MEN'S SACK SUITS. For the coming Fall Beason are shown by us in the most beauat variety of fabrics. FOR MEN OF QUIET TASTES there are the Oxford gray Chev: oits and Vionnas, black and blue undressed Worsteds, and > onals, etc. FOR MEN WHO LIKE LIFE in their clothes, there are the new checks and stripes, in grav, brown, tan, olive blue-gray effects, in soft textured Cassimeres and strong

Berges, black Clay weave Diag-

MEN'S SUITS $10 to $20. We still have a number Men's Suits, which are the SIFTINGS of all broken lines that were $12 and $14. Now reduced to.....$9.75 It costs no more to wear the . best hat made; then why not wear a KNOX? New Fall shapes of KNOX HATS are now ready. Especial attention is requested to the exclusive designs, superior materials and Workmanship. ...

SCHAUL & ROOSA. 130 Main St.

• GREENWOOD.

Cool nights. Buckwheat harvest is on. Mrs. Mary Jane Brundage and ing. daughter Gene are visiting former

Mrs. Clara Richardson returned neighbors in town.

Friday from a two months visit ; Conneautville, Pa. her daughter, Mrs. M. Pnight, Bennett's last week. C. L. Peck of Condersport is in town contracting for stone sidewalks.

Merritt Atkins and wife, Mrs. J. M. Cheesman, W. O. Slocum and many others took in the excursion to 7 dridge Park Sunday. Eighteen tick ets were sold here.

Johnson's Sunday.

welcome his return to his former home. garments we have ever had. Rev. Mr. Lentz, of the Latter Day Saints church, has gone to East Phar. past and feeling confident of an Mrs. Florence Jeffers Sunday. salia to hold a series of meetings.

Jesse Webster made a visit to Jasper Sunday.

Griswold are spending a few days in have been overlooked in ours. Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Fred Smith of Canisteo was a caller in Greenwood Sunday. Harry Sargent spent Sunday with his parents in Jasper. Mrs. Horace Potter of Canisteo' was the guest of Miss Alfa Parshall Wednesday.

Miss Ella Goff of Pleasantville the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. M. Goff. Perry French and wife of Ham-mondsport spent a few days last week Greenwood last week. with his parents. Mrs. F. O. Davis of Canisteo visited farmer in this locality. her sister, Mrs. D. B. Ersley, Sunday.

excursion Sunday to Eldridge Park.

Floyd Stephens of Hornellsville is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hill. Reuben Stephens. Ben. Brundage was shaking hands with his many friends in Greenwood

M. E. church Sunday.

The Good Roads Party, looking tul reconstructive tonic that is making over the route from New York to Chi- so many sick people well and weak in Greenwood last week. The National Treasury boasts of cured me. I codsider it the best remethis term. maving nearly six hundred millions of dy I ever used for dyspepsia and atom-∠ ach troubles. . was given up by phy-! gold in its vanits. That is the reason | 8/ it is so scarce with us. it after meals, L.A. Burrows.

C. Sherman of Troupsburg was ?

cheap from Wednesday on.

Geo. K. Sherley of Elmira made business trip to this place Monday. G. M. Webster, Miner Shaw and Inne. Mrs. Ann Hyland, who has been Meddaugh went Tuesday to the visiting in Canisteo, returned home wilds of Allegany county on a hup'

Bird meat will be'

Vern Johnson had a dance Tuesday Mrs. Sarah Norton of Canisteo was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs ohn French, last week.

Edgar Paine, wife and son Ray visted his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John ulations. French, Sunday.

Mrs. Alf Bess is at Canisteo xcursion Sunday to Eldridge Park.

Mrs. L. Babcock and son Lyle visited her mother, Mrs. H. Crane, Sun-scholarship for this county.

Miss Gene Brundage of Andover, over who has been visiting in Greenwood. took the train for Canisteo Tuesday. The locomotive on train one broke a cylinder ring Tuesday morning at Whitesville, which delayed the train. John Nash and Mr. Hoffman of Hornellsville are in town armed and equipped as the law directs for hunt-____ A Communication.

words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough day at E. D. Conklins'. Burr Smith of Hornellsville was the Remedy. I suffered for three years guest of LeRoy Smith Wednesday and with the pronchitis and could not sleep few guests in honor of her birthday, mark. at nights. I tried several doctors and September 8th. various patent medicines, but could! get nothing to give me any relief until W. C. Bassett, D. W. Putnam and my wife got a bottle of this valuable A. Taylor had corn entters and threshmedicine, which has completely re- ers Monday. Mrs. Jane Shelley was the guest of lieved .- W.S. Brockman, Bagnell, Mo This remedy is for sale by L. A. Bur. rows, Anderer, and N. F. Coaton ready-to-wear garments for her many friends.

