of Wellsville were entertained by Mrs. in our usual "apple pie" order, and G. M. Webster, Tuesday and Wedneswith a double capacity of shelf room, day which naturally means a till larger stock of our high-grade merchandise . this city Snnday. to pick from, we will be able to serve you better than ever before.

that are especially bought for reduc-

And your money back for the asking, | Canisteo Sunday, on a visit to her | if you are not satisfied.

SCHAUL & ROOSA,

GREENWOOD.

A week of fine weather. The weather phonograph is playir a new tune.

Farmers began calling this a dryl time, until the rain Monday evening. Miss Grace Cadwallader returned to Hornellsville Monday. Thos. Swan of Jasper Five Corners, formerly of this place, was in town! cheese maker, of West Greenwood, was a caller in town Monday. Alphonsus O'Hargan of Rexville! was in Greenwood Monday.

S. A. Ryan of Hornellsville visited this city Tuesday. N. Perkins, wife and son of Andover were visitors in Greenwood last Pa., called in Greenwood Thursday. Whitesville's leadin - citizens. M. R. Rollins was in this city!

Thursday. Frank Armstrong of Andover was d on our streets Friday. wisiting his brother William and other Sunday.

relatives in town. in town Monday.

William Christman of Pennsburg, Pa., is in town looking after cattle. H. W. Allen of Harrison Valley was a caller in town Tuesday.

Superintendent G. R. Brown was in Tuesday. our city last week looking after the affairs of the Railroad Company. W. E. Tuttle of Hornellsville made

- a business visit to this place Tuesday. wood Monday. Pratusburg on a visit Sunday.

Joshua Saunders and wife of Saun. week. ders were in this city Thursday. T. I. Dunn of Rexville was a caller turno mook in the excursion to Oswayo.

et Elmer, Pa.

Main street.

in Greenwood Tuesday. J. D. Wood of Hornellsville was a flown Saturday, advertising for the John Updyke has recovered from ealler in Greenwood Wednesday. Troupsburg Fair.

Chas, A. Storck of Buffalo made a business visit here Wednesday.

trip to Greenwood last week. S. A. Warren of Elmira called i R. Comfort of Canisteo was in town Wednesday. Greenwood Thurrday.

nearly hepless.

Messrs. Pitt and Glen Coston and Misses Anna Rollins, Addie Brooks ville were guests of his brother, N. E. ducts, machinery, culinary and houseand Mary Williamson attended the Coston, Sunday. Firemans' parade at Westfield.

Mas. Jas. Baker of Canisteo is the ery Co. have sold their old boiler and guest of Mrs. A. W. Baker on South put in a new one of enlarged size. Rev. Haynes, of the Christian Sunday from a visit at Saunders. church, was in Canisteo, Thursday.

The apple crop thru this section [7] Ross Dennis of Jasper spent Satur promises to be a fair one, judging agents. day and Sunday with friends in Green. from present prospects.

Acce in town Sunday. Mrs. Miller O. M. Haskins, representing Elk's Drug Co., was in town Monday.

condition for the fall races.

Look Pleasant, Please.)hio, can do so now, tho for years h puldn't, because he suffered untold for him that he declares they are a god send to sufferers from dyspepsia ar tomach troubles. Unrivaled for disneys, they build up and give new h o the whole system. Try them. Only | will be in order. ornellsville and Miss May Osborne

Our Special Clearing Sale. Our Special Clearing Sales are prov-'ing interesting to those careful and | ` thrifty shoppers who appreciate values, such as this store offers. We were guests of their grandparents, cannot recall a time when desirable in Springville. In the meantime we have made de. Mr. and Mrs. John Guyon, last week. seasonable merchandise was sold at Henry O'Haragan comes out in fine

