and if he is a very honest chap he will, also tell you that he could not make as good for you-fabric, fashion or fit- a few days of last week with her hus | ... for less than double the price we ask | band, who was painting Henry Youngs', Fit you? Why we will fit you as per new residence. fectly the moment you want the clothes as if they were made to measure it you, and you had tried them on and had Springville, the guest of Miss Anna ion. them altered a dozen times.

Stein-Bloch Clothes are Wholesale-Tailored and Ready-to-Fit. Don't confuse them with any other sort. Their label is always under the business Monday and Tuesday. collar on the "real thing," and we are the agents for Stein-Bloch clothes in afternoon for Atlantic City, where she this town.

not satisfied.

Overcoals,

SCHAUL & ROOSA,

160 Main St.

A Family Reunion-On Their Way to Ceres-

The Telephone Manager This Week. M. R. Crane of Canisteo is visiting his daughter, Mrs. D. B. Ersley.

of his son, Adelbert Reynolds, from unable to be here as appointed, but that was about dead would show the to the couple. Michigan. A pleasant time was en will come this week. joyed by those present.

been exceptionally fine, and farm work! Griff Rogers of Troupsburg was in. is well in hand for winter.

days with her sister, Mrs. B. E. Aus-, ing cigars in town Monday. tin, at Springville.

bride's parents in Rexville, Mr. Frank made a call in Greenwood last week. Rexville. Miss Dennison is one of Dennison of Rexville, Rev. Adams of was in town on business Tuesday.

Greenwood officiating. Rev. Wm. Stocum of Young Hick. was in this village Tuesday. ory was in town Saturday.

There was a dancing party at the our city Wednesday. house of George Caffrey on West Hill E. G. Quick of Hornellsville made Mrs. J. L Sisson, Miss Mary Potter Mills, Pa., Sunday. Briday evening. A good time is re Greenwood a business visit Wednes and Miss Harvey of Hornellsville, There was a donation at Jerry Sauncow Friday. hull Saturday and Sunday, the guests a visit to Greenwood Saturday. of Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Miller.

Stanislous Murray lost a valuable;

Allie Mead is threshing on West Troupsburg were in town last week.

and Sunday with his wife in Savona. turned from the Pan Am. Sunday.

Sim. Pease Saturday evening.

week to care for Mrs. Warren Knight, Mary's church at Rexville Monday, who is dangerously ill.

Miss Ellen Young spent Wednesday Mrs. Charles French of Canisteo is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. Bess.

Emmett Coston and wife were in Hornellsville Friday. Blanche Smith and Genevieve Paris visited at their respective homes Canisteo Sunday.

Saturday. Rev. D E. Stiles and wife visiten, lat the homes of J. S. O'Connor & Stiles are on their way to Ceres, Pa, many took advantage of he low prices tat which they could buy unquestionator of the M. E. church. ble merchandise. We are urged .

Mrs. G. M. Woodward and daugh Best in the World ter Mary and Miss Ellen Young were: still greater efforts to increase our rapin Hornellsville Monday.

'W. Smith's Sunday, remaining until dealers in Ready-made Clothing for Monday. have the correct things at the lowest. Adelbert Austin was in town on Mrs. Carrie Folsom lest Thursda) expects to spend the winter with HORNELLSVILLE, N.

$15 to $25 friends. $15 to $35 Miss Hester Phillips, who has been Your money back for the asking if spending a couple of weeks with her mother, rerurned to her school duties n Hartsville Saturday. Miss Mabelle Howard spent Satur Hornellsville day and Sunday in Buffalo.

Lewis Ruger and wife of Bath are ... TENSE CHENNOOD NEWS, visiting relatives in town.

> in Greenwood Sunday. business in this place Monday.

Mr. Healey, the manager of the case Dr. Bertron immediately pro A family reunion was held at the Inter Ocean Telephone Company, who nounced the ailment to be parasitical were made. After dinner the newly home of Norman Reynolds on Satur was to meet owners of local telephones bronchitis, and he informed those day. The occasion was the presence in Greenwood Monday evening, was present that a post mortem of one Fred Palmer of Shingle House was 1 The weather for the past week has a caller in Greenwood Sunday.

this city Sunday. Mrs. Peter Rollins is spending a few J. C. Beach of Sabinsville was sell-

L. R. Stephens and Arthur Man-The Universalist society are re-ning of Shingle House were in town Married, at the residence of Mr. few days.

Charles B. Davis of Hornellsville 1.

H. Dexhiemer of Shawnee,

Charles Erskine and wife went to. F. J. Bailey of Young Hickory was port, Pa., Miss Nettie Loury of Wells first in our new year. Oswayo Saturday, feturning Sunday. Fron our streets Friday of last week. 1). L. Thomas of Canisteo was 1.

