down through Mexico, while north of revealed to him as he grows older, by Norfolk, Va., it will be partial. In the city of Baltimore it will begin at 7:48 • a.m. Of all phenomena of nature there the same with temperance principles ts none so profoundly impressive and The difficulty with teaching the nature awe-inspiring as a total eclipse of the and effects of alcohol in common schools sun, and a trip to those regions of the has never been in the enunciation of the 'country through which the shadow of lofty, general principle of temperance the moon will sweep on the 28th of but the application of the principle to May is well worth undertaking. It the particular case, when the boy bescarcely admits of any doubt that many thousand people of the northern and ! ' middle states of the union will go to whether there is something within, * see a phenomenon which comparative vibrate in sympathy with that without g few people have ever had the priv- a prenatal influence. John B. Gough 'ilege of beholding. The average breadth | used to say that all drunkards are made f the eclipse track will be nearly 60 before 30 years of age. I hold that, owmiles. A second eclipse of the sun ing to the scientific forces of psychic will be ambular, but not visible in this country. A partial eclipse of the moon will take place on the 12th of June, 1 Ahough it will not be visible in this It is quite time that everybody who is disposed to be eloquent over the new -century should realize that it does not begin on January 1, 1900, says the New their lives, have during their pregnancy. A fund has been raised by the Christ year 100. Unless there has been a year have been born degenerates, with neil immoral conditions of the city. nineteenth centur does not end until ' the close of the year 1900. A curious cur in a century. The same yearly cal-! til he ends up a typical inebriate. endar that did service in 1895 can be The dangers and evils from alcoho' used again in 1901, and may be used can be taught successfully in commor again at successive intervals of six, schools, if only such facts are presented eleven and every eleven years throughont the century. .

The will of Timothy Murphy, which tific fact relating to the abuse of alcowas recently admitted to probate in hol must be omitted. Don't tell children Syracuse, N. Y., reads as follows: "Cice-! ro, August the 26, 1891. I here By Draw stem the tide of intemperance in that up a Cuppy of a will in cace of axident and experiments performed before their an account of an incident which ocor deth. I bequite the mortgage on eyes. Tell them that alcohol is a poi- curred at a health resert in Virginia. My Farm held by Richard Doyle to son like chloral or prussic acid, and il- The place was visited by the Chinese my wife, Mary Murphy, also the Money lustrate this fact by wetting earth minister and his suite. He bore himin Bank. Sined, Timothy Murphy, worms with alcohol, when they will die, self with the reserve and dignity befitthe incum of the farm to pay the det cohol, when they will be killed by its va-For. T. Murphy. And I Bequate 10 Dollars to St. Joseph society, New York, to have my name in the society, and i any child will doubt that alcohol is head violently. Her apologies were bequate 25 dollars to James Kincella a poison or that you can make them be- earnest and profuse and were received | and 10 Dollars to Allis Bauder, and to lieve that alcohol has no dangers and with gentleness and courtesy. The put a suitable moniment on my grave. evils? Put two plants in the school-Sined, Timothy Murphy."

A Washington dispatch says: "Manadd to the water in which the roots of sults to the representatives of other higher. Sold in nearly every city and town, or by mail. the other plant are placed even a small governments have caused international the for them. Absolutely very latest up-to-date styles. cow. But the market demands a good OII Price $1. Regular Cost $4. A Small Soldier. under Gen. Grant in the Philippines. St Young Lawton received his first ap- never forget, and they will not doubt are enforced as absolute rules. They pointment last July, when he was when told of the dangers and evils of almade an 'honorary' lieutenant and cohol to man and his offspring. Thus, given a uniform of that rank. Young and thus only, can we successfully Lawton has been under fire with his teach the dangers and evils of alcohol gross discourtesy represents the alti father in the expedition which Gen. in common schools.—Edward C. Mann, tude of mind of many young people Lawton commanded against the Taga- M. D., F. S.S., in Journal of Inebriety. los rebels. In the battle of Capote river, which Gen. Lawton himself said was the hottest fire he had ever been under, his little son was by his side exists because good men tolerate it.— on Monday, January 1, 1900. But as value of THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD to and preserved, the same coolness as his National Advocate. father. A bullet struck the sand fair- It is estimated that in England one in 1796, is it plainly evident that she progress of all our wars and, moreover, has iy beneath his feet and threw up the in every 1,000 persons is arrested for wants to be sure of living in three cen- reported them as promptly and fully as if it well to raise young cows for the mardust. Capt. Manley looked down and drunkenness and fined and imprisoned. | turies. exclaimed, with a twinkle in his eyes:

If we were a Kentuckian, we would Queer things occasionally happen in troops operating in the Philippines, and the and use plenty of absorbents in the Papa, that was a hoptoad. Little very much dislike the whisky reputsManley is a slim boy. He is evidently

The papers there now are tell Ing how a well-known woman in Sa Value is further increased

Clean to the white our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its gutters. destined to be a big man. He is at present rather loose jointed and he is that any person who obtains liquor for through the ice, and when her husband year to be better than it was the year before, her, but she pays you a good profit in growing rapidly. His disposition is a habitual drunkard is as guilty of pulled her out she found a trout caught and public confidence in it is shown by the hard cash every week in her life. quiet, but he has the coolness and violating the law as is a liquor dealer in the wire meshes of her bustle, which fact that it now circulates more than twice little officer has not been placed on the pay rolls of the army." There is evident misapprehension in the belief that practicing law in a coun- } - work by helping to deplete the prisons. than by paying taxes to enlarge them,— an the Dangers and Evils from Al cohol Be Taught Successfully in Common Schools?

tive effects on a child's character the miserable American habit of "treating."

when his action will depend upor drunkards are made before birth:

as are of practical value, and, secondly and logical order. No important scien-

GLEANINGS.

festive affairs.—Chicago Dispatch.

school of Winchester, Tenn., said: "J for he shows it in his face; and, H J are produced insensibly by the cifcumstances of the particular circle of soci- She bids the judgment wake, the fancy

Mix lare and which, and it makes

The anteldes from drinking in France

As good citizens you can do better

The Presbyterian church of England has arranged to hold 20 temperance with backache.

Unless it is stopped.

That means if his kidneys are out

There's not a form of kidney trouble ! '

Mutual Life Association, Phelos Bank

Building, Binghamton, N. Y., says:

that this wonderful little remedy will not cure, and the people stay cured.

Backache is really kidney ache.

he feels, how gradually and silently his mediately following the close of parliament. These meetings are to be ad- It is one of the first indications of dressed by Robinson Souttar, M. P., the kidney disease. It's bad enough of resident of the total abstinence com- itself, but it leads to a great deal -At the Bristol (England) licensing | sessions the other day a young land- [' lord applied, for a renewal of his Doan's Kidney Pills icense, and stated that he was now teetotaler. He produced his signed The Greenock Total Abstinence society has issued the speakers' mission plan for the season. The plan embraces 13 churches, halls or institutions, and covers a period of six very beneficial results. I was troubled wit' month, during which temperance! atavism and prenatal influences, that speakers will be provided on certain An Admiral's Testimony.—Rear i. e., that children are either born with miral John W. Philip recently said: good, sound, healthy nervous systems, fitted to carry them through the world have cruised in all parts of the world successfully and over the crises that eaten the fruits of the country without will assail them from alcohol, with its limit at all hours of the day and night: potential capacities and its active, im- drank the water from shore at will; but perative, irresistible demands; or, on bave never experienced any ill resultsthe other hand, owing to having moth- due entirely, I think, to total absti ers who, while never intoxicated in nence."

York Journal. The first century be- always used the poison alcohol in what lian Endeavor union of Mount Vernon, gan with the year 1 and ended with the is conventionally termed moderation, N. Y., for a general crusade against the inserted somewhere there is, therefore, ther judgment nor will to meet the crav- The Anti-Tobacco society of France no escape from the conclusion that the ing for alcohol, or with moral will and is about to make King Menelik, of fiber to enable them to say "no," when Abyssinia, a member. It has learned asked to partake of the drug alcohol, that smoking is almost unknown in . which creates a new physiological want, that country, and is punished as a LETS. All druggists refund the money fact in reference to the new century is a systematic demand, which becomes crime when practiced. French ex- if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S Sig. | ? that it will have 24 leap years, the peremptory and irresistible, overbear-plorers have to smoke their cigarettes nature is on each box. 25c.