New Goods.

Our stock of Walking Suits and visited in Whitesville Tuesday and Skirts is now nearly all here Wednesday. George York is moving back to and the next few days will com-Greenwood from Shingle House. We plete the largest showing of these on the Coston farm were mysteriously Enjoying a big business in the increased patronage, we have this Light frost Sunday night, but no season gathered together a stock held at the Putnam school house Sunserious damage from same in this lo- that stands unmatched in this part day evening. of the country. We invite com- Mr. Doherty visited at Lee Stephens' parison with the choicest goods last week. shown by any store. It is the little things that count in the fit evening was well attended. James O'Connor and Mrs. Estelle and finish of a garment and none!

> ERLICH BROS., 148 Main St., Hornellsville.

WEST JASPER

Thos. Trainor and wife were guests' of Hugh McCaragher Wednesday and Austin Huff rented one of the priv- ing friends at Tip Top and Andover. ileges at the Westfield fair last week He was called to Andover by the sick-Herman Mullen visited on West ness of his uncle, Davis Lee.

William Potter is the champion egg | Monday evening from a four weeks |

Joseph Atkins and wife took in the ty given by Blanche Conkey Wednes Bert Dennis has rebuilt and re-

its every function is never sick. Kodol

[modeled his farm house on Jackson] Baker a few days. Take Care of the Sigmach. The man or woman whose digestion 1 at Mrs. Best's Sunday. is perfect and whose stomach performs of cleanses, purifies and sweetens the visiting at D. L. Langworthy's a few President McKinley were held at the stomach and cures positively and per. days. manently all stomach troubles, indiges. tion and dyspepsia. It is the wondervisiting at M. A. Green's Tuesday. cago, were in Hornellsville last week. people strong by conveying to their niece, Mrs. B. S. Baker, Monday and bodies all of the nourishment in the Tuesday of this week. Charles Carter of Hornellsville was food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay of Narry Green and Miss Euphema Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has Green are attending school at Alfred

W. E. Baker bought a fine cow at ! sicians. Kodol saved my life. Take the Champlin and Emerson auction

GREENWOOD HILL.

Alley Mead is threshing in this vicinity and reports oats turning

The many friends of Mrs. Lawrence Frank Slocum and family are visit- cursion last Sunday to Elmira. ing their many friends on Slate Creek. | Nellie Warfield is in Hornellsvil' Herman Mullen has so far recovered | this week.

Mrs. Catherine Grumley of Well ville is visiting at the home of her' had been visiting relatives for several sister, Mrs. Ann Hyland.

Born, Aug. 31st, to Mr. and Mrs. wife and other relatives visited at persons shook his hand. The reception ing to those Canadians who fear the Daisy and Lynn Norton visited their Alley Mead, a fine big boy. Congrat-Some of the farmers have com-as to return home.

of or menced digging potatoes, which prove and Monday. a very poor crop. Rumor says that James Slocum has mantha Duke and other relatives taken unto himself another bride. Wellsville one day last week. Good luck to you, Mr. Slocum.

ELM VALLEY

Fortune Favers a Texan. "Having distressing pains in head. Ross Baker started Tuesday for back and stomach, and being without | night, fornell University, where he has a appetite, I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes W. P. White head, of Kennedale, Texas, "and soon Fay Taylor and Homer Stephens felt like a new man." Infallible " are out on a hunt for squirrels and stomach and liver troubles. Only 25c. at O. E. Vars & Son's drug store, And. switch.

BENNETT'S CREEK

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Miss Lorena Beebe. Mrs. Sara Putnam Thursday of last week. A very good attendance. father in Pike the latter part of the Hincher.

Daniel Comstock and Miss Blanche Mr. Elitor: Allow me to speak a few Crandall of Purdy Creek spent Sun

Burr Comfort was in town Sunday

Mrs. Warren Terribury returned to her home in Independence Saturday. funeral of Mrs. Nellie Marvin at Hor-

Three cows belonging to the dairy wood.