> P. Wood of Hornellsville made gratulations and best wishes for their joyable evening. C. Griggs and John Hopper of

He is now at Ching Atkins on Death of an Estimable Lady. special low rate excursion tickets to! Mr. Champlin of Cere's was the Mrs. Patrick Kernan of Rough and Buffalo on Oct. 29th and 31st and guest of D. D. Smith Sunday. Ready died very suddonly on Friday Nov. 1st and 2d, for the Pan Ameri- Cal. Dennison of Rexville visited Prof. E. E. Cole spent Saturday of last week. She had been as well can, and also wish to advise their Archie Kelley Sunday. a. as usual, and as late as Thursday went patrons that the Erie R R. will hold It will soon be election-day. What Geo. Brundage and wife, Mrs. Jane to the cheese factory. During the their train No 32, which usually a pity women can't vote. They are Ruger and Elder Sheldon and wife re- evening following she was taken with leaves Buffalo at 11:15 p. m until not all idiots. neuralgia of the heart and died the 12:30 m. on Saturday evening, in or- Miss Amy Livermore of Green's Emery Chillson and wife of Canis next morning. Deceased left a hus- der to give patrons an opportunity to Corners is staying at Mrs. J. Smith's teo were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. band and four children to mourn her see the lights turned out on the a few days. untimely loss and they have the sym- grounds and witness the closing cere-Mrs. Alice Williamson of Hornells- pathy of all. Mrs. Kernan was high- monies. Have one more look at the ville and Mrs. Stella Knight of Canis by respected by all who knew her. Pan American. * were called to Greenwood last The tuneral services were held at St. OIL AT WHITESVILLE.

A Good Producer Struck. Rev. Father Casey preaching the fu Sometimes a fortune, but never if i.

The new well on the Heseltine farm i The fixed look, moth patches and biotches minutes with oil. Arrangements were pass another team, and in doing so to the sale this week. on the skin-all signs of liver trouble, made to pump it Friday, when it was was thrown from his buggy, breaking But Dr. King's New Life Pills gives expected to show a ten barrel gait at his left arm between the elbow and clear skin, rosy cheeks, rich complex- least. The fand is loose and the wrist. He wears the injured member boys: kid and calf. ion. Only 25 cents at Benedict & Van stratum is about 22 feet thick, showing in a sling, but it will be some time Noy's, Andover, and at N. E. Coston's, that it will be a laster.

End of the Pan-American.

something of us before Nov. 1st/and?

ness we did the past week, a great farm work. Samuel Wilkinson went to the Pan American the past week.

American last week.

We Hornellsville Friday.

ville Saturday.

Ben Norton has been working 1.

A. Crusen is spending a few days L or Canisteo Monday forenoon.

bave accepted positions with the L.

Buffalo and the Pan-American

The cheese factory is only running

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spencer expect to Gorden Patchen of Wayland and A.,

Kasson Lewis is to work for his un-1. cle, A. H. Lewis, beginning Monday. Miss Lena Stocum is working for L., ten days offers the grandest opportunities for bargain seekers. Entirely Wilkinson.

new lines of Cloaks, Suits, Furs and Frank Lewis and family are visiting the Pan-Am. Separate Skirts are received for this friends in Olean. D. Bailey and wife have returned, great sale. Everything is character-

Women and Children, and always

ERLICH BROS.,

148 MAIN STREET, *

PECULIAR CASE.

several of the affected ones.

ized by its newness and correct fash- from their visit in the West. Special lines of Silk and Flan-1 Mrs. L. S. Grinolds and son Walnel Waists and big assortment of ter went to Woodhull on Sunday to Children's Garments will be here at]_ see the family of R. J. Card, formerly astonishingly low prices. We are If this place, whose son Harry is very llow with pneumonia.

The marriage of Elra G. Hall on Greenwood and Miss Hattie M. Pot ter of this place occurred at the home, of the bride's parents, Rev. J. O. Potter, father of the bride, officiating. The mother, brother and two sisters visit Buffalo this week. of the groom were present, and also the parents and brothers and sisters of w. Burrell of Canisteo were visiting the bride, and a number of others, as their Republican friends in town follows: A. H. Lewis, wife and daugh. Wednesday. Affecting Young Cattle. ter Cora, and Silas Lewis and wife of Ed. Allen, Democratic nominee for Lasr week the herd of yearlings be this place; S. Daniels and wife and A. Highway Commissioner and N. E., longing to Mrs. Edward Moore, be. A. Johnson of Bingham, Pa.; James Coston of Greenwood, candidate for fails to cure. E.W. Grove's signature Mahon and wife of Sunderlinville, Member of Assembly, were in town is on each box. 25 cents. suffering from a malady that baffled Pa.; Mrs. Austin Kemp and Miss Saturday. tween Greenwood and Canisteo, were __ Dota Woodcock of Shongo, N. Y., 1 them, and Veterinarian Doctor F. and Mrs. L. Ingalls of Cherry Flats, Correspondence from various towns Pa. Osmer Hall and Miss Ellen Hall will be found on other pages. Bertron was called upon to treat them. acted as groomsman and bridesmaid. After hearing a description of the A number of fine and useful presents were made. After dinner the newly | American. Best wishes are extended |