The reports of the Lancashire asylums show that the rate at which drink A FREE PATTERN causes insanity was for the past year nearly one-half per cent. higher than ored lithographed plates and illustrations. Original during 1897, which itself had shown ! ; if these facts are presented in a natural ! year over 29 per cent. of the total number of admissions were caused by that to drink is wicked. You will never idrink. Gross Discourtesy. ting his rank and office. While sitting on the church until the church is Paid por; or give a dog two or three ounces under the trees one day, a young man of alcohol, when the animal will give a contrived to tie the queue of the mincry and fall lifeless. Can anyone sup- lister to the tassel of a lady's parasol. nose that after seeing such experiments When the lady rose, she jerked his selections young man tittered in the background. Place the roots of one in water, and it The minister and his attendants left i the hotel that day. More trifling in-> soon die, and the children will have re- ed minister represented a great nation ceived a lesson about alcohol they will in which reverence for age and courtesy are a heathen people, and we profess to represent Christian civilization. Such'

An aged lady living in Muskingum county, N. Y., professes to favor the The striking and important events of the theory that the new century came in last year have established the overwhelming! she is 103 years old, having been born it has kept its subscribers informed of the with a little wheat bran every day.

ing how a well-known woman in Sa- value is further increased. The Iowa supreme court has decided battis, while skating on the pond, fell World is improvement. It strives each only pays back every penny laid out on fearlessness of his father. Gen. Cor who sells the ardent to a confirmed had served as a kind of life preserver. as many papers every week as any other chill taken off. There is no economy in Her husband, greatly pleased, request- Subscription price. $1.00. received his appointment from the United States District Attorney ed her to go back again into the water, war department, said he had not. Soper for the northern district of In- and be "set over again," as he said, but

A witty American mother, who has Subscriptions to The Patent Record #1. Der annum day to keep them gentle. Alcohol is the ruling spirit at many been following the government investitween 1885 and 1897, says the Kansas Temperance has been promoted in City Journal, the late John Sheridan, the French army by controlling the termines the purity of the city City Journal, the late John Sheridan, the French army by controlling the termines the purity of the city's milk nitles. References exchanged. services.

Cocoa for intoxicating drinks.

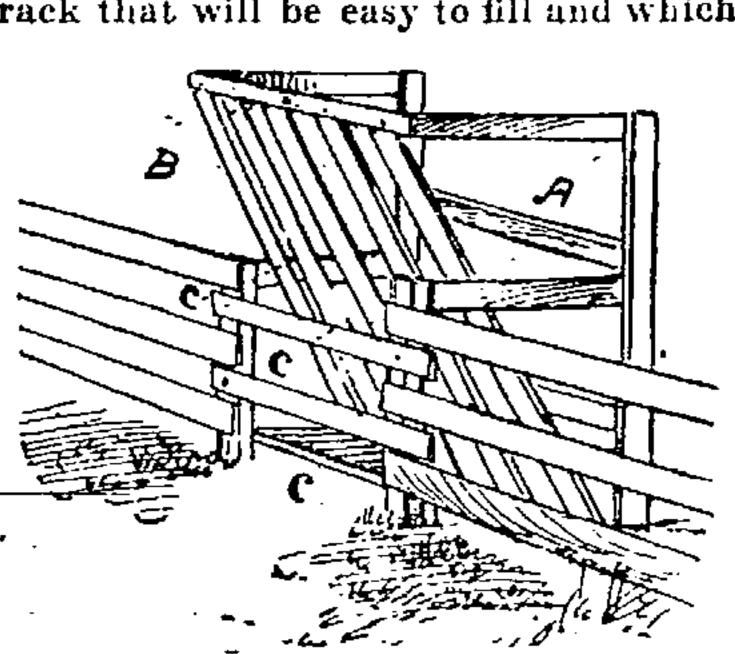

* house, it is actually inside the baby!"

S. A. Park, 320 Caxton build'g, Chicago.

Be Easy to Fill and Will Retain the Stalks.

will retain the stalks, allowing the cattle to strip off the leaves, corn and tening anew, and the useless stalks piled my diagnosis of the case was correct, for the up for hauling away or mixed with the pains disappeared very quickly. The use of accumulating manure heap, where the Doan's Kidney Pills gave strength and tone to the kidneys, and, in this way, benefitted refuse of barn and stable is niled before being hauled to the fields. Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all The rack is to be built against the A dozen things have brougth him joy, a , sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and manger at a being only high enough rack should be made of 2x4s. The rack b should be made of four-inch fencing lumber, the slats about four inches apart. The outside rack, c, should be set out far enough so the cattle can . I easily reach down inside to pick up the here, it is well to have the bottom, e. floored, and the floor surrounded made any length, according to the

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

PATTERNS

223-246 West 14th Street, . . . New York City, M. Y.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

newspaper, not a daily, published in America. letting them drink ice-water in a cold a creek to drink. The war department knew nothing dian territory has prohibited the pubabout his appointment, officially. It is newspapers issued in the territory, besimply an honorary position, and the cause the sale of liquor is illegal there.