On Sunday Jessie Webster and wife such low prices as we are now selling. style now. He has recently purchased, overs." OURS are not of the sort enterteined Joseph Atkins and wife of There is no need to go into the whys a new surrey. West Greenwood, and the Misses Kane enough said when we tell you that all visit of three weeks. Mrs. Carrie Folsom was home from summer goods must be quickly cleared. Joe McKeon has started a steam > complish that purpose. You will work. Mrs. Wm. Young and daughter left serve your interests best by coming here for your needs for the balance of Shirt Waists and Shirt Waist Suits

Mis. Jane Shelley is visiting her -the product of the ablest-makersare at prices below the cloth value to Every garment is strictly perfect nisteo Thursday, to work in the model and correct style. Don't delay ing 23 cheese per day at present. buying Shirt Waists any longer. Miss Jessie King is visiting at H. A. assortment grows smaller every day.

A. W. Childs, wife and daughters,

Miss Olive Rathbone will teach the Wesley Vanderhoef, a former resi-he Erie Railroad will sell excursion tickets to one of the most complete exhibits of farmer products, fruit, flowers, vegetables, corn, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, dairy pro-hold articles, needle work and many

For further information see Erie and is pleasant and safe to take. For sule by L. A. Burrows, Andover, N. 7

other works of art will be exhibited the latter part of the week.

Misses Blanche and Alfa Parshall Short Kimonos have received their Ready Monday. are spending a few days with their final mark down. ERLICH BROS.. sister, Mrs. John Schurette, at Web-148 Main Street, Hornellsville.

Attorney Jesse L. Grantier of Wells-All Were Saved. "For years I suffered such untold ville visited his many friends in town misery from bronchitis," writes J. Johnston of Broughton, Ga., "that Mr. Derno of Corning made a busi-' often I was unable to work. Then, ness visit to this place Tuesday. when everything else failed, I was Miss Ellen Young returned from Allen Hill, where she has been to attend the wedding of Miss May Brown, formerly of this place. in the world." A trial will convince Mirs Laudreth of Canisteo was 1 you it's unrivaled for throat and lung! guest of N. E. Mallory Saturday. diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c. and Mrs. J. S. Webster was in Hornellsville Tuesday.

Mrs. John D. Kane and son Dan

Earlman Fenner and wife of Bing

Mrs. W. B. Mead and daughter

Seymour and Albert Dennis were i daughter, Mrs. M. Knight.

York's this week.

or throat difficulty.

Mrs. Harmon Hoyt and son were in Greenwood Monday.

W. P. Wycoff of Shingle House, Whitesville. Mr. Chase is one of last week.

Mrs. G. M. Woodward and daughiter Marie, were in Hornellsville Mon-

Hill Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Adams returned Saturday from Nathaniel Blair of Whitesville is Silver Lake, and occupied his pulpit Stephen's reunion at Glenwood last

John A. Smith of Harrison Valley Richard Burton is greeting his old Jerome White of West Jasper was is the guest of his brother, LeRoy acquaintances in this place again. Miss Jessie King is visiting friends Smith, of this village.

E. W. Plaisted, Esq., and wife are A number of the friends of Simon visiting friends in Whitesville: Eaves gathered at his home Saturday Mrs. Bert Whiteman and Mrs. Miner Shaw visited in Hornellsville visiting her sisters, Mrs. Hannah

E. G. Hall is repairing his harness I Putnam and Mrs. Sarah Crusen. store on Main street this week. Eldon Conklin is working on Purdy' A. J. Curtis of Jasper visited Green-business visit to this place Tuesday. wood Monday.

Wern Johnson and daughter went to

C. McClain of Troupsburg was a Complete of the brain, death probably resulting in Miss Amelia Coats of Howard, who glossy. And you feel so fired through the mouth and entered the brain, death probably resulting in New York and Buffalo Express via Wayland, and the skull. The third shot was leaves Hornellsville at 9.35 a. m., arriving at the brain, death probably resulting in New York and Buffalo Express via Wayland, arriving at the brain, death probably resulting incaller in this place the first of t

> Vern Johnson has a complete nev school on Bush Hill the coming year. Hiram Bump of Troupsburg was in dent, is visiting relatives here.

