MOSHER-E-BACKUS. AT ANDOVER, N. Y.

APPOYER, N. Y., SEPTEMBER 12. 1.

ical man and his patient.

he thought and dreamed of discarde

whistles blew the next morning.

though dressed to the limit of his po-

his chums of the seamy side.

the same thing."

Requirements.

It Wasn't the

This is one of the periods of the year t which bills assume a reality which which has prompted a correspondent to write on the subject of doctors' oills. He complains that medical men are looked upon as well-nigh infallible, and that no doubt is why we accept in their case that which we would strongly criticise in the case of others. A doctor's bills runs something like this: only 12 years. "January to June, attending Mr. Jones and family, £15 10s." There are no items and no means of checking the er mining excitement in the west was grumbling a little to himself or more But for some reason or other it is quite kane paper, "have been dumped on no client has yet complained of a want creek claims cannot give employment of alacrity on a lawyer's part in com- to 5 per cent. of those seeking work." plying with this demand. There is rea- Transportation companies are held to son in our correspondent's complaint be largely responsible. Many doctors do send their accounts with every visit set out in full, but they are in a minority. The majority con-jof, law at the last election in New! by our correspondent. There seems no reason why a full statement should not be made. If one profession can do it, though we have no doubt that all is right, and that it is our want of mem- The little son of a larmer named A special kind of telephone, which has ory which makes us fancy that we Williamson, living near White Lake, no 'central,' enables him to converse could never have been as ill as all that. S. D., was bitten by a rattlesnake a privately with the heads of the deyet detailed accounts would add to the few days ago. The father promptly partments. The cabinet room is about confidence existing between the med- cut open the wound, and he and the the library next to it contains an in-Having read of several actual expe | worse next day.

tionces and perused a few novels dealing with the same An accomplished faker is sending runs lengthwise through the white social problem, one watermelon stories to gullible eastern house, shuts off the offices described of Detroit's wealthy papers from a Kansas town. One of from the sleeping quarters of the famyoung men, highly educated and in his yarns relates that coyotes are eat- | il. deadly earnest, decided to rent a room ing the crop. Another tells of a melon n one of the poorest quarters of the so big that on being cut in two and city, live by the sweat of his brow and scooped out one end was used for a British central African protectorate

to the best he could. He fell among bathtub. strange people and had rough experi-Ences, but the novelty of the thing and Lightning struck a brewery in Al-mails are still conveyed for the most hiszeal kept him going for quite awhile | toona, Pa., the other day, and soured part upon the heads and backs of says the Free Press. He even slept with all the beer.

his head out of the window during some of the hottest nights, whipped a drunken man who was abusing a little boy. and lived within his earnings, though luxuries. But the strain was too much of his farm in wheat, and when 1. He began to draw on his resources and mitigate the trials of his new position. it he turned the tract over to his sheep per mile per bag. He even gave a little supper with guests ! for pasture. They nibbled it down unfrom among his new associates, with til it looked as if no wheat was left. When the sheep were taken out the not able to go to work when the e i grain took fresh hold and duly came to a head. Now the fortunate supervisor, a climax he sent several sick children on a trip up the lakes, and had good lood furnished for some of the invalids: the neighborhood. Then he suddenly escaped and returned to his old ways sition, he was recognized by one of fresh hold. knowed all the time you was a swell! Chicago is congratulating itself-and; "cove," asserted this philosopher of the with good reason-on the steady im-"The trouble with you provement in the health of its inhabitfellows what go out to experiment is ants. Records kept by the board of that you puts on life preservers. You health show a constant decrease in | could stand a twist or two and a pretty the death rate during the last 20 years. tough wrench when the thermometer particularly among children. Out of

was behavin' so scan'lous, but all the every 1,000 deaths during the first quartime there was the big bank account terof this 20 year period, 522 were those and the rich friends to fall back on, of children under five years of age. the boy: "You have two very good 4. Silage can be made in the sun-You couldn't hold out, so you took some. During the last quarter the number names and you ought to be a good shine or in rain. Unlike hay, it is inof the rest of us into your good for- has been only 338. The gain is attrib- boys how did you come by them? dependent of the weather. tune. You don't know nothin' about used to the diligence of the board of "Please, sir," said the boy, "we was 5. When corn is ready for the silo. prevents the suction from taking too t, yet. If you ever want to go against health in spreading a knowledge among twins, and the other died." Another there is but little farm work pressing. strong a hold on the teat. This is acthe real thing; just turn that fortune the poorer people of the best way of correspondent says: "At Ramsbury 6. Corn is worth more to the dairy complished by forming the teat curs over to me, fall back on yourself and feeding infants during hot weather, manor there once resided a poulterer's as silage than in any other form. With double walls and connecting tackle this here proposition of livin' and to the establishment of day nurson what you can make with your hands, eries, sterilized milk depots, floating mother wanted the name to be Will corn, stalks and fodder. with a million other hands reachin' for ;

morning paper calls for "a stenog called upon to face. Those at Fort it's to be William,' was the reply 10. Owing to its succulence and bulki- machine a large herd can be milked and typewriting." These curious ning was doing its most terrifying nurse gave the name to the clergy Jersey Bulletin. "wants" send one's fancy adrift in would become of them all if a bolt accordingly. strange channels. Are they straws that show a coming halt in the mad should strike the 22,000 pounds o there was a terrifying crash and half employed over a cup of fragrant tea. way for a leisurely chop prepared ever the alcohol lamp by a sedately smiling