Mrs M. C. Phelps, who is at work bronchial tubes filled with worms about one and three inches long. An at Knoxville, Pa., is spending a few examination which followed verified days at J. O. Potter's since the mar the doctor's statement, thousands of riage of their daughter Hattie, which the parasites filling the air passages to she came to attend. the lungs. The doctor expects to save H. Bennett is spending a few days at Hammondsport. Mrs. L. Ingalls of Cherry Flats, Wedding Bells in Rexville. Pa., is calling on friends here for a and Mrs. George Dennison, the bride's Rexville's most highly respected young A Donation Party-A Surprise Party at Real Rubber Rubbers at ladies, and Mr. Cook has our con- Rexville-Tuning the Church Organ. gratulations on his good fortune in Miss Rosetta Beck was the guest of winning such a prize. There were Mrs. Roland Day Sunday.

present from out of town J. Keets and C. B. Brown and wife, who were E. A. Cory of Troupsburg was in wife, E. Wellington, wife and daugh- guests of his sister, Mrs. Joshua ter, and Archie Cook of Rogersville, Saunders, returned to their home at

Jerry Baker, wife and son of Couders. ders' Thursday night. It was the Dereamer, Mrs. Jesse Osmin and M. ed the surprise party at the home of Corolan House. Atkins, wife and daughter of Green. Corolyn Harter at Rexville Friday

Sanford Strait, musician and tuner, of Westfield, Pa., took dinner with Edith Howard Thursday, and gave The N. Y. & P. R. R. Co. will sell the church organ a new voice.

BROKEN ARN

women and children, as one autum? day follows another shoes, selling at prices for which you

Pleasant to take. Acts promptly

AGENTS WANTED

Students, Teachers, Clergymen, Miss Lottic Bassett is working at Vand Bright, Intelligent Men and L Women of Affairs, in Every Town and Village.

MAUTAUQUA wants a bright, intelligent man or woman in every town to act as its agent this fall and winter in the Chautauqua courses of Home Read-Misses Lena and Lora Norton left, ing and study. All one's time, or only spare time, may be devoted to the work. and Chautauque willpay liberally fo. this service. Prizes will also be offered 1 work. Address for ful

Bureau of Extension (Dept. Z.) Cleve-

Mrs. A. D. Foster was 'n Hornells-1 When you remember that Chautauoua is now twenty seven years old, that has gone into every State of the Union. I that it has enrolled more than a quarter Louis and Will Vanderhoef visited of a million members that it keeps in successful operation a great variety I ducts the largest and most complete summer school in the world and About the usual number visited, Veighty Chautauqua Summer Assemblies were held this year in thirty different States, attracting over half a million Scople-you get some idea of its strength.

> Chautanqua Assembly, Bureau of Extension

> > CLEVELAND. OHIO.

ts scope and its influence.

TO CUBE A COLDIN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablet 'All druggists refund the mone if it

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tableta the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Western New York. FALL FOOTWEAR why not go to the place where The Assortment is the Largest,

The Styles are the Latest, The Quality the Best,

The Largest and Lowest

Priced Shoe House 1.

ECONOMY

FOR THOUSANDS

THIS SALE OF

SHOES

Thousands of people find in this a

This very opportuneness makes sti astonishing in point of size and high

They are all new strong solend excellence. We have bicked and chr

HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y. 143 Main St.

Good. The happy pair have our condevening. They all report a very en-

a Wagon

, might expect to get footgear of scarce. J promises to be a good one. After Baker was returning home from his ly more than superficial good looks and shooting it filled up 290 feet in 30 work, he turned out of the road to the new excellent groups are added Women's shoes, $1.69. Fine shoes of velour and boxed calf Spring heel shoes for girls and small Sturdy black calf with exr

Solid trains between

NEW YORK and CHICAGO. Pullman Cars to New York, Boston, Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati

imestown, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Walter Cheesman have the job.

Married, at the residence of the Gordon M. Patchen of Wayland Rewille. Miss Dennison is one of Residence of the Gordon M. Patchen of Wayland Rewille. Miss Dennison is one of Residence of the Residence of the Gordon M. Patchen of Wayland Rewille. Miss Dennison is one of Residence of the Residen Chicago. Meals in dining car. Stops at Wells-1 10 p. m. No. 29, daily accommodation for unkirk, connecting at Carrollton for Bradierd 6 23 p.m. No. 1, daily accommodation for Sala.

> No. 8, daily solid Vestibule train, for Hornellsville, Corning, Elmira, Binghamton, New York and Boston, connections for Philadelphia and 128 p. m., No. 14, daily for Hornellsville. Addison, Corning, Elmira, Waverly, Owego, Bing. nellsville, connecting for points on Buffalo and

Central N. Y. & Western Division,

TIME TABLE.