L. D. West of Wellsville made a soout.

William Wright is quite sick with theumatism and heart disease.

Chas. Coston and wife of Hornells

The Greenwood Cheese and Creamday at this most wonderful Fair will Miss Maude Williamson returned

Wm. B. Miller and wife of Jasper Tuesday.

towa, was cured of a stomach trouble with which he had been afflicted for years, by four boxes of Chamberlain's and Liver Tablets. He had, lously tried many other remedies

Darius Osmin was home over Sunday from Bolivar, where he has a j with the Inter Ocean Telephone Co Doc Vaughan is visiting relatives and that we have made prices to ac- turning mill for all kinds of turned) wheat crop Saturday and turned forty bushel per acre. Adelbert Austin has started another oil well rig. We wish him good luck.

The Rexville cheese factory is mak-Eugene Gleason, our popular cheese

Will Skillman is finishing his new house. It will be a fine residence when completed.

New York City, are spending a mowith relatives in town.

wholly cured by Dr. King's New Dis- Edward Donelly and John McDonsuffered intensely from asthma till it they have a position on the Wahash cured her, and all our experience goes Railroad, to show it is the best croup medicine?

It Needs a Tonic. They never gripe or distress. Gertrude and Edna, visited in Andover Burrows.

"My hair came out by the hand-

If your druggist cannot supply you send us one dollar and we will expres his serious illness, so he is able to be Mornellsville Fair-The Greatest favorable conditions at Ever Held. August 25th to 29th, Inclusive.

One of the greatest features this We promptly obtain U. S. and Foreign do more good than medicine and doctoring. Mingle with your friends. Diarrhoea Remedy has a world-wide monial engagement is believed Remington of New York.

bargain giving events. There is home from Chicago now on a summer ascribed them to automobiles going

Dressing Sacques and Long and maker, made a visit to Rough and a definite engagement between

Philip Conway purchased a new

_____ There are times when your liver needs Don't give purgatives that S1.00. Trial bottles free at O. E. Vars gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little on the plazza and glanced through system and act as tonic to the liver | parent attention. About W.Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton.Pa, there came a ring from the committee and easy to take. Purely vegetable.

Miss Ethel Conklin visited on Call old and reliable preparation. '$1.00 a bettie. All druggists.

you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER OO., Lowell, Mass.

Health, Rest, Recreation are assured under the most Gambridge Springs, Pa. midway between Chicogo and New York on the

CRIC RAILROAD. You ought to know all about if Brie booklet, "The Betheada of the Middle West" on application to the Ticket Agent of Remington's Suicide.

D. W. Cook, General Passenger Nige

Three Shots From a Revolver Too Effect But First Two Did Not Read

Vital Spot - Third Shot Fired Through the Mouth and Penetrates Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Bitter dis have been the cause of the suicide.

room from his room at the La Forge cottage about 1 o'clock yesterday A painful back. afternoon and shortly after 2 o'clock A lame, a weak, an aching back sought the seclusion of the rooms or Tells of your kidney ills. the second floor of the club house. About 2:30 two sharp but some what muffled reports were heard, by by and no attention was paid to them. About an hour afterward Mr. Rem. About an hour afterward, Mr. Remington's body was found. A local was removed to his rooms. The recity, to whom Mr. Remington was through me whenever I moved quickly o His engagement to Miss May Var the aching stopped and the stiffness disap-Alen, daughter of James Van Alen peared.

sion for some months. At first was denied and then affirmed, and is generally believed that there was young people up to within the last three weeks when it was broken. Since then Mr. Remington has been very gloomy and despondent, although when asked about the engagement he Tickets to all points Lis (f West.

stoutly affirmed that he was to be married in the fall. He left the city about a week ago, Pullman Cars to New York, Boston breaking up his domestic arrange ments here and sending away all his effects. Last Thursday, however, suddenly returned to Newport. had frequented the reading covery for Consumption. My wife ough are home from Chicago, where which is the leading club of Newport, ville at 12:46 a.m. and a general lounging place for the Wellsville at 8:19 a. m., for Olean, Tamestown, men of the summer colony, but had Chautauqua Lake, Youngstown, Pittsburg an kept alouf from every one and seemed o desire to be left alone. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon ' came over from his rooms and after 12 21 p. m. No. 25, daily accommodation to strolling about the grounds asked for the New York papers. He went out manca.