The war department knew nothing dian territory has prohibited the pubable dianteritory has prohibited the pubable dianteritory. The parameters in the declined the proposition. The papers that tell this were probably telling it three years ago.

The parameters in the papers that tell this were probably telling it three years ago.

The parameters in the papers that tell this were probably telling it three years ago.

Within at Least Two Weeks of way. Give them facts, scientific facts

The daily papers not long since gave the stories current topics, etc. Subscribe to-day.

Only 60c., yearly. Lady agents wanted. Send for tarms. istic of the choicest gilt-edged butter porch reading a scientific magazine. never come out of the packing tub. finer the quality of the butter, the less said the professor, tranquilly. "I forling rob it of the quality necessary to hass it as gilt edged.

golden color to the best of butter, and ı possible to realize. _ The coloring adds but little to the liesired, but no other changes are allowed. cost, and during the winter, at least, it Clubbing list for a stamp. toward elderly persons and strangers. Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly will be found necessary to use it considerably.--Up-to-Date Farming. HELPFUL DAIRY NOTES.

The calves should have flaxseed jelly News and Opinions yard, and worse still to drive them to Daily by Mail, - - -Don't neglect the calves and heifers. Daily and Sunday by Mail, - $8.00 'They require especial care and atten-I tion. They should be kept clean by brushing, and should be handled every Pieces of old wool blankets, cut the proper size and fastened with string. The Sunday Sun Stave Silo Is the Best. . Since the first experiments with the ad stave sito is the most practice' and successful silo which can be constructed. The original cost is very > cured with the minimum material The bulletin gives a detailed explana. Through all the day I toll away and try to And when the evening shadows fall I.hur. o blissful rest, to glad surcease from all the worldly care and no expert labor is required and the maximum of capacity is se-

That claims me in the countinghouse and breeds and fattens there; leave the busy mart Divides me from the plots of men and leaves me light of heart. 4 hurry past the flaring lights to arms that. To taste again the sweet delights of child.

ish minstrelsy. s feel soft arms around my neck, to claim the fair reward That those I love so freely give-and humbly thank the Lord! steps of marble from my door in graceful flexures wind, But honest peace precedes me there and care remains behind. But he whose word is law unto the men

Must worry still when I am through until another day: The cares that weigh on him may not be banished from his mind When desks and books are closed at night and doors are locked behind: The tickers cease their fretting and I hur-While he walks up his marble steps with

who toll away

I fence, so that the filling can be done Have always risen to annoy or bring him score of others, though, to retain the fodder. The frame of the The office may be dark, but still, in spirit, To plan and plot and scheme and pull a hundred fragile strings And hear the fearful flapping of a host of sable wings. O little hands upon my breast, soft arms about me twined. chaff. To guard against any waste Sweet lips that unto mine are prest, why am I not resigned? Why must there, as I toil along, come creeping through the day a six-inch board. The rack can be The old disturbing wish to fling my happi-

> At night I hie to peaceful bliss, he carries home his cares. And yet, oh fool! how gladly I would bear the weight he bears! -S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Times-Herald. ______

A Wisconsin college professor is married and has a baby. His wife says he is a great help to her in taking care of the child. One afternoon be took little Willie out in his coach for "Where's Willie?" demanded his wife, lowing "Family Combination" sent prepaid. N Y WEEKLY TRIBUNE, 1 YR. THE GENTLE LOMAN, 1 YR. HAPPY HOURS FAMILY MAGAZ'E, 1 YR.

though it may add nothing to the qual- will substitute the Chicago Weekly Inter we can most fully meet the demands 1-Week Louisville Courier-Journal, Sar of the market, the better the price it is Francisco Weekly Post, or Montreal Weekly Gazette in place of the N. Y. Tribune if

> O. H. JONES, Room 508. Cir. Manager Vermont Farm Journal, WILMINGTON, VERMONT.