Little Wu, the son of the Chinese minister, goes to school in Washington and is always at the head of his class. felates a local exchange, a fai of a hospital. Little Wu, with his pig- | it up. tail and beautiful silken garments, is [of course a favorite of the ladies, and It cures constipation and liver disorders. one of the masters, in discussing the It cures headache and most other school plans, said: "We'll put you behind the | Celery King cures Nerve, Stomach, Liver | / pickel booth, where the girls can torment you." "Indeed," said little Wu, with a grin. "Then I will be in a pickle." A pretty good pun for a celestial of November 8th and 9th, Friendship Teachers desiring to be ready to Acording to some accounts, no othteach at the next school year, whose doctor's visits, and the recipient, after so charged with folly, fraud and dis-certificates expire July 31st, 1900 appointment as the Cape Nome flasco. should take the first examination o. eften to his family, pays in the dark, "Thirty thousand men," says a Spo. the year. ___O. M. Burdick, Com. different with the lawyers. From the dreary beach there only to find THE PRESIDENT'S WORKSHOP. them is demanded a very full and de- that the diggings were exhausted a tailed account of the work done, and year ago and that the few valuable The Whole East End of the Second tent themselves with the formula given York city have been selected to serve gain as inspectors at the coming pri- convenience the room last named ad- flooring with a layer of three-ply acid seven of the cows that had nipped the mary elections. The law permits this, joins President McKinley's own office, and waterproof P. and D. paper be- growing blades were dead; several othas only persons convicted of crime or and the electric apparatus which it tween. surely the other can without loss of misdemeanor are debarred from such contains places him in communication Fig. 2 shows method of constructing John Kaser, of Covert, Osborne coundignity. After all, most of us like to service, and these men, while under by telegraph with all parts of the the all-wood round silo and connectknow what we are paying for, and indictment, have not yet been tried. | world, and by telephone with all points | ing it with the wall flush with the | through a pasture where there were reached by the long-distance system.

mother took turns sucking out the ferior collection of books, consisting poison. The little fellow was little the mainly of out-of-date editions of hiscruited chiefly from the Yao Supervisor Tom B. Smith, of Ursa, Atonga tribes and wear a uniform, Ill., according to the Quincy Herald, Fully 300 bags of mail are made u has something to report that may each month at the different post a prove of interest to farmers and per-| veyance by these men, the tota haps everybody else. He had 40 acres 000 miles per month, the cost looked as if the Hessian fly had ruined transit being less than a half penny

Gentle Sarcasm on Athletica. With reference to the deification the athlete at public schools, the Oxford Magazine has the following ""It appears that a few days back i has just finished thrashing the yield the vice chancellor received the folof 40 acres, and finds himself in pos- lowing letter from a gentleman: session of 1,000 bushels of as pretty How much would I have to pay f wheat as was ever raised in the county. the education of my son in your He says it's just like finding it. He versity? Let me know if I shall have and associations. Within a week, believes that the flies were destroyed to pay more in case my son, besides by the sheep and the roots then took towing, should wish to learn to read Uniform Examinations-1900.

SECOND AND THIRD GRADES.

Floor of the White House

Used for Offices.

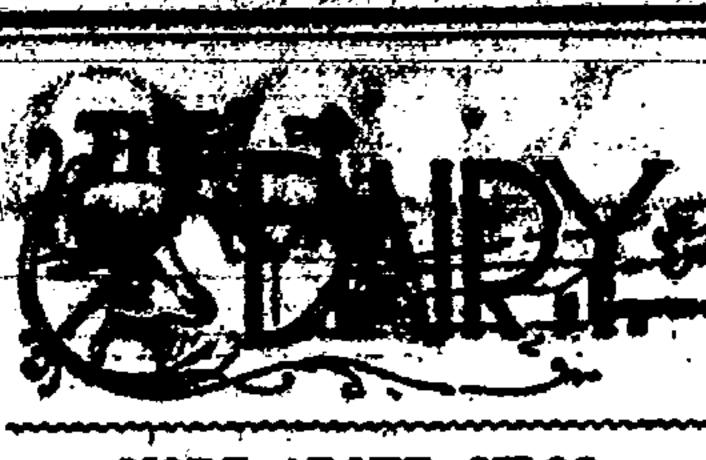

Mail in Central Africa.