New York Express via Wayland, leaves H nellsville at 5.00 p m, arriving at Wayland at

New York and Bata Express, leaves Hotnells

Buffalo Express via Wavland leaves Hornells.

ville at 9.15, arriving at Wayland at 10.15

p. m., arriving at Hornelisville at 7.00.

at Canaserage at 8.40. Hornellsville at 9.10.

CHAS. H. HAMMOND, Gen. Pass, Agent.

Norton, Allegany County Judge, notice

Banking Office of A. M. Burrow in the villag

Dated Andover, N. Y., April 9, 1901.

M. S. BLAIR, General Supt.

more remarkable a sale that is already. New York Express, leaves Wayland at 6.10

A. Burrows, Gen. Pass'r Agt. - 369 Main St

town the Russian church was wrecked it on. trouble was caused by members of a secret sect known as Stundists. "Stunt- a bold face on the matter and went to rillas rode into town, he was sitting by There were no springs to the wagon, to the prostrate animal, I found him of their name.

A new remedy for biliousness is now over, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood. It | fittin it." soon as the first indication of the dis. and in another moment the man yelled | combat. Swaying in his saddle, he fell | bounded into the air and now we were Pase appears. Price, 25 cents per box again, "Ef yo' cut that critter's hoof fainting to the ground. Samples free.

nearly every day for a week." cago Post.

One Way to Get Even.

doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy playing to allay the irritation of the throat, and The captain called to him: New York, on or before the lat devol Novemdake sleep possible. It is good. Try or sale by Benedict & Van Noy, And ver, and b/N. E. Coston, Greenwood' may taking a very deep interest in the plans

CHAPTER XX.

A MASQUERADE.

"Weel, noo," he said at last.

Captain F. A. MITCHEL, The public cowhiding of a wife heat-Author of "Chattangora," "Chicksmauga," Etc er in Leadville reminds one that Colorado is a woman suffrage state with a will stop itchiness of the skin in any part of the body. Doan's Ointment At any drug store, 50 cents. Another trial of the Mollneux case! would be a fine thing for the experts.

but it has outlived its usefulness as a for making divorce more difficul first class newspaper feature. a smith at his forge. After exposure or when (u feel a cold coming on, take a dose oley's by guerrillas. They'll be in the town Honey and Tar. It never fails d cetop in a few minutes. Can't you give me go?" a cold if taken in time. at the forge?"

It is said that Senator Depew cables what I said was slowly making its way | dle of the bellows looking at me while! three times a day a loving message to through his skull. his sweetheart in Paris: Chauncey is a good thing for the cable companies.

fore I can make him understand." Then 'It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters, cured me of a terrible death by guerrillas?" breaking out all over the body. I am , "Certain, mon." very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge West Cornwell, Conn.

The Boers have reached the sea, says worked quickly enough once he real. ener regrets to report that they have en shirt, well begrimed, hanging on a right 'long thar," and she pointed up not yet jumped in.

and looked into a bit of broken mirror there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by serve the effect. I was disappointed to tone: Benedict & Van Noy, Andover, and by see that my face belied my calling. N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

countable for the high price of meat five minutes I had shorn my beard, ently I heard the captain say; and notatoes.

vour food and feel dull after eat- at myself. I was pleased to see that my | pleading. Was she pleading for us? dose of Chamberlain's Stomach Liver ing the handle of the bellows, I began Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free to blow vigorously. at Benedict & Van Noy's, Andover, and smith, "ye mak' a better lo'kin smith at N. E. Coston's, Greenwood. than geentlemon.'

The census reports show that women are in the majority in the east, while the end of the performance." men are the most numerous in the Charles R. Wessmar, Evanston, any treatment until we tried Foley's shake of the head. I put my head out within him was plain in every line of with the stump of an old whip. Honey and Tar. He was completely to see and, recognizing one of them, his face. At last he said: cured before using one bottle." Take drew back and began to blow my bel- "Fo' yo' sake, little one, I'll do it." none but Foley's. L. A. Burrows.

It is reported from San Juan, Porto Rico, that General Andrade, who is now in that city, is preparing an ex- keeping my face turned from him. pedition for the invasion of Venezuela. "Seen a man, two women, a boy an ently touched his lips to her forehead." reach it before they could catch us we Taking a revolution to Venezuela is a nigger go through the town?" worse than carrying coal to Newcastle.

When suffering from racking cough, The soreness will be relieved and a had not yet blown over. I went on through the insane jealousy of Captain give you a hundred, and if you get us had evidently caught sight of us and ber of doctors without relief. After warm, grateful feeling and healing of working the bellows, and it was well Beaumont. It seems that the captain to Decherd before the outlaws can were straining every nerve to catch us two applications of Banner salve her the parts affected will be experienced. I did se, for presently more of the band had disdained to hide with the rest. catch us I'll make it a hundred more." before we reached Decherd. I told the hands became better, and in a short rode up to the shop.

"Hain't seen no one."

"Hello, thar!" he shouted on with nary trimmin?"

tated, was glad to escape into his out like a pistol shot:

"but I'm going to make things disa-†dwelling house. Going to a front win- | "Pig!"