Ward Vroman visited his sister,

McKinley memorial exercises were

A dance at Wilson Covell's Friday

Not Doomed for Life. Connellsville, O., "for piles, and fistula, | this work, either. but, when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica | /

TIP TOP.

George Lee of Derrick, Pa., is visit-

Mrs. D. L. Langworthy returned visit with friends in Rhode Island. Miss Ethel Baker is quite sick a

F. P. Murray of Carrollton is working at O P tower in place of B. S. Albert Wilcox and wife of Hornells.

vi le were visiting at F. M. Lee's and Frank Langworthy and wife are John M. Mosher of the News was a wolcome business visitor in th Allen W. Corwin returned to Alfre University this week.

Orange Smith and wife pagsed last Sunday with her brother, Mr. Bur-

Mrs. T. N. Boyd returned last Sat urday from Knoxville, Pa., where she

C. Cornelius and Elery Babbitt and county and between 6,000 and 7,000 Wm. and Ed Jones' recently. Edward Earley of Allentown was the guest of David Corwin Sunday

Mrs. Mae Corwin visited Mrs. Sa-

Jack frost visited this place Sunday

Rutherford Deming of Andover was! in this place Sunday afternoon. Williams & Crandall of Andover have loaded three cars of wood here on the were in Andover Saturday. Jake Hann, Jr. is visiting in Alma. Miss Grace Hackett is the guest Mrs. Ed Strayer of Bolivar has been visiting the past week with her aunts, along the road leading from the center Arthur Dugan of Belvidere was vis-(iting A. E. Beebe Sunday.

Jacob Hann and wife are visiting a few days in Pennsylvania. Miss Amanda Miller entertained a last week with friends on the Vander-

> Fair last week with his horses and brought home first premium. J. M. Mosher of Andover was calling in this place last Thursday. | Water Cure for Chronic Constine-

Take two cups, of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before A number from here attended the going to bed, also a drink of water, hot filled with Long Islanders, many of mance.

Sometimes of the property Ineal. Take lots of out door exercise— tance to greet the president. nellsville Thursday. Mrs. Marvin's wark, ride, drive. Make a regular habit girlhood home was here, and her of this and in many cases chronic condent against any possible harm were ville, Corning, Elmira, Binghamton, New York Every day brings something new death is the cause of deep sorrow to stipation may be cured without the use of the most thorough character. F. L. Bassett, wife and son Earl is required take something mild and deputies, a large number of secret ser- ville at 5 88 a. m.

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly gray hair for fifty years. on which was inscribed, making your hair grow. $1.00 a botile. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

> Health, Rest, Recreation are assured under the most .favorable conditions at Gambridge Springs, Pa. midway between Chicago and

New York on the ERIE RAILROAD. You ought to know all about ? Erie booklet, "The Bethesda of the Middle West" on application to the Ticket Agent

We promptly obtain U.S. and Foreign Miss Phebe Burdick was visiting her | name and addressed some pleasant re 818, Greenwood 8.39, Canistee 6.55, Erie Janezens of Nassau County.

GREAT TIME ON SAGAMORE HIL

Acquaintances of His Childhood. Thorough Precautions to Guard the President-All Borts and Conditions of People-Glass Cup Souvenirs.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 16.-President friends and neighbors of Nassay

"Not a bit," he replied. "It takes of miscellaneous effects—horses, catmore than a trolley car to knock me tle, implements, household stuff.

out or a crowd to tire me." The rush of settlers is unprecedented The weather could not have been and is taxing the railways to the limit more delightful. The decorators did to handle the business in connection Mrs. Mary Cole and son Charles their work thoroughly and the sun with their trade." shone upon a village resplendent with color. Most of the business buildings and many of the private houses were adorned with flags and bunting. Effective Decorations.