native postmen. The men are re-

' One of the Twins Died and the Survivor Got Both of the A minister was baptizing a boy of six years, says the London Telegraph in any other form. The names given were Benjamin Jo 3. The silo preserves absolutely all seph. After the ceremony he said to but the roots of the corn. family of the name of Duck. This 7. At least one-third more corn per third son was to be christened and the acre may be fed on silage than dried pockets inside the cups, the operator hospitals and other admirable char- liam. Just before starting to church 8. Corn is fed more conveniently as the proper vacuum in each set the nurse ran upstairs to the father, silage than in any other form. who was laid up with the gout, to teli 9. Silage is of more value when fed to the cows. Valves are provided Dangers on the battlefield are not him they were off. 'What be they go in combination with other food richer start the milk flowing as soon as the the only perils federal troops are ing to call un, nurse? . Missus says in protein. It is not a complete food. | cups are fixed in place. With the new time of it a few nights ago during a 'call un plain Bill.' -In accordance tute for green grass, and is, therefore, a single cow, to which may be added violent thunder storm. While light- with these laconic instructions the especially valuable as a winter food.— the advantage of cleanliness and the

MORE ABOUT SILOS

and to Connect It with Wall Flush with the October

| Spain as alfalfa.—Farmers' Review. pulletin No. 83, shows the co

The whole east end of the white ecutive clerks, the cabinet room and opening inside. F is a front view of used corral, the telegraph room, writes Rene Bache. the door made of two layers of fourin the Ladies' Home Journal. For inch or six-inch tongued and grave were growing. In less than 3 minutes outside. This figure shows the most substantial form of construction with three layers of three-inch lumber and) two layers of three-ply acid and waterproof P. and B. paper between them. A very excellent silo is made . layer of lining and paper and the layer . * paper on the outside. With small silos 15 feet in diameter only the siding on the outside is necessary weather.—Ohio Farmer.