"hopscotch" on the sidewalk. go this way awhile ago?"

, he pointed to 🛥 path leading across 🔧 , men who were watering their horses

The men darted away. captain alone in the road. A little old woman came out of a house opposite and began to guy him in a cracked voice, poking fun at him for not being able to catch a party of women. She talked so familiarly with him that began to suspect she knew him.

"Yes. Which way did they go?"

"Dey's gwine right 'long dar

"You uns ain't wo'th a persimmon," f she said. "With them critters' legs un-HAT became of the others der yer, yer orter ketch wimmen folks did not attempt to discover . made straight for the "We'll catch 'em easy enough. They've blacksmith shop and found gone along thar," pointing to the path "My good man," I said, "I'm followed "Th' didn't go that a-way." bis men were just dashing into.

trembled for fear she would betray us.

"They didn't? Which way did they your clothes and let me take your place He stood with his hand on the han-A cold chill ran down my back. She was going to tell for pay. "What do yo' want?" "Gimme 'nuff fo' a caliker dress, I'll put yer on th' right track." "Scotch—I knew it. I'll be taken beto him, "Daiyou want to save me from "This 'll git-it as easy." He drew ? revolver and put it to her face. She I drew back. But this man, who was! "Then take off that apron and give it above his calling, never could persist!"

to me at once. Not a moment to lose." in ill treating a woman, and, lowering a At this juncture the desperate posi- his weapon, he put his hand in his When the firing began, with one tion I was in entered his brain, and he pocket and pulled out a bill. , bound, disguised and begrimed as The Boers have reached the sea, says worked quickly enough once he reala Cape Town dispatch, but Lord Kitch—lized what was wanted. I saw a woolsaid the woman. "Now, you ums git monthers of our party from the houses stricken till we were out of sight." members of our party from the houses. nail and, seizing it, put it on. Then I the road northward.

took the smith's apron, rolled up my . "That won't do," said the captain gro, and it was he who had answered ' sleeves, smeared my arms with cinders | "We just came from up thar." had hidden without disguise. The peo-| resting against the wooden wall to ob- | which I heard the woman say in a lo-"Your razor!" I exclaimed to the The voice was familiar. I saw the man start, then exclaim, "Great God!" He went through a door leading from "We have no time to lose," I cried t it cannot be held ac- with a razor, soap and hot water. In gan to whisper to him earnestly. Pres-. "We must get away at once." leaving a dark stubble; then, seizing a "I can't do it." "Anywhere." handful of coke, rubbed out every re-Turning to the townspeople, I asked

4. you may know that you need a own mother would not know me. Seiz- If so, who could this good friend be to said the smith. "Out with it, quick!" "I'd do it fo' yo' an yo' friend, but Every one of us took a hand in har-"Weel, weel," laughed the black- not the other one."

"Play your own part well," I replied, on his, all the while talking earnestly! declared she would never leave her "and I have something nice for you at and looking up into his eyes. I fancied friend, Captain Ringold. There was It was fully 15 minutes after we her face, for her back was toward me, up and tossed her into the wagon, west. Horace Greeley's advice should reached the hamlet before there were while the man's head was drooping where she fell in a heap. Rising on any signs of the guerrillas, and then lower and lower. Her bonnet fell back her knees, she shook her clinched fist lasked for our party. Had they seen an was Jaqueline.

us? Which way had we gone? and oth- "Can yo' refuse when I ask it?" she as soon as she could get away. Meanmet responded to with a grunt or a The man was silent. The struggle down the road, belaboring his horse lows as if my life depended on it. And | She took his rough brown hand in it did. Presently one of the outlaws her little white one and bent her her I down upon it, then looking up through tears: "I can give yo' only a trifle in tant. The place was of too" "Waal," I replied, still blowing and reward, captain, dear. Kiss me."

Lost in wonder at the strange sight, should be safe. I was nevertheless congratulating my- "How much is your horse worth?" self that she had secured the man's asked the blacksmith. promise to draw off his force when "A matter o' saxty dollars." He rode off, but I knew the storm the whole advantage was spoiled "If you kill him by hard driving, I'll '

