's and women's lives by causing intoxication and scattering the appetite for strong drink.

Favorite Remedy cools and purifies the blood. It is not like the many "bitters," "compounds" and "tonics," now so widely sold, which heat and inflame the blood, doing more injury than good.

Favorite Remedy cures troubles of women just as certainly as it cures troubles of men. It restores the liver to a healthy condition, and cures the worst cases of Constipation. It cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes and Bright's Disease.

"My complaint was Stone in the Bladder. Physicians said my case was hopeless, but Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me."—D. H. HOAG, Lebanon Springs, N. Y.

Sold in all drug stores for $1.00 a bottle. One teaspoonful is a dose, and you will experience relief long before first bottle is taken.

Sample Bottle Free! Every person troubled with any of the ailments mentioned above is offered a chance to try Favorite Remedy without any cost whatever. Send your full post-office address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and a free sample will be sent you. Please say you saw the advertisement in this paper, so we may know your request is genuine.

The railroad commissioners have decided, in regard to a new road proposed from Grove street to the depot, that an overhead crossing might be built, but not a grade crossing. It is estimated that such a crossing will cost from $10,000 to $12,000, and that the village must pay half the expense. The prospects are that the project will be dropped for the present.

Down and up.

"I don't understand it at all," she said, knitting her brows with a puzzled look.

"What?" he asked.

"Why, I heard you telling about that deal you went into with Mr. Brown, and you said he dumped you good and hard."

"That was right."

"But not more than five minutes later the subject came up again, and I heard you say that he threw you up in the air."

"That was right too."

It looked like a hard problem, but with the aid of a slang dictionary she was able finally to solve it.—Chicago Post.

Why Bill Was Discomfited.

Blizzard Bill went up to the new parson's house with an unpleasant errand in view. He meant to run him out of town.

Three hours later he met Ginger Joe. Ginger looked him over.

"Grizzily or dynamite?" he softly inquired.

Bill looked at Ginger through his half shut eyes.

"You're a darned pretty sort of friend, you are!" he hoarsely growled.

"Why in merry thunder didn't you tell me the parson was an army chaplain?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

According to Promise.

"Now that you've got your dog again," said the rough looking man, pocketing the reward, "you might ask me if I wouldn't like something to drink."

"You forgot, sir," sternly replied the owner of the animal, "that I said in my advertisement 'No questions asked.'"—Chicago Tribune.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. per bottle at L. A. Burrows' drug store.