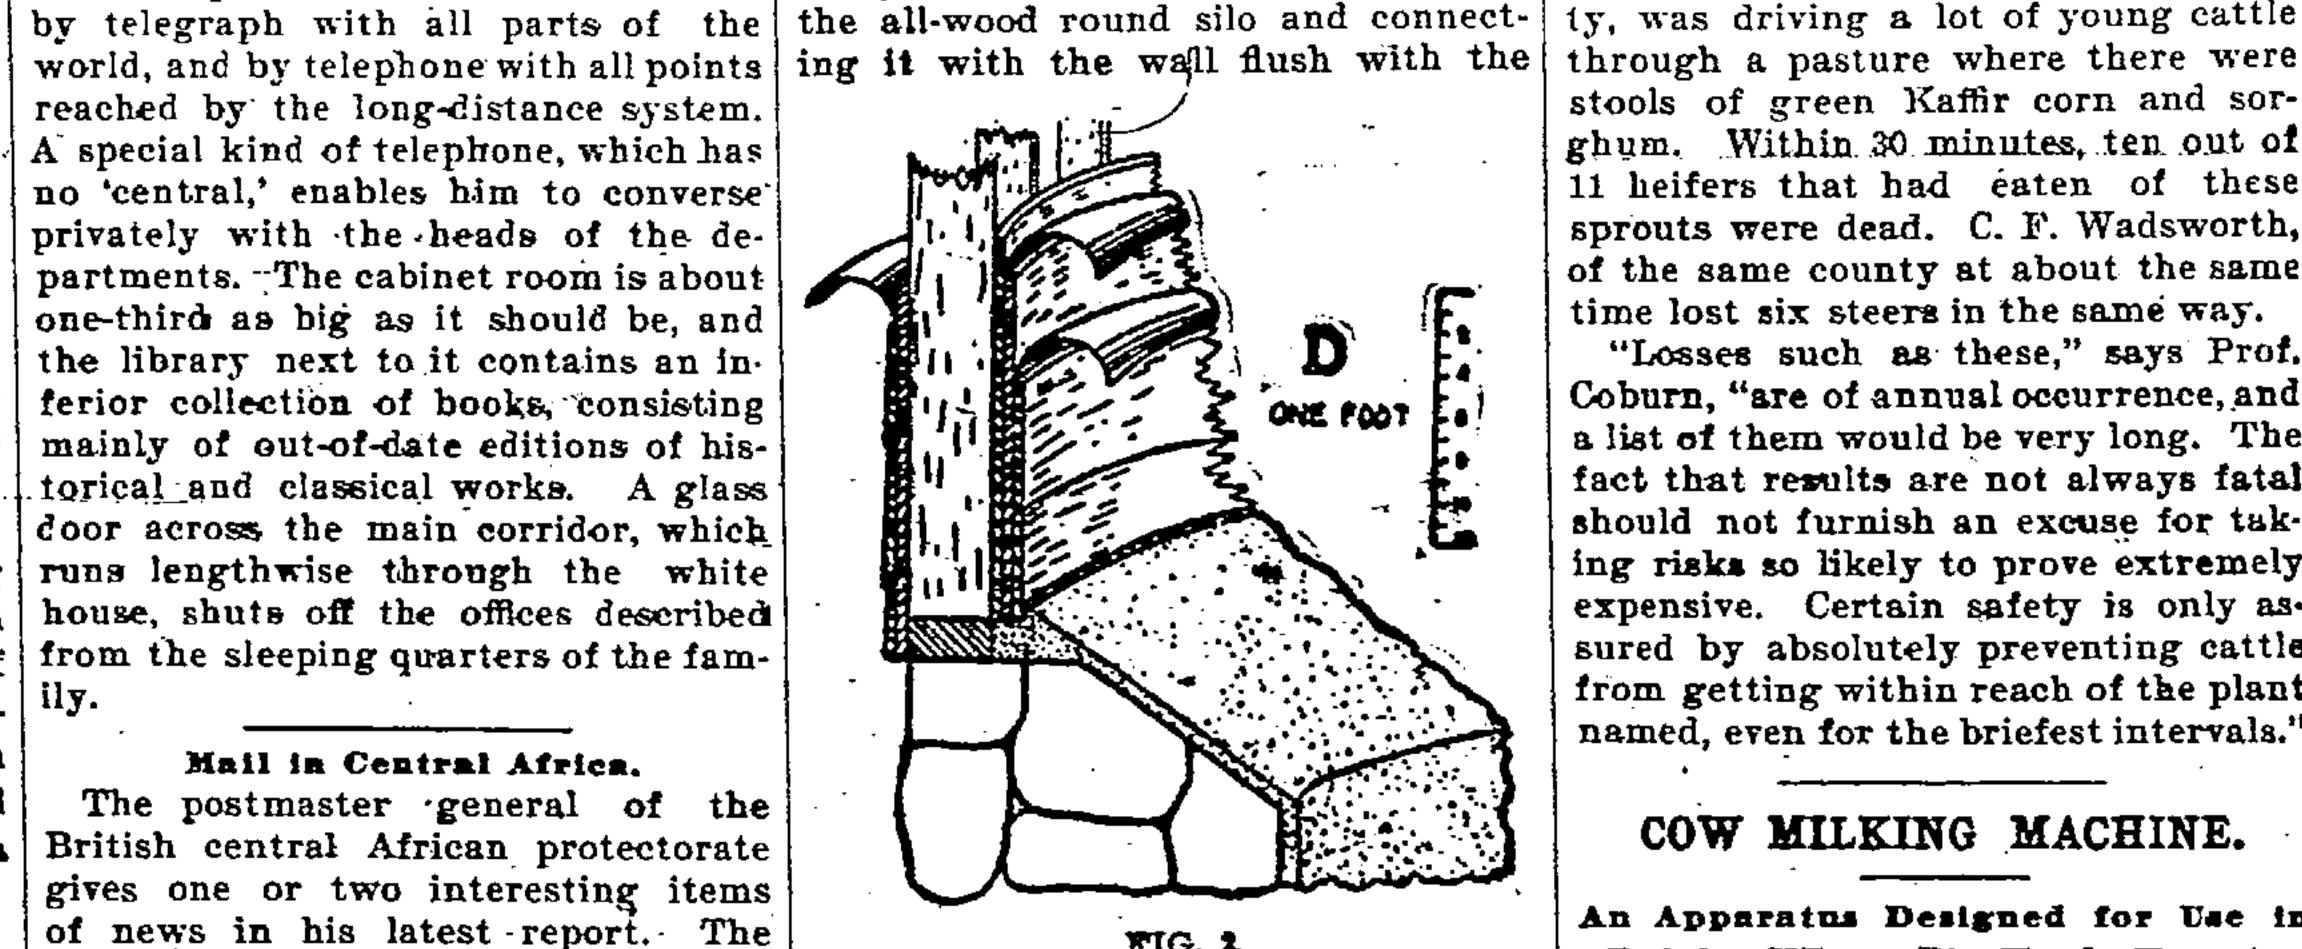

FIG. 2.

WHY THE SILO PAYS.

Some Truths Which, Although They Are Self-Evident, Cannot Be Repeated Too Often.

Until every farmer has a silo, it is it order to preach the silo, so-we beg those who have silos to bear with us I if we seem to repeat self-evident truths. Remember what an awful lot of preaching it takes to save a few sinners and have patience, or, do better, help us to spread the truth. 1. The silo stores away corn more proof, and will keep in the silo indefi-

Oliless expense than it can be preserved

use of the oil is discontinued.

spread over Europe. It was known

GREEN KAFFIR CORN

of Live Stock.

'instances pretty nearly subsist

persons are ready to maintain interesting.