rode into town, and one of the horses Indeed he had no occasion to hide. The "Weel, noo, I don't want to be hard blacksmith to lay it on hard, well time she was entirely cured. Beware having lost a shoe, its rider dismounted guerrillas did not know that he was on a mon flyin for his life and wimmen knowing that between us and our pur- of substitutes. L. A. Burrows. In a religious quarrel in a Russian in front of the shop and told me to put with our party, and he was in no more folk too. I'll do the best I can and ask suers was only the life of his horse. danger from them than any other man no money." This was something I had not count- would be. He had, however, yielded With that he belabored the poor horse stumbled and fell, pitching most ed on. I knew no more about horse to Jack's persuasion to go into a house horse's flanks with the stump of his of us out of the wagon, fortunately on shoeing than about knitting, but I put and keep out of sight. When the guer- whip and sent him galloping onward. soft ground. Getting up and running a window sipping a glass of Tennessee but we valued our lives too well to stone dead. "What the — yo' doin?" yelled the | whisky, and at the moment Ringold | draw rein at rut or stone. At one part | man. "Air yo' goin ter put that shoe imprinted the kiss on Jack's forehead, of the road I feared that if we did not as ill luck would have it, he happened check our pace we would break a "Don't yo' s'pose I know my busi- to look out of the window. In another wheel and be left with no means to on sale by Benedict & Van Noy, And ness?" I cried, bristling. "I was only moment he was in the road discharging get on save our legs. I cautioned the Dave?" his revolver at the guerrilla, who, driver to slacken his pace; but, hearing called Chamberlain's Stomach and With that I seized a knife and began drawing his own weapon, returned the or fancying he heard the clattering of Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief, to cut. But I was too excited to pare fire. A fusillade followed, Ringold re- horses' hoofs behind, without a word and will prevent the attack if given as the hoof even if I had been an expert, ceiving a wound that put him hors de from me be applied the lash. Now we July."—Atlanta Constitution.

Jaqueline turned upon Beaumont like "Git oop, ye critter!" cried the black. Openion Was Such "Here. Sandy," I cried to the black- a fury. I have seen little Jack in many smith, mingling Scotch and Tennessee. smith within, "come shoe this man's a towering passion, but never anything "Don't ye know ye're graggin bonny critter. He thinks he knows more'n I like this. Her face was livid, her eyes leddies flyin for their lives?" And flaming. She tried to speak, but her down came the butt of the whip. It ire choked her. At last one word extimas harrowing to see a horse forced to i while I. pretending to be greatly irri- pressive of her pent up feelings came: give his life to save ours, but our situ-from the saddle. He was followed by in my arms, while she bid her face so while a third, perhaps fancying that horse,

"I hate yo'."

smont and the three bandits had an op-

the captain to kill, he went shyly back

CHAPTER XXI.

tossed together like dice in a box.

ation was too critical to warrant any slackening of speed. Jack, who of all the poor brute making leaps that were she cried, "or I'll beat you!" And she Having thus relieved herself to Cap- our force was usually most frightened were exchanged, and the guerrilla fell ed her from the jolting by keeping h