Early Risers expel all poison from the them somewhat casually without ap | 945 a.m. says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little room and one of the boys answering washington, also connecting for points on Bu We learn as we go to press of the The Ladies' Aid Society met with Early Risers with me for several years it found another member there who re will at 5 88 s. m. quested that the lights be turned up. 147 p. m., No. 14, daily for Hornellsville, Ad. About 2:15 this member went down dison, Corning, Elmira, Waverly, Owego, Bingstairs and Mr. Remington was seen 448p.m. No 18, daily accommodation for Rosgoing up. The shots were heard 15 nellsville, connecting for points on Buffalo and or 20 minutes afterward, but attracted 7 18 p. m., No. 8. daily for Hornellsville.Corp About half past 3 another member. No. 6, daily, New York special stopping at upon going upstairs discovered Mr. Hornellsville, Corning, Elmira, Binghamton, arrive at New York 800 a.m. Pullman Vestibule Dlood was seen to come from L mouth and a revolver by his side told H.T.JAEGER. the rest of the story. Medical Examiner Stewart was called and found ul, and the gray hairs began to that three shots had been fired from creep in. I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. the revolver and from a careful exam- The Pittsburg Shawmut & Rorthern R. R. and it stopped the hair from com- ination of the head it was found that ing out and restored the color."- all three had taken effect, though the Mrs. M. D. Gray, No. Salem, Mass. E first two had evidently not reached any fatal spot and the man with a There's a pleasure in wonderful amount of grit had fired a wening to help celebrate his birthday

Mrs. Lydia Putnam of Michigan is Offering such a preparation of third shot to kill himself. The first shot had apparently ploughed across the forehead, making only a deep gash.

Angelica Express, leaves Hornellsville at 5.40 p. m., arriving at Canaseraga at 6.35, Angelica, It gives to all who use it He then turned the revolver toward at 8:10. such satisfaction. The the front of his forehead, and the nellsville at 6.00 p m, arriving at Wayland at second bullet glanced up over the 7.15 p. m.

Buffalo and Wayland Accommodation, leaves hair becomes thicker, head, causing a deeper furrow on the Hornellsville at 1.00 p. m., arriving at Wayland longer, softer, and more top of the cranium but still not enter- at 2.30. stantly. The revolver was a 38-calibre self cocking bull dog.

New York Express, leaves Wayland at 7.60

New York and Buffalo Express, leaves Way. After the body was turned over the local undertaker. Mr. Remington' Wayland at 3,30 p. m., arriving at Hornellsville brother in New York was notified. Mr. Remington was about 35 years 7 Express, leaves Angelica at 7.00 a. m., arriving age and a member of the firm! Remington Brothers, advertising CHAS. H. HAMMOND, Gen. Pass, Agent. agents of New York. Although of no' > was quite closely identified with the social colonies of this city and New! He met Miss Van Alen some years No 10. Way freight and accommodation ago, but it was only during the past Ceries at 7: 10 a. m. year that their names had been coup- No. 8, way Freight and Accommodation led. About two months ago the en. Leave Oswayo at 11.10 a. m., arriving at Shingle between the two was an No. 6, Way Freight and Accommodation. nounced but soon after the marriage Leeve Capieteo at 6.45 a. m., arriving Greenwood at 7.30, Rezville 6.18, Whitewille of Miss Van Alen's sister Sarah to 9,02, Genesee 9,85, Oswayo 10,50 Mr. Robert J. Collier in this city July No. 4. Mail. Leave Brie Junction at 5.25 p. 20 26, it was stated that the engagement Rezville 6.22, Whitesville 6.25, Genesce, 7.06 gibetween Mr. Remington and Miss Van lisburg 7.17, Oswayo 7.41, Miliport 7.58, and at Alen had been broken. It is said that No. 2, Mail. Leave Rrie Junction at 9.01 a. m., Mr. Van Alen was greatly opposed arriving at Canisteo 9.15, Greenwood 9.44, Rex-Mr. Remington's brother telegraphed from New York to have the body pre-No. 1, Mail. Leaves Shingle House at 6.30s. m., would arrive today and the -body ourg 7.26, Genesee 7.41, Whitesville 7.66, Rezville very large means, he nevertheless!