'ous. Yet, under circumstances and

Prof. Coburn cites three examples o

the fatal effects of Kaffir corn or sor-

's also the case in many other stard tate officers should be on the looker

The Fisht on Besies Butter. should be clearly understood he il that what the dairymen want There is no thought of suppressing Prevent it from taking a name nd Because they have seen cattle cat 1 true to it, and the dairyman will ha young, first-growth and second-growth satisfied. People seem to persistently surghum and Kaffir corn, and in some misunderstand the object of the antipleomargarine agitation. It is equally to the interest of oleo users that it his gold for what it is, as the buyers these green growths are neven dangerwould thus save several cents on each pound bought.—Farmers' Review.

reasons which no one is yet able to ex-' plain, other persons, in numerous in stances, find to their sorrow that the DIM plants are almost immediately fatal. 'This suggests that no one is justified in taking any chances by permitting cat-Endorsement, is what tle to have access to such "greens." In connection with this remark the experience of Secretary Coburn, of the Everybody has their hour of trouble. Kansas board of agriculture, may be

But people having any itchiness of Have many hours of trouble. Nothing so annoying. Nothing so irri

Scratch it, it becomes worse. Leave it alone and you can hardle

Eczema and horrid itching piles. Relief and cure are here at last. lers were made very sick, but recovered. Thousands have put it to the test. Doan's Ointment cures every form di stools of green Kaffir corn and sor-Read the following statement. ghum. Within 30 minutes, ten out of Mr. J. R. Laird, tobacconist, of 33 11 heifers that had éaten of these North street, Rochester, N. Y., says: " sprouts were dead. C. F. Wadsworth, used Doan's Ointment, and I cannot f the same county at about the same sufficiently express my satisfaction, for i "Losses such as these," says Prof. was most positive in immediately curing Coburn, "are of annual occurrence, and a most exasperating irritation of the a list of them would be very long. The rectum. It gave me comfort and re fact that results are not always fatal moved everything offensive immediately. should not furnish an excuse for tak- I tried many preparations, but never go ing risks so likely to prove extremely relief until I tried Doan's Ointment." expensive. Certain safety is only as | For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents sured by absolutely preventing cattle from getting within reach of the plant | Mailed by Foster-Milbarn Co., Buffalo

ber the name, Doan's, and take no sub-

CURED

White Ribbon Remedy,

or Coffee, Without Patient's

PURE, CLEAR, ODORLESS, TASTE-

firmed inebriate or a "tippler." a social

Broken Al

drinker or a drunkard. White Ribbon Remain

White Ribbon Remedy will cure, or

Can be given in Glass of Water,

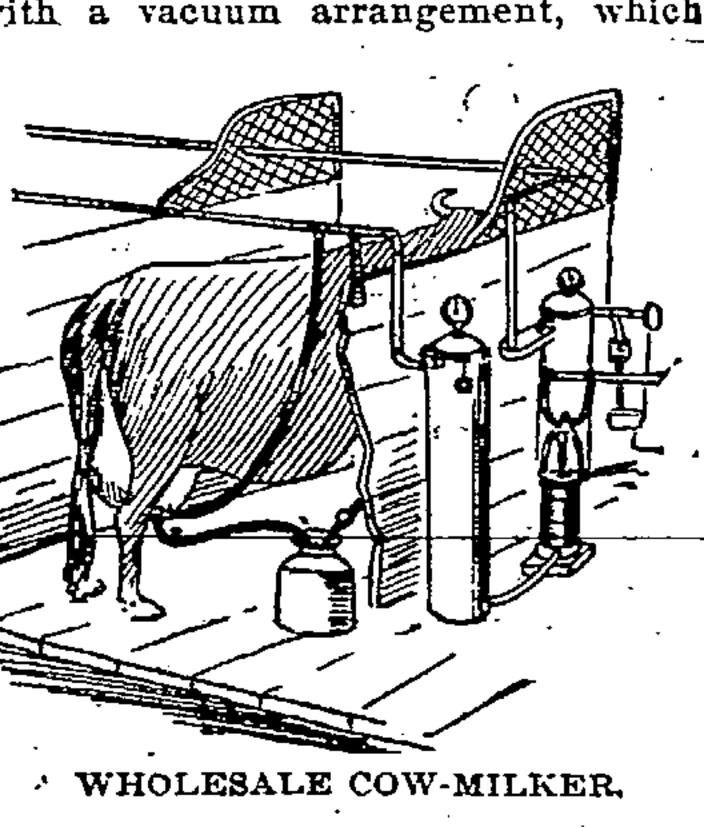

COW MILKING MACHINE.

named, even for the briefest intervals." N. Y., sole agents for the U.S. Remem time lost six steers in the same way.

An Apparatus Designed for Use in Dairies Where Big Herds Have to Be Taken Care Of which would milk a single cow and transfer the milk to a can. We now show an apparatus which can be used to milk a whole herd of cows at once, needing but two men to operate the machinery. One man is stationed at the reservoirs to watch the indicators and operate the pumps when necessary, and the other passes along the stalls, attaching the teat cups and starting the flow of milk. At intervals are placed receiving cans, which ! are connected with the suction apparatus and also to the teat cups. Direct pipes suspended overhead con-

who attends the machinery preserving pipes to do the work without injury desirability of a method which shall

I is see you a few minutes.'

g Bears Wood Fugale.