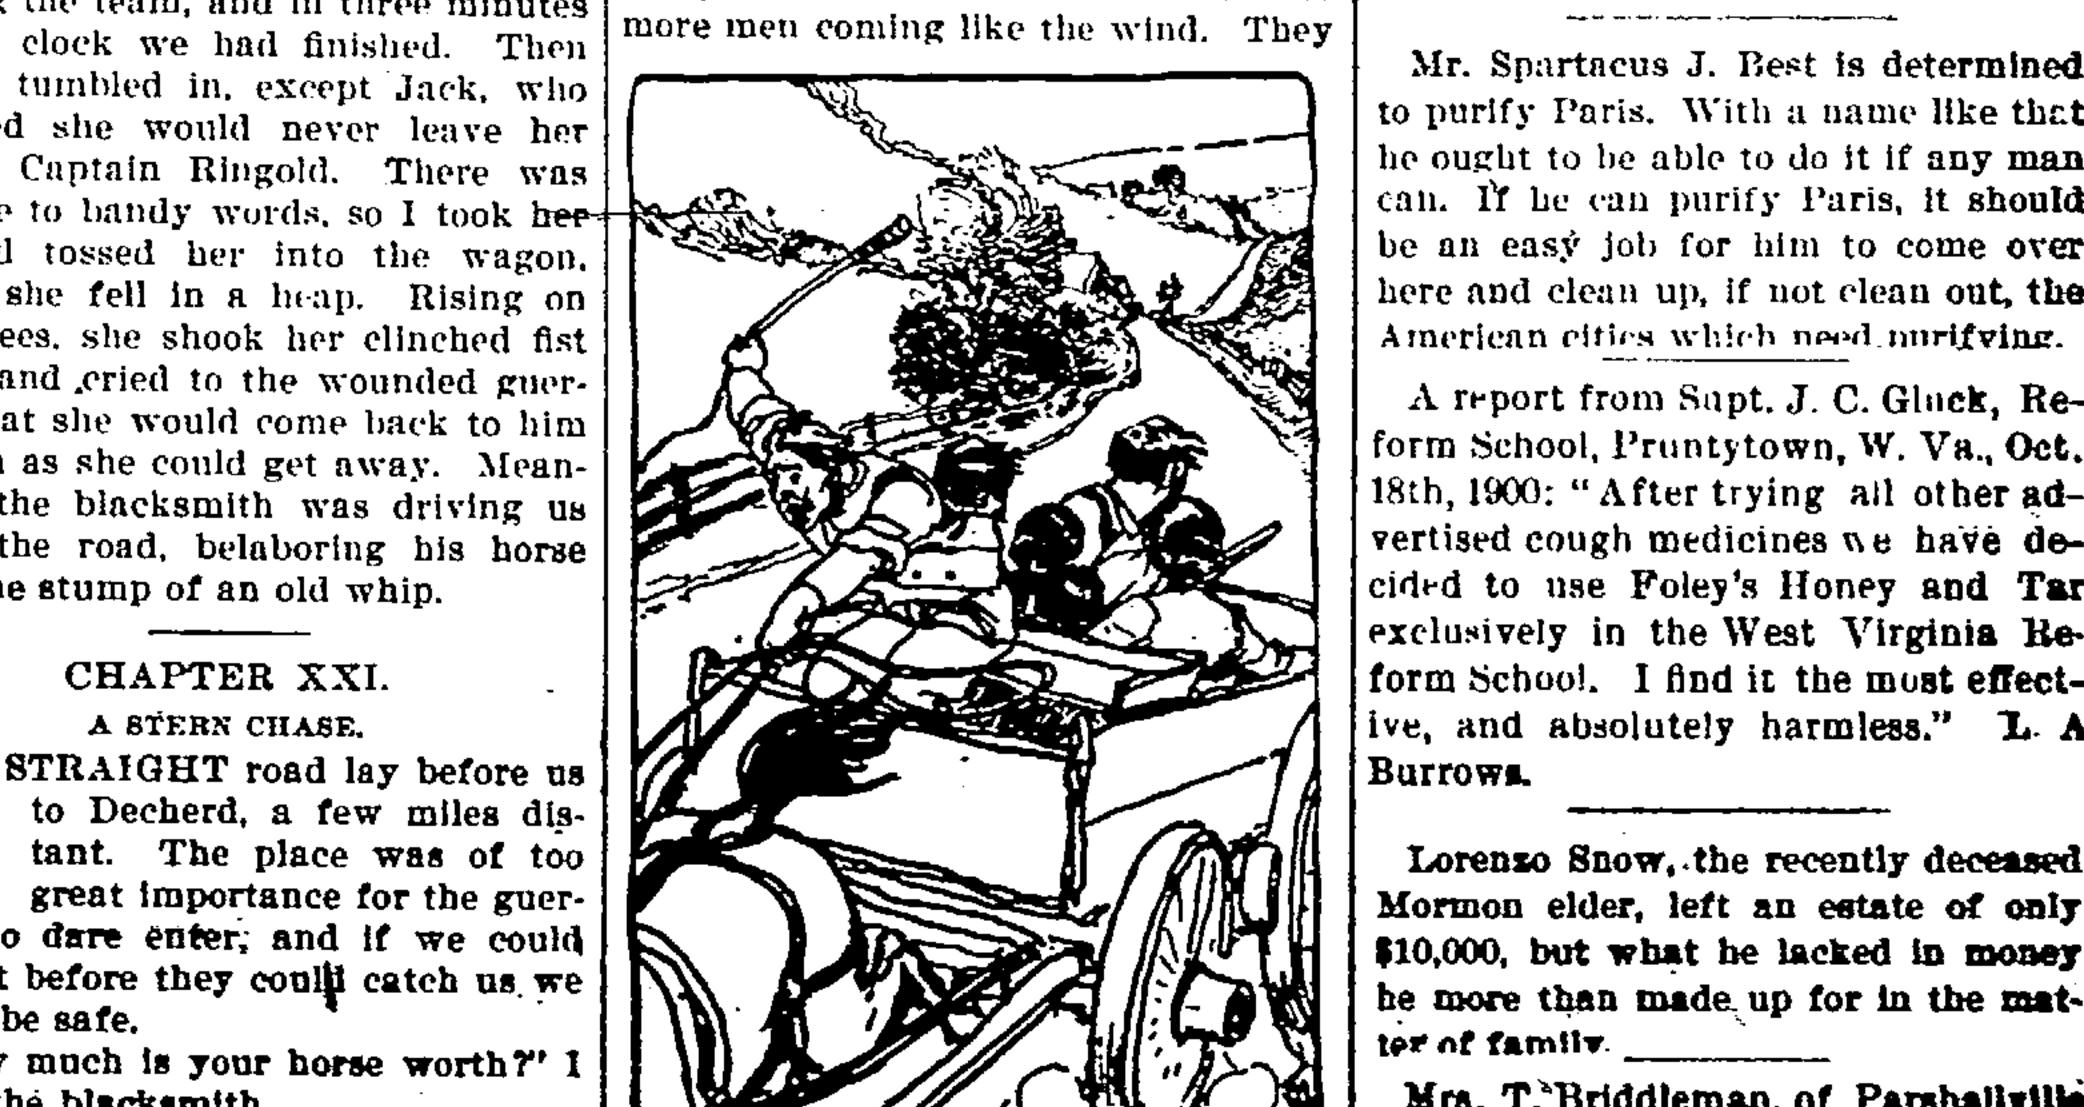

But Jack turned her back

the wagon in despondency. 1 awhile Jack slid down beside him, will relieve any ordinary cough. Price whereupon he suddenly lighted up and 75 cents. Get Green's Prize Almanac. any one of the party. We were a wild looking load to the Snyder, Meat Market. few people who passed us. Whenever I we saw a farm wagon coming or going ' we would shout to its driver to get out | United States as shown in a recent . Swaying in his saddle, he fell fainting to of the way. They must have supposed statement of the treasury department he had struck a troop of Confederate out horze to be a runaway, for every was $339,270,546 for the nine months soldlers, turned and fled. All this hap- one quickly turned paide. There are ending Sept. 30. That's not so bad. pened so quickly that no one but Beau. Dictures of that ride which I can see I today, so vividly were they stamped [on my memory. An old man with his Thad a very bad attack of kidney When there were no more guerrillas for hands on the handle of his plow gaped complaint and tried Foley's Kidney through iron rimmed spectacles, a wo- | Cure which gave me immediate relief man in a check gown and sunbonnet and I was perfectly cured after taking stopped trimming plants in her gar- two bottles." Be sure you take Foley's hand to gape at us as if we were a party of witches who had dit on the earth from the moon and were making ! When gross, children, country lads, faced the comic opera. Coming to a rise in the ground where It means kidney disorder which, if ak man shoot around a bend in the road at lous and other fatal complaints. Foley's a gallop. In a moment another follow- Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well. We could not see if there were L. A. Burrows. road. I knew well that the absence of any more, for we passed over the sum-(as that it was one mile to Decherd. "One mile to their two. Can we not ! it, driver?" I asked quickly,