No. 8, Mail. Leave Ceres 1.00 p. m. arriving at P. S. & N Junction at 1.02, Shingle House 1.15 mer home of the Remingtons Y. M. C. A. World's Congress. and lasts until Ang. 24. The United Cowayout 9.89 a. m.

A lary liver makes a lasy man, Bur

CRIME

Copyright, 1901, by

By Howard Fielding ..

HAT the room should have its

Charles W. Hooke

own peculiar atmosphere and Backache is the kidney warning. Doan's

Cure every kidney ill, from backache to distressing urinary troubles. Kidney Pills I procured them. After a few

For sale by all druggists; 50 cents per

NEW YORK and CHICAGO, Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati

No. 8. daily, Solid Vestibuletrain Olean Sale-Chicago. Meals in dining car. Stops at Wells-9 08 a. m. No. 7, daily stopping at all princips

2 o'clock No. 4, daily solid Vestibule train, for Hornelle-

TIME TABLE.

Taking Effect Nov. 19, 1900.

06, Genesee 2.18, Whitesville 2.26, Reguille 00, Greenwood 8.18, Canisteo 8.40, Rrie June the river. It was not the man himself | in it glimpse of him. Central N. Y. & Western Division, shaving no friends, I spent the first evening alone in my new lodgings. to what happened then and afterward let me say that, while many places of temporary abode had whispered their secrets to me in the quiet of the night, had heard them always with the inner ear. I was perhaps as much a) skeptic as yourself regarding any supernatural perception by the physical It had been my intention to spend the evening in reading, but I had not turned a dozen pages in my book before i. became aware of an uneasiness that deflected my attention. I laid down the book and sat for perhaps an hour my eyes ached. Restlessness then impelled me to rise, and I began to pace All the furniture seemed to be hud-filled around the fire. The back of the room was like a corridor, and I could (walk nearly thirty feet in a gentle) curve from the door of the closet to the black cushioned bench below the window to the left in the northern wall. The windows, by the way, were pointed at the top, as if in a church, and somehow that end of the room seemed camiliar to my eye, though I could not have guessed where I had seen the like of it. Not till later did I remember the peculiar windows in the little chapel of St. Clement at Val Roger, where my uncle, the priest of the parish, was) murdered ten years ago.

INTO THE COALS OF THE GRATE.

I may have covered the distance between the closet and the window three of footsteps not my own in that room. They were audible enough and perfectby distinguishable for what they were. spirit, making no noise upon the ways the same, as I determined by plank, beneath which was a boxlike when I reached the rug the footsteps | tempts in tracing the footsteps ! to do with this, for I moved it away, | piece and the effect remained the same.