National Importance

ALONE CONTAINS BOTH

the belief that practicing law in a country town means a life spent just a little tolerate a real pain the next morning.

In nine cases out of ten the man who the belief that practicing law in a country town means a life spent just a little tolerate a real pain the next morning.

In nine cases out of ten the man who gations into food adulterations, recently the belief that practicing law in a country to means a life spent just a little tolerate a real pain the next morning.

In nine cases out of ten the man who gations into food adulterations, recently the belief that practicing law in a country to the belief that practicing law

the world. Price 5c. a Copy. By mail, $2 a year-Address THE SUN, New York.

Against a storm of lead. MICE THE COLUMN TO SELECT

He laughed at death or danger The bravest of the brave. As he faced the flaming trench MERCHANTS:

But a bullet dug his grave. His steed before him led GREEN WOOD, N. When the shallow stream was ford With Lawton at the head. W. G. SMITH & CO is aword was sheathed beside ! The blood was on his breast The general who never rested Lay in eternal rest. GREENWOOD, N. Y. But his guns played Yankee Dood! The valley grass was red San Mateo was entered

To hear the horses' tread

Or see the plumes of yellow

With Lawton at the head,"

He musters with the heroes

Gridley and Nichol, captains,

And Authory, marine:

Columbia's guard immorta'

Made up of gallant dead.

With Lawton at the head,

-Minna Irving, in Leslie's Weekly

That marches on in glory

seen it realized until now.

Whose names are ever green

With Lawton at the head, GENERAL MERCHANDISE, She mourns him in Manila, And sighs at every breath The widow of the soldier SHAW & PLAISTED, Long she may weep and listen

HARDWARE, GREENWOOD, N. Y.

DRUGGISTS,

C. F. SMITH, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, GREENWOOD N. Y.

FASHIONABLE BARBER Shaving and haircutting done in'