Mrs. W. C. Bassett visited her Mrs. U. W. Stratton and Mrs. A. A. of the town to the road that winds up Sagamore Hill. Here at a distance of every hundred feet were hung large American flags which formed a canopy of stars and stripes under which the people rode on their way to Sagamore Tickets to all points | Hill. Where the private road leaves | Lorena Beebe passed a few days the main thoroughfare a large arch of flowers and flage had been erected! with the word "Welcome" in the center. The president's residence was Ed Breese attended the Angelica handsomely decorated with flags. The crowds began to arrive early from points on Long Island and by manca, Jamestown, Cleveland, Cincinnati noon the streets were crowded. Dele- Chicago. Meals in dining car. Stops at Wellsgations came in from many of the places near here and several special Wellsville at 8:19 a. m., for Olean, Jamestown trains added their quota to the crowd. Cicveland At 1 o'clock the members of the 906 a.m. No.7, daily, stopping at all principal committees headed by a band started nati and Chicago, connecting for Bradierd. for Sagamore Hill and they were fol- Meals in dining car, or cold, about two hours after each whom had come a considerable dis-of any medicine. When a purgative addition to the sheriff's 300 special tale and Rechester Divisions. Stops at Wellsgentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and vice men and policemen from New dison, Corning, B Liver Tablets. For sale by L. A. Bur. York in plain clothes were on the hanton and New York. Waverly, Owego, Bing. rows, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Green was allowed to go past the president Bookster Divisons. porch and about the grounds. No one nelleville connecting to with a camera or a stick of any deng, Rimira. Binghamton, Boston and New York, Cameras, valises, canes, through P umbrellas and in many cases overcoats and women's wraps were taken arrive at New York 800 a.m. Philings Vestibuly Black fall from their owners and piled up under Further information makes a tree near the porch until the space Brie agents or from H. T. JAEGER, from their owners and piled up under sleepers. Stops at Wellsville 10 04 p.m.

a found looked like a second hand ". It was 2:45 when the reception be gan. President Roosevelt stood on The Pittsburg Shawmut & Morthern R. R stores the original color to grav his porch and shook hands with all. hair. It keeps my hair soft."-Mrs. After passing him the visitors passed Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me. off the porch, along a road leading to the side of the house, where lemon-Ayer's Hair Vigor has ade was served and thence by another road out of the grounds. The lembeen restoring color to onade was served in small glass cups good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, Mc. and it never fails to do Rocsevelt, 1902, Oyster Bay." The p. m., arriving at Canaseraga at 6.26, Angelica, cups were retained as souvenirs. New York Express via Wayland, leaves Hor-You can rely upon it dent included Mrs. Roosevelt and the Buffalo and Wayland Accommodation, leaves Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures for stopping your hair Roosevelt children, Mrs. W. Emlen at 2 80. burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, erupfrom falling, for keeping | Roosevelt, miss Cultoline Roosevelt, Secretary Wayland at 10,80. Rcosevelt, Miss Christine Roosevelt, New York and Buffalo Express via Wayland your scalp clean, and for Loeb, Father Powers, Rev. Henry H. Washburn, Rev. Mr. Russell, Hon. Au. New York Express, leaves Wayland at 7.00 man, late of the Boer army.

a. m., arriving at Hornelisville at 7.65.

New York and Buffalo Express, leaves Wayland at 11.00 c. m. arriving at Hornellsville at All Sorts and Conditions Bath and Wayland Accommodation, leaves

All sorts of people in all conditions at 4.50. Wayland at 8,30 p. m., arriving at Hornellsville of life filed by the president. White Express, leaves Angelica at 7.00a. m., arriving and black, poor and well-to-do, women!" | With babies in arms and several with | CHAS. H. HAMMOND, Gen. Pass, Agent. dogs, small boys and girls. Many were in line who had known the presdent most of his life and their delight in renewing an old acquaintance was apparent, but none gave the president more pleasure than the greeting leaves Shingle House 6:65 a.m., arriving at of the old family servants, Maggie and Ceries at 7: 10 a. m. Bridget Mitchell, who had been ser- No. c. Way Freight and Accommodation, Vants in his father's family. They Leave Oswayo at 11.10 a. m., arriving at Shingle came from New York, where they now No. 6. Way Freight and Accommedation. live, to great the president and to Greenwood at 7.80, Rexville 8.18, Whitesville show him a photograph of his father 9.02 Genesee 9.25, Oswayo 10.50. of age. The president was delighted Rexville 6.22, Whitesville 6.45, Genesee, 7.08 El-D. W. Cook, General Passenger Agent to see the pictures and the old ser- Shingle House 818. Vants and presented the sisters to Mrs. No. 2, Mail. Leave Etie Junction at 9.01 a.m.