No one who has traveled much tog itself upon the surroundings. As to what emetion had swayed my , "I have dreamed of the man who liv- which was next to no light at all, had ers who have written immoral things predecessor in that room during the ed here before me," said I. "What was been put in the middle of it by Flor- should come back to find them the licritical moments I attempted to make he like?" there remains. The walls have heard a guess, but it was vague at first. He replied that he was a lean, gray it was to see to things, when the Story spirits, searching, searching."

scho it forever. That is why you have I perceived only a strong, confused impulse, a thrusting forward, as of of beds in the most quiet nights listen- one dominated by a fixed and despering and afraid without tangible cause. ate purpose. Yet the man, to judge by As for myself, I regretted having tak- the footsteps, had certainly walked en the lodgings as soon as I was alone rather slowly. He had a halting gait seemed very suitable to my purposes, left foot than upon the right, though I should have said that he was scarcely few small rugs and the whole house not fear, but the mere instinct of self "You," said I, "will be better able with whom I dealt in the matter of the | I returned to my seat by the fire and grooms, but a black browed, surly fel- arranged the facts definitely in my ford's voice calling down from the top | gray eyes and of a compact and clumsy sfloor, where he dwelt, but I got no frame, the more awkward because a slight lameness of the right leg, had had never visited America before, crept out of that closet. He had held being very close at the point side the chimneypiece, and upon close where they beased. This point was at search I discovered a movable bit of ceased, but the rug itself had nothing that point to the side of the chimney.

No such spectacle presented itself, bowever, but when I lighted a candle at the grate and walked toward I BAT FOR PERHAPS AN HOUR STARING ed by two tall windows. The furniture | vanished instantly.

By that time it was near dawn, and Deturning, I was not followed. There I was so weary that I lay down upon myself made, but always my invisible and slept three hours, heavily as the companion was ready to begin the dead. I was wakened by the noise of hastily. I looked in. The janitor was this invisible creature visible to the eye the mind. It was long after mid ad made, beginning with the first audible footfall. This, by the way, was quite sharp and clear: it was the right it were, while pacing slowly there tered in these faintly echoing steps, began to feel a slight disquietude. illusion, by the way, was so perfect that fifty times I turned, expecting to see the door swinging into the room. the hand upon the knob, the man's face -pale, contorted-against the background of darkness.

to have gone abroad. closet with a definite purpose I beheld not?" I asked. And at this I was the semblance of a dull gray eye look- aware of a shuffling foot beside the ing out through what had been a key- outer door, which the janitor had not hole, but was now somewhat enlarged, closed the lock having been wrenched away. I took two quick steps and looked the parlor, of which I speak particular. The candle's rays struck fairly into out into the hall. There stood a stout ly, being large and high and well light- this aperture, revealing the eye, which man, having scanty gray hair, much disheveled, and dull gray eyes. was scanty, the floor bare except for a | The natural rejuctance of the bodysudden insane impulse seized me.

quite free from noise or jar. It was rec- preservation held me for some sec- answer my question." ommended by the manager of the the onds. Then I opened the door and saw He stared at me, advancing into the sater where I was to appear, and he the closet bare, as it was in the afterroom meanwhile as though it were mentioned that the landlord was a noon. It had once been the half of a against his will. countryman of mine. I learned later passage communicating with the next that he was from Val Roger, a suburb room, but was now closed off by a parof Paris which I call my home, as I tition of heavy and firm planks. Cer- trod more lightly when you crept out | | own a very pleasant villa there beside | tainly there was no mortal creature |

At this the janitor sprang back, with an oath, his shoulders striking the now employed by him. Once, while mind. It appeared that at some date mantel over the grate. He was lookstanding in the hall, I heard the land- not to be determined a man with dull ing at the landlord, Lorenz, who in his I have the power to hold attention. You may say it is a part of my trade.

THE CARDLES BATE STRUCK FAIRLY INTO his right hand clinched close to his tain stocks and bonds, useless as waste

"There was more than money!

At this question he showed me a hid.

ing place of his own, much more clever, breast, his left arm somewhat extend- paper to the murderer, since be had neher." ed, as if for balance. He had taken | never dared to negotiate them. They seven steps and then had swing upon | were mingled with documents of his his left foot with considerable force, own, and among these I found an exobviously striking a sweeping blow tract from a Paris paper in which, rewith the right hand-a blow rather | vived by some item of news from Val causing it walked only in one direction. high, the plunging of a knife into a Roger, the story of the murder of my had given the year before, my spinal column, but if all the writ ence of the Velvet Foot, whose mission braries would be filled check full of "Do you believe in spirits and ghosts tell you about the Man in the Chair.