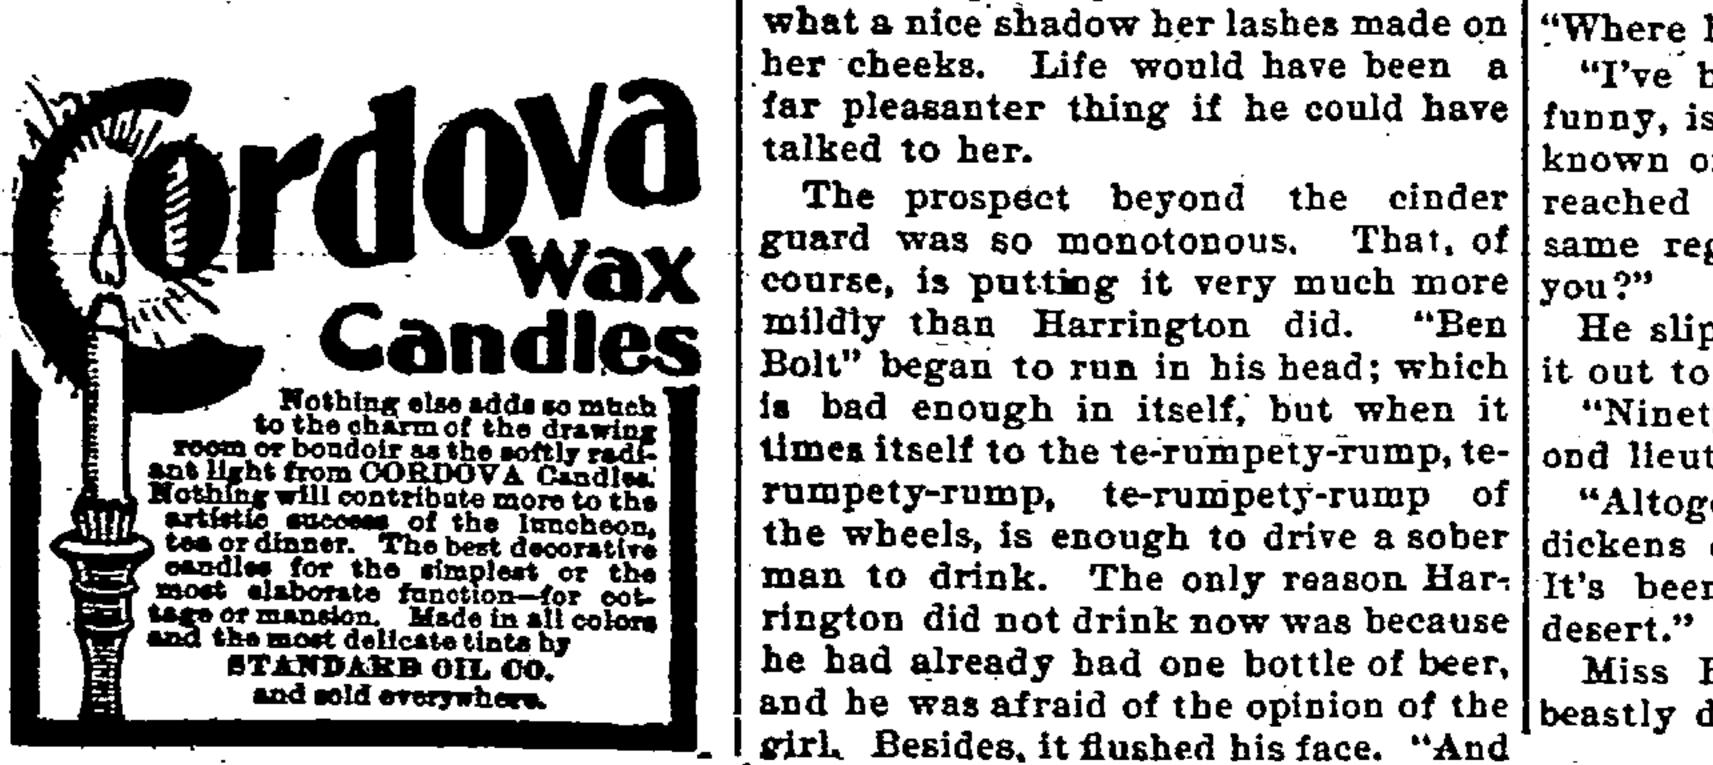

One Minute Cough Cure, cures That is what it was made for.

Around The World.

AGER, 330 Caxton building, Chicago.

Noy, Andover, N. Y DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve

ural sequence of things that falls when a train slows down in the midst of th he crunch of footsteps on the cinders eside the track. looked out. A group of men stooping read. Pretty soon he got up and put had joined the group he glanced alo at his car. The girl was leaning out o er window. He felt that in a time situation a la Somers or Peter Gray. He put his hands in his pockets, which did not; and Harrington was glad, beis always the way you show that you are just being casual and offhand and making no particular point of it, and sauntered back along the cinder bed until he stood beneath her window. was eternal spring in Harrington's Then he raised his hat and told her heart just now, so he overlooked the it was a hot box. She said: "Thank detail that fleurs-de-lis don't bloom in ' 1 you very much," and hoped it would | August. not delay them, and was very sweet | Outside of section 2 was a stuffy ! and civil about it, but it was borne in | sleeper, where sat a scandalized man upon him, for all that, that it would and woman, whispering and casting | not be expected of him to continue looks; and beyond that was a gleaming

the south," he murmured as he con- n section 2 all was charming. The اند | tinued on down to ask the conductor | crunch of feet on the cinders, the tinkle how long they would have to stop, of the hammer on the hot box, the mur-HERE are a number of ways in and lighted a cigarette. The con- mur of men's voices, came faintly to it. which you can test a woman's ductor did not know. Harrington had "How long shall we stop here?" Miss beauty and prove that it is vain. You not supposed that he would. But he Hill asked.

