Death of Mrs. Philinda Conrad.

Mrs. Philinda Conrad died at her home in Greenwood township, Dec. 17, 1909. She was born in Newfield, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1826. While she was an infant her parents moved to this section of country where she has since resided. Her maiden name was Mead. Mr. Conrad, the husband of her youth, died in the army during the early days of the rebellion, leaving her with two children who survive her. In early life she was converted and became a member of the M. E. church. She maintained such a consistent Christian character that she was greatly beloved by the people who knew her. A large number of people attended her funeral at her residence, conducted by Rev. S. D. Pickett of Andover, on the afternoon of Dec. 19th. She was buried in the cemetery near her home.

FRED CONRAD,
NELLIE J. CAFFEY.

Many persons have had the experience of Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kudal Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breeze, Elm Valley.

New Year's Service at the Blessed Sacrament Church.

A Novena in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Redeemer is being held at the Blessed Sacrament church. The Rosary and other prayers are said every evening at 7:30 o'clock. Parents should see that their children attend these services at the church. All Christians are under infinite obligations to the Redeemer. Catholics can in no way better pay this debt of gratitude than by complying with the instructions and behests of their priests. The Novena will close on New Year's Day. Father Murray has told his parishioners that he ardently desires them all to go to confession, so that they may receive Holy Communion at the Midnight Mass to be celebrated next Monday night. By a special decree the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIII, grants the privileges of Midnight Mass New Year's eve in all churches throughout the Catholic world, in which the Blessed Sacrament is reserved, and to the faithful the privilege of receiving Holy Communion. Thus does the Supreme Pontiff ordain to close the 19th century and by a most solemn religious service to usher in the 20th, which he wishes in a special manner to be dedicated to Christ the Redeemer.