"I believe." I asserted sweepingly, you." And I told her of an experience of my turn it up."

rated, and I was sad. Often I am sad "I wouldn't believe this story of the me." What was a ! Say.

"I RAN TO THE DOOR, OPENED IT AND the roll.

She toyed with a letter in her hand. "This," tapping it, "is from a friend; formerly a nonbeliever in the inexplicable, now converted. His conversion was like this: He laughed to scorn all our He tales of superstition, particularly ou. room, I pursuing him. In the length of death returns to the one best loved o earth or to its home. Whether it is that ing galt due to the slight lameness of that home, the fact remains. It has been known to happen again and I might easily have overtaken him. again. And why not? The soul is an intangible thing. It is capable of any flight. Miles are nothing to it once re-* | leased from this old body-leagues, | the story. After that I will tell you the story of the Mau in the Chair."

I got up closer. I might have known; " said I. "There is, then, a secret way, she knew stories. Though English, she was bright as a dollar and talked) 'v. "You were walking just as he used French like a native, while I, alas, talkto walk so many nights. I heard you "The friend of mine who wrote this letter," she proceeded, "had an aunt) who had lived in the same house with, him for years. A night or two ago bo was in the dining room, reading, when gave most of it to that man you saw the threshold. He arose and hastened tooking at him, then disappeared. due time he received a letter announce. then the other, and there I found cer. a low tone, for low tones fit stories to her. 'Why, aunt!' he cried. 'How are

"It was the ghost of a priest," she explained. "One day a friend of the inneh. Following the servant into the triffe indistinct. There is a kind of him dining room, There is a priest in the over it. tiOh, hush, hush! they exclaimed. Then, turning white-faces the one to the other, 'The priest again!' they whispered. 'The priest!'

was sitting writing to a little girl I back again and prepared for delicious out. I ran a little way down the stairs, her people had owned the manor house owned the place had died explained it where they lived, which had prior to Dying, his soul had flown straight back; that been owned and very dearly loved to the home he had loved. At the by an officer in the army who was same time, photographing the room be somewhere in the East Indies-I don't remember exactly where. At any rate. he was an old officer and distinguished, Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to '| who had charge of a regiment more or) less celebrated, though I have forgotten L. A. Burrows, Andover, N. E. Coston.

"And what's that?" sharply.

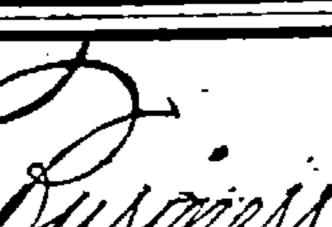

I waited patiently while she tried to)

Samble bottle-enough for trial, free by water Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y. ...

You can have them either plain or with sets, elaborately carved or no carving at all. One thing is certain, they I are all beautiful and will fit any hand or any idea.

'Ward's Jewelry Store, Wellsville, N. y.

Rochester Business Institute has a national reputation for thorough work, and its graduates are in constant de. Many times during the last year the managers were compelled say to applicants for young men and women to fill genteel, remands TULIVILLE ative positions: "Nobody to send—the supply is exhausted."

6% ANNUALLY 6%

Government Bonds are not Safer.

estate mortgage Assign it to you and guarantee it. For seventeen years our guaranty has fully protected every client. Write

The W.C. Belcher, Land M'tge Co. FORT WORTH, TEXAS. W.H. COBB,

" 'Here it is,' said he, producing if "Sure enough, sitting in the library by the table was a man. He sat in a large chair with a tall oaken back. Him head was bent on his hand. He was not

"WAS A PRIEST."

(Continued on another page.)

matism in my knees for six years and "They are very good,' he said, un-

RINGS and RINGS.

Bring in your finger and let us fit it for you.

I E invest your money in a first н.н.Совв,