can see her after she has danced until went back into the train thoroughly dawn and drives home in the cold, blue disgusted with everything. light. You can drop in upon her when He flung himself into section 6 with that to himself. He liked southern | It has be a matter of ruffles and lace. You can 2, and looked out disconsolately over know "Where are we?" come the universal remedy for that dis see her rise dripping from the surf, no ease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., daughter of foam and fire, but a creative who see it with dull and dreary eyes. told her. She looked puzzled. "Do only repeats what has been said around ture of dank locks and purple lips. Or The air went in heat waves so that you understand Spanish?" She rethe globe when he writes: "I have used you can look at her after she has gone the distance seemed to quiver, and membered some from the days of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my twice round the links in the blazing sun the whole prospect was vile. He sat Mexican nurses and citizen packers. family for several years and always and the dust fraught wind. All these up and pressed the electric button. There had been a time when it was it is not only the best cough remedy, are likely to convince you of the de- The bell fairly pealed in the silence, her most fluent speech. "Well, then, It ceitfulness of beauty. But some wom- reverberated to the horizon. The girl the name of this garden spot is has saved the lives of our children a en are so fair as to bear each and all of started and looked away from the Adonde—at least, within half a mile number of times." This remedy is for these tests. Yet if you were to put window. Harrington told the porter of it." sale by Benedict & Van Noy, And them in a smoky, close sleeping car, to bring him some iced beer. The girl "That means 'where,'" she said. anywhere between, say, Tucson and was watching him in the mirror. It Yuma, at the middle of an August day, was the first time she had paid the "Isn't it jolly well named? To look they might then become, as every one smallest attention to him. He caught out upon this world is to ask 'where,' else, so ugly that it would increase her eye—and, perhaps she did not and 'whither,' and 'why,' and 'what se self-ad- your ugliness and bad temper to be smile, but it was not quite a stony for?' The plains are such forcible re-MAN- forced to look at them. When a wom- stare either. He felt encouraged minders of the eternal un-get-at-able-

and a doctor had failed. It is the best himself, and her back was turned to and flushed yet more pinkly at the so well," liniment I have ever known of —J. A. him; but she faced the bevelled mirror, reckless brazenness of it. She raised This was dangerous. Harrington Dodgen, Alpharetta. Ga. Thousands so considerately built in the end of the her giass and Harrington raised his launched off upon the delights of golf. remedy. One application relieves the her reflected in it. Besides which he Then both stopped with the cups and feet hurried along the cinder bed.

For sale by Benedict & Van could see her back hair, which was at their very lips, and there was an But the train was going 30 miles an brown and looked soft, and which es- interval of sound which her eyes filled hour before they really realized it had caped in wisps that curled up tighter with beautiful light. and tighter as the day grew hotter and "Why didn't you tell me?" she cried. had 25 minutes in which to eat din-| hotter. Harrington thought about a | "Are you-" he began.

> saient autour de sa nuque." He had too, if I had seen your academy but- whither. always liked that idea, but had never ton." You never took the trouble to look crossed on the ferry. Maj. Hill saw it, There were only four people in the at me," Harrington suggested; "I'm and so did Mrs. Hill, and some others |

> were not interesting, Harrington and from Bliss." the girl. Harrington entered the train | "I am going to the Presidio." at El Paso. The girl was there already. Harrington was going to the Presidio, social hall. Harrington leaned on the The only mark on her traps was a sil- too. By virtue of all of which he went | rail beside her and showed her the ver tag strapped to her satchel, and back to his section, and got the beer gulls, and said this was San Francisco, Harrington had not been able to get bottle, and sat himself down in Section as though he were personally responwithin reading distance of it. He had 2 with it beside him on the window sible for it-which is the way we get tried hard enough. Neither had he ledge. The old Indian salutation was in California. It was only too evibeen able to screw up his courage to the password to the ranks of friendship. dent, even to the watching strangers point of questioning the conductor. By virtue of it they had known each where and whither. Where they were He did not believe in discussing women other and all of each other's friends was in the seventh heaven of contentup on the opposite seat and leaned back least.

noted how prettily her skin flushed, and court-martial," Harrington explained. other than his wedding day, they | what a nice shadow her lashes made on | "Where have you been?" far pleasanter thing if he could have funny, isn't it? We might never have rington. The boucles folles were still known one another until we had hath her cheeks. Life would have been a "I've been east at school. It's very He stood up and looked at Mrs. Harknown one another until we had both there, though half-hidden by the times itself to the te-rumpety-rump, te- ond lieutenant."

rington did not drink now was because | desert." and he was afraid of the opinion of the beastly desert."

As, and had my first spill into this alkali | they will live." It was all done "just for | a silence that let you hear the blood dust. I suppose one has to be used to the fun of it."

matter of education, of course," "Of course," she agreed. "Tell me He told her about it with the zest for rd painting which California fosters d left her with the belief that she was about to enter paradise on earth.