attiving at Canisteo 9.15, Greenwood 9.44, Rex-ville 9.55. Whitesville 10.16, Genesee 10.32, Rills-None of the visitors was introduced burg 10.47, Oswayo 11.12, Millport 11.27, Shingle to the president house at 11.40, P.S.&N. Junction 11:53, Ceres 11.55 to the president but when he recog. Roosevelt generally called

American inchie as he shook the pres-old salt dressed in the uniform of an Deware at Libe. m.

the president. The line was halted for a few mo Glenwood, L. I., to present the pres ident with a handsome Hungarian water bottle. The president spoke few words of thanks. the close of the reception. The N Took solloomer whatest their Dicture taken with the president in their midst "I When the request was made of " president he complied at once. "This is one time I really want, picture taken," he said. "I know them men and I admire thems I am prond to have my picture taken with them; was held at his country home, on future domination of settlers from the Sagamore Hill, and from $ o'clock States. It is estimated that in the first until nearly six he was busy shaking seven months of the present year over hands and renewing old acquaintan 5,000,000 acres of land in Manitoba and northwest Canada have been purchased He met people whom he had not by citizens of the United States. A reseen for 30 years and shook hands cent issue of the Medicine Hat News with men who had known him wher says: "The influx of settlers to the he was a child. The president Canadian west is simply wonderful. thoroughly enjoyed the affair and At Medicine Hat we are in a position seemed as fresh when it was over as to size up the great incoming, especialwhen he began. He expressed his ly of Americans, as we see here daily feeling to a woman in the crowd who trainload after trainload of would be asked him if he was getting tired. settlers, bringing with them carloads

> For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tab. lets. For sale by L. A. Burrows, And. over, N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

(r West Solid trains between NEW YORK and CHICAGO. Pullman Cars to New York, Boston Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati

No. 8, daily, Solid Vestibuletrain Olean Salastations to Salamanca. Pullman cars to Cincin-

Central N. Y. & Western Division,

TIME TABLE.

Takes effect June 23, 1905.

D. P. MARCHEY, Vice Pres.

Taking Effect Nov. 19, 1900.

C. R. BROWN, Gezetti Mezare.

started presumably to walk to the city. | tric light in the rooms, and the John offered to drive me half way mansion was in a brilliant blaze. 9 48 a.m. No 2, daily, accommodation for Hor down if I would wait until after supper, but the afternoon was so fine I all my faculties should have been alert, preferred the walk. view of every house, and I quietly slip- further developments. Would the do ned over the fence into the woods. This tor and his servant come out ar piece of woods I knew backed up to search for me? I laughed softly Squires' house. I concealed the myself at the idea. Certainly ed to take to the city with me, taking other house inside of half an h

enough tools from it first to answer all | Then what was the burglar alarm for To frighten robbers away; that was As I approached the edge of the all. I concluded. woods I moved with great caution. doctor had, although John had assured steps that I knew did not belong to the place. You can't tell which house and he undoubtedly knew human national thereabouts are seriously considering me that he had only one, a copper col- human beings. Two black objects will be robbed next. The servants are ture well enough to satisfy himself the same course.

CHAPTER V.

T was nearly a week ...

the horses on the few days when Mr.

quaint myself with the surrounding

I passed Dr. Squires'

several times in the course of the next

I found that the house was located some distance back from the main highway and that it was nearly con-trees. A small grove of woods backet to it, I conceived, was from the wood

The house itself was an old fashioned gloomy enough to drive almost an him in that lonely retreat.

body away from it after dusk, and .

the city who might detain me over

About 4 o'clock I left the barn and around by the country people. If I had ation.

few days, examining the premises with and was either deaf and dumb or un- object of the burglar alarm flashed dacross my mind in an instant. able to speak English. He was a sort of faithful watchdog. Indged, whom the doctor had be- bells to ringing had also released the watchdogs, and they were now upo. quence give up his life for him if nec- 1 .

While yet some distance from the the woods and climb a tree before they house I climbed up into the leafy caught up to me? branches of one of the large trees and, This question flashed through my pulling the foliage to one side, scanned | mind, but I could not answer it. I althe house intently through a pair of ready heard their feet behind me, strik- ent upon you," he answered. strong fieldglasses. By their aid I ing the ground with heavy patters as could note everything that was going they loped rapidly across the interven on outside the house and could almost ing