The only answer was another "Git lease. 100p!" and renewed hammering on the ' horse's rump. The eyes of all were | S. A. Ingalis, Crown Point, N.Y., strained to the rear, watching to see writes: "My wife suffered from kidney Just what chance there was from time | trouble for years. She was induced to to time between life and death, while try Foley's Kidney Cure and in less than examined the carbines, which we had a week after she began using it, she taken care to bring with us, to discov-

170 BE CONTINUED 1

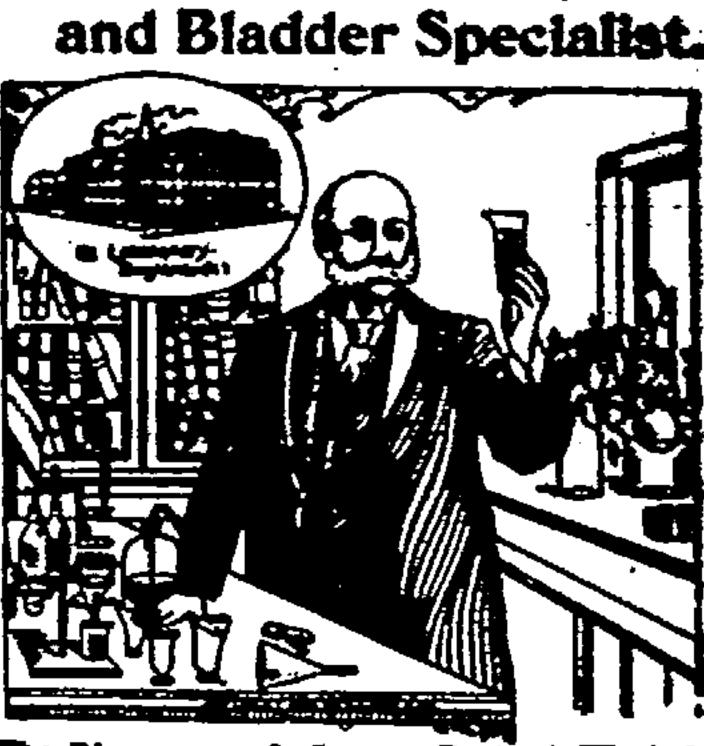

Coughs

Bronchitis and Incipier

Bridges to Cross,

We could see either one or more men com-

He was raising his whip when the The Eminent Kidney

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new dia

German Syrup is the special prescripition of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrate German physician, and is acknowledged be one of the most fortunate discov the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which ts rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold apaually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, Beaumont settled down in a corner of and is now sold in every town and vil-After age in the civilized world. Three doses Benedict & Van Noy, Andover, N. Y.

The balance of trade in favor of the

1 A Odgers of Frostburg, Md., writes:

The Pango-Pango court martial ought

 Backache should never be neglected/ we could look to our rear for perhaps a lowed to run too long, may result in Brothe South American system of transfer à warrior can flit from one revolution to another with the greatest was greatly improved and three bottles

Mr. Spartacus J. Best is determined to purify Paris. With a name like that he ought to be able to do it if any man form School, Pruntytown, W. Va., Oct. 18th, 1900: "After trying all other ad-

Mich. was troubled with salt rheum country most dangerous because so decep l tive. Many sudden deaths are caused I it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney I disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Whooping Cough, Asthma

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Week in His Laboratory. There is a disease prevailing in this