"You play golf, of course?" t is the question which must come sooner or later. She answered that she cause now he could teach her, and life would be all one beautiful driving lit tle white balls across green slopes and fields of fleurs-de-lis, with a blue sky cverhead and a sapphire sea beyond. I the conversation. "And Peter takes desert, where the thermometer would !" the north again; and Somers takes have registered incredible things. But I Harrington did not know, and said so Neither did he care; but he kept | 5 an under these last conditions is still And that to the extent of ordering an news of things in general." down that her charms are real and en- section 2. Might he offer-. She they are not all measured off by hu-

French novel he had once read, whose Wes. Of course. My father's Maj. had passed Adonde. Adonde, indeed! oner before they were aware that they ' heroine had "houcles folles qui fris- Hill. I might have known you were, It was already too plain where and It was plainer still by the time they Pullman—a man and a woman who Harrington, of the Fourth. I came on who had come over to the train, so they were very considerate about it, and went to listen to the music in the DON'T FORGET.

on of any scienting journal. Terms, so a with the first comer. So he put his feet and traditions for half a century at ment. And whither they tended was reached just two months later. and watched the boucles folles, and "I've been down to Bliss on a Upon that occasion, which was none!

called upon Harrington for a toast. The prospect beyond the cinder reached the post. And we are in the white veil, and she was blushing as guard was so monotonous. That, of same regiment, too. What year were pinkly now as upon that first day in the stretch and silence of the prairie, ' Candles mildly than Harrington did. "Ben He slipped off his class ring and held that ever memorable and delightful old Age Postponed. Bolt" began to run in his head; which it out to her. She studied it intently. day at the place of the unanswerable "Ninety-seven. Then you are a sec- question, Adonde. Harrington thought of that day and, raising his "Altogether at your service. Why the glass, made in the opinion of all asthe wheels, is enough to drive a sober | dickens didn't we divine this sooner? | sembled the flattest failure of a toast. | man to drink. The only reason Har- It's been horribly dull-this beastly But his wife understood, and the cthers did not matter. He had looked he had already had one bottle of beer, Miss Hill protested. "It's not a into her eyes and had said: "How!" -San Francisco Argonaut.

furday as "Spaniaris" and "Americans," ammenias and then they had a fight. Bricks, as now stones and air guns were used and two

The "lyddite" shells, used by the Britto love it. I sh in the defense of Ladysmith, are vote on all questions s' He defended himself. "New England shells charged with "lyddite," one of the payers.

> ANY young women are completely prostrated for week, out of every month by menstrual suffering The terrors of menstruation overshadow their who! tives. How needless this is in most cases is shown by the housands of grateful letters constantly coming to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass.,
>
> HAGGA

MISS JOIE SAUL, Dover, Mich., writes as follows to Mrs. Pinkham: suffered untold month and could get no relief until I WOME tried your medicine; your letter of advice and a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetab' Compound have made me the happiest woman aliv I shall bless you as long as I live."

FAGES

Miss Rosa Helden, 126 W

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-Four years ago I had almos given up hope of ever be with thos dreadful headache spell three or four days

Also had backache, bear ing-down pains, leucor rhœa, dizziness, and terr / ble pains at monthly period confining me to my bed After reading so many test monials for your medicine, concluded to try it. I began to pick up after taking the first bottle, and have continued to gair rapidly, and now fee like a different woman I can recommend Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in highest term o all sick women.'

Pain leaves its mark. Faces become pale and thin. Fea tures grow sharp and haggard. The stamp of suffering is un mistakable. Write to Mrs. Pinkham for aid. Her experience is the widest in the world and her advice is free.

In under these last conditions is still And that to the extent of ordering anpleasant to contemplate you may set it other glass, filling it and taking it to Miss Hill was resentful. "I dare say Big Slaughter In I want to let the people who suffer during. from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved girl in Section 2. He was in Section 6 me after a number of other medicines bimself, and her back was turned to the people who suffer during. | looked startled, but also uncertain. | "It's awfully cold and nice." | She reached out a hesitating hand to take the Presidio links half | Robes and Blankets. | Robes and Blankets.

We are determined to close out this class of good regardless of cost, and we now offer a large fur robe, well line, for $3.50. Other goods in proportion. We are also closing out our stock of fine cutters at prices that defy competition. It will pay you to buy now for next season's use.

That we have the cheapest and best stock of

HARDWARE

in these parts.

For Sale by Benedict and Van Noy, Andover, N. 3

Printing

And Have it Done as it Should be, at Prices within Reach of All.

He Only Repeats What Has Been Said

I want to let the people who suffer | during. have been cured of rheumatism by this car, and he sat so that he could watch hat and said "How!"

Cures Piles, Scalds, Burns.