HARDWARE,

GREENWOOD, N. Y

C. F. SMITH,

Physician and Surgeon

GREENWOOD N. Y

HOYT & MAYO

FASHIONABLE BARBER

has located in the building

south of WOOD-

WARD & YOUNG'S

on Main street,

Greenwood, N.Y.

where he keeps

Patent Medicines

Cine Company's Medicines.

About Bald People.

the head. Diseases that affect the general nutrition of the body are

France Taking to Cheap Liquor.

A comparatively sober country no

It is likely to thin the hair.

Confectionery,

Ice Cream,

a line of

Toilet Articles,

GREEN WOOD, N. Y Druggists.

"Dat's what we smelt on Lazy Bill's yo' live!" WOODARD & YOUNG. ing another with the air of one who has found the solution of a great mystery.' GENERAL MERCHANDISE "What did you say, Ben?" GREENWOOD, N. Y "I said, massy, dat dat wuz what we laugh, smell on Lazy Bill's bref yistedy!" "Yes, dar's whar yo' liquor's gone, massy!" affirmed the driver. melt liquor-on Lazy Bill's bref yistedy | woeful cast of countenance to sho at dinnah, an' we smelt it wusser when his master. This had its desired we come home at night!" "Yes, dat's what's gone wid liquor, massy!" cried another of the ne' groes, and the rest affirmed their belief! in the truth of the statement. "Bill, did you take my liquor?" asked the master, the accused individual bow appearing at the scene of investi-

"Take yo' liquor? No, massy, I Rooms opposite Woodward & Young' I didn't know yo' liquor Shaving and haircutting done in "All these other boys, Bill, tell me] that they smelt it on your breath." "Smelt it on my bref? I'll sw'ar.1

massy, I didn't take yo' liquor!" clared Bill, with uplifted hands. "Dese been sent to work. oder niggahs are lyin', massy!" O. YY. OILLI, or four of the other negroes.

ment's hesitation, "the evidence is work with the other hands. See that he doesn't shirk, driver."

The "driver" , was the overseer, and himself, severity to those under him was his strongest characteristic. Lazy Bill was an ugly, squat little negro of indefinite age, whose epithet had become an inseparable part of his name. At an earlier age he had been known . as "Sleepy Bill," but when an attempt ing. was made to put him to work, "lazy," being a more comprehensive term, su-) perseded the first adjective. Despite response. All that she saw was the his laziness and the fact that his repul deep, sullen water.

tation for strict truthfulness was not lalways good. Lazy Bill was a great fa. crying. The guilty countenance of | vorite with his master, and on this ac. | the water confirmed her fears. toiled all day long, aroused in the oth- The other negroes had just sat sounded like Scripture. er negroes a spite and hatred that they down to dinner, but they rose imme-whipped him, much to the delight of all what I dreamed!" said others. Usually the loss of hair begins be- were getting ready to begin work fore the thirtieth year. In woman "Yes, we knows we did!" said the It usually constitutes a general thin- "driver." "An' yo' got me whupped when yo' was a good-sized accumulation of the interest. Ining; in man it affects the top of l knows I hadn't stole massy's liquor!" "On'y yo' didn't git haf as much as stroy the diseased appetite for alcohols to very long ago, France has become yo' desarved!" broke in another negro. suddenly and irretrievably sink. stimulants. Whether the patient is a content the prey of the cheapest and mos "Yo' niggahs all know yo' done wrong n tellin' a lie on me an' gittin' me answered the "driver;" "if we didn't! tell lies on yo' yo'd never get whupped. an' a good whuppin's jes' what yo' de the dislodging of each log and peered 'Pill! Besides dat, yo' lays aroun' de shrieks every few moments announce we is. Yo' lies an' steals yo'self, Lazy l On one of the Japanese railway n' does nothin', jes' like yo' wuz white folks, while we's all out here in de fiel seeing the lifeless, helpless form wukin fur yo', yo' lazy, black ape, yo'!" Bill, the hearts of his former enemie. "Hooray fur drivah!" cried the other softened toward him. They spoke or negroes, bursting into a big, derisive him as little Bill, not as lazy threateningly; "yo's 'll all wush yo' began trying to shift from his hadn't tol' dat lie on me! See now it science responsibility for the false "What's 50' gwine to do, Lazy Bill? 12 anybody. Yo's too lazy to against whom Bill had pledged his "spirit" to take special vengeance, fe' "Yo' niggahs bettah not laugh, I tells | himself so deeply under condemnation Bill meant this for a dire threat, ! | bref!" said one of the negroes, address- his last sentence brought only a loud laugh. This was not the first time he | 8

had made this threat, and this was not the first time it had been met with po' Bill ag'in. But you will, driver! At noon and night and the next You'll see him dis bery night!" "We morning Lazy Bill assumed a mo fect. When the hands were about ready to start to the field, the master called Bill to him and told him !

