Its People.

IIIL IIIIIL Our inhabitants are mainly thriving, industrious business men, who lage and verify the above stateappreciate the fact that we need more establishments of industry, and who are willing to encourage and aid any and all such enterprises that will locate here.

Religious and Social.

Andover is a village whose social life is genial, up-lifting and half way, and more too. delightful. A village dominated by social, intellectual and religious Churches and Superior School ideas. There are four well maintained Protestant Church organizations as well as a large Roman Catholic Church.

Educational Advantages.

Our public school system is complete, and the standard of scholarship high. Every citizen is proud of it. A graduate of Andover High School is qualified for admittance into any college. The opportunity thus afforded for an education is a privilege to be enjoyed by all making