hue deepened on his face. "Yo' niggahs'll all see him 'fore-you | dies!" cried the mother. might go that day to the woodland above the dam and do some chopping. The duil, dead sound of the hand- same ragged, patched pantaloons with he had exhausted all his creative may The look of woe, having accomplished ting his ax, Lazy Bill set out to his drift floated away. All peered solemn- of the brim torn away. place of work. ly into the clear, deep water, but noth-When the dinner horn sounded, Bill .

ling was seen of Bill. The conclusion now was that the hadr had sunk, and that the water of able to speak. Not appearing still later, his mother cations of some one fishing had been he asked. "What's de mattah wid yo' hastened to the place where he had seen at a point farther up the stream, fool niggaha?" and thither it was decided to go next

All that could be seen of him here and continue the search. Tain't so, massy! Lazy Bill's lyin' was the ax he had been using lazily name was Dave and who lived on an "Tain't so, massy! Lazy Bill's lyin' sticking in a small sapling. She looked to git outen a whuppin!!" cried three in all directions adjoining plantation, appeared at the sticking in a small sapling. She looked adjoining plantation, appeared at the sticking in a small sapling. She looked adjoining plantation, appeared at the sticking in a small sapling. She looked adjoining plantation, appeared at the sticking in a small sapling. She looked adjoining plantation, appeared at the sticking in a small sapling sunbeam, the in all directions, but saw nothing of adjoining plantation, appeared at the their faces, when the master sud tears of the cloud, the inconstancy of him. She ran down to the drift where scene of trouble. On ordinary week denly appeared upon the scene. Bill usually did his fishing. There days Dave was simply a laborer on his In an unintelligible jargon of and the vanity of the peacock, the was the long log projecting over the master's farm, but on Sundays and oc- stutterings and stammerings. Dave hardness of the diamond, the sweet against you. I shall have to whip you water on which Lazy Bill always sat and you will have to go to the field and when he are sold and a preacher. He were a ministerial look and the same and stammerings. Dave hardness of the diamond, the sweet a preacher. He were a ministerial look and the same and stammerings. Dave hardness of the diamond, the sweet and you will have to go to the field and the same and stammerings. Dave hardness of the diamond, the sweet a preacher. He were a ministerial look and the same and stammerings. Dave hardness of the diamond, the sweet and you will have to go to the field and the same and stammerings. water on which Lazy Bill always sat a preacher. He wore a ministerial look when he first began fishing, on which he then nodded awhile, and on which tail" coat and "beaver" hat. Dave their knees, with such woeful, terror rot and the cooing of the turtledove 'he usually stretched himself he usually stretched himself and could not read, but he carried with him stricken countenances. slept. Foot prints were on this log. a bible and a hymn book. though a slave and once a field hand Lazy Bill had fished there a few days He-made a few inquiries concerning before, because he had come home car- the time and supposed circumstances rying a small turtle. But these tracks of the drowning, and then joined him shame chasing fear and remorse from were too fresh, his mother believed, self to the weeping mother as the each face.

to have been made then. Without doubt they had been made that morn- | march to the upper drift began. All | Deliberately Bill climbed down from | The mother called aloud, looking u as one being led to execution. the dam and down, but there was I

There was little in poor Bill's character from which to draw consolation Bill's mother at first could not comfor a bereaved heart, but Dave con- prehend his sudden appearance there. "Bill's drownded!" she broke out, trived to find and expatiate upon this Presently, however, she realized the little. He turned hither and thither truth, and, clasping Bill in her arms, through the Bible, pretending to read | she showed an affection that embarcount he was heartily disliked by the __ In great anxiety she hurried back but really quoting from memory, as rassed him. other negroes. To return at noon and to the "quarters" and reported that far as his memory would serve, extenu- With the master in front laughing, find Lazy Bill lying on the veranda fast Bill was drowned, mentioning the ating passages of Scripture; and where and Dave with his Bible and hymnasleep, or to see him riding about the fresh tracks she had seen on the log. his memory would not serve, then im- book, and the mother, leading Bill and Etc. plantation with his master, while they and the guilty aspect of the water. provising consoling passages that crying in joy, just behind, and with The route to the upper drift led up gratified by making faise accusations diately upon the sad announcement. the bluff and past the point where Bill turned against him. The punishment usually The report that Bill was drowned was had been at work in the morning. this incident, to everyone of those neflicted was merely to send Lazy Bill not questioned. Several of the ne- When this point was reached all groes whom the master had caught to the field to work with the other groes said that they had been expect- stopped. Into the shade of an im- on his knees the neighborhood was slaves; but this morning his master had ing such news for some while. "Jes' mense clump of grapevines, which one big, ugly face distorted with during many years had spread and laughter and ridicule.-Ledger Month.

the other negroes and to Bill's deep in. The inhabitants of the "quarters," a | twined and intertwined on the top of ly score or more, hastened at once to the a group of low, numerous-branched "You niggahs tol' a lie on me dia dam and began searching for the saplings, Dave stepped, while the othindoor lives, and almost all of them mawnin', you knows you did!" he broke body. Parties went, some up and ers gathered sorrowfully about him to belong to the intellectual class. Out when they reached the field and some down the stream, but nothing survey for a few minutes the spot of coat, was asked of what stuff it was was seen of the lifeless form, and re-earth where Bill was known to have hade. turning, the stalwart negroes began | been last at work, and which his devigorously to dislodge the drift. This mise had now endowed with a tender most of it is made of fresh air. I floating matter of the stream, and "Yes, we knows we got yo' whupped. was very dangerous, not only from there was its wood just as he lad cut

There he had felled a little tree, and Lazy Bill," replied the "driver," care- the long logs projecting over the and piled it-not a very large quantity, lessly; "we's glad we got yo' whupped! water, ready to precipitate into the but enough to be a credit for Bill. And We seed yo' git one time what yo' dam, but more so from the concealed there, sticking in a small sapling, was openings through which one of Bill's his ax, just as he had left it when the careless, thoughtless habits might idea of going a-fishing had suddenly Miss Rose Heritage, of Gloucester) struck him in the morning. And here City, N. J., is probably the only The tide had wedged the logs to and there on several other saplings woman in the country who has ever gether with great force, but this was were the hacks he had made in the endictated to a big railway corporation

', of debris floated solemnly off down

'Under the thought of momentarily They declared that he was not so lazy nothin' wrong! Yo' knows yo' has! next train in from there... Bill's blood's on all yo' niggahs!" "All yo' niggaha who's mistreated ly yielded, and, after waiting "ill and lied on him, fall down on yo'l. charges brought against Bill, especial-knees an' beg mussy uv de Lawd!" the operator at the station when t

They also re-

The preacher ran to him. "What's de mattab, driver?" white—like—an-~angel "Dat's right, driver!" exclaimed the | . "Lawd save us!" the negroes cried | grief-stricken mother, noting his woe- in one voice. ful face. "If I'd been as mean to Bill In terror they looked toward the as you has, I'd look meaner dan you boint indicated. does. You oughtn't help move dese "Good Lawd save us!" they imlogs. You oughtn't want eber to see plored in agony. True enough, just above the preach.

ler's head stood Bill-on the grape The "driver's" hands fell limp to his vines-peering out in open-eyed and generally regarded as the inferiors of sides, his head dropped and the ashy open-mouthed wonder. But Bill was men, yet, according to a Hindoo not clothed in white like an angel; gend, this is the proper origin of the the "driver" was mistaken in this. sex: Twashfri, the god Vulcan of the Bill was wearing the same little dirty Hindoo mythology, created the world A thrill of agony shot through the cotton shirt he was wearing when he But on his commencing to create dusky frames. Not a word was spoken, left home in the morning, and the was heard. Finally the last log of the tle old hat, full of holes and with part

A sudden dumbness seemed to seize upon the negroes. the dam should be drawn off. But indi- "What you-uns all doin' down thar?"

Each negro turned and looked at

The master burst into a loud laugh. formed woman. Then he presented This broke the spell. One by one her to the man. the negroes rose, a look of intense,

'moved slowly and solemnly up the hill, his couch in the grapevines, and, rubthe mother in great grief, the "driver" bing his eyes, stood sleepily innocen before the shame-faced negroes. Firmly believing him to be drowned.

the rest of the negroes silently bring-1.

_____ Cheap Material.

Railway to Give Her a Special Train.

whupped!"
"No, we doesn't know it, Lazy Bill," soon overcome, and large quantities the easiest chopping.

getner with great force, but this was deavor to ascertain which would afford and, perhaps, the only woman who has ever had the distinction of rid. the hearts of all softened still more few days ago Miss Heritage went to he would no doubt now be living and West Jersey and Seashore railroad not be lying down there in that aw. for her home. The train had been I delayed by a slight accident and was |_ "Bill's blood's on all yo' niggaha over an hour late. After getting had him whupped when he hadn't done at Gloucester, and she could take the company's expense. Miss Heritage's mother was home and she was anxious troversy Miss Heritage was few minutes was at her mother's bed

ORIGIN OF WOMAN.

Hindoo Legend Which Pays's Raw Compliment to the Feminine fex.

In oriental countries women woman he discovered that with mas terials, and that not one solid element had been left. This, of course, greatly perplexed Twashtri, and caused him to fall in profound meditation. When he arose from it he proceeded as fol lows: He took the roundness of the moon, the undulating curves of the serpent, the graceful twist of the creeping plant, the light shivering of the grass blade and the slenderness or the willow, the velvety softness of the flowers, the lightness of the feather, the wind, the timidness of the hare

From this date until farther notice, all paid · advance orders will receive 15 photographs for the price of one dozen at

All these he mixed together and

Greenwood, N.Y.

We Don't

A store full of the very best selected home furnishings. all the latest patterns and most... approved are to be found

We are selling at the very closest figures. Our motto is quick sales and low prices.

Greenwood, N. Y.

lemn-toned exclamations and female

the fancy that the body was found.

as he was thought to be, and each

ly the false charge about the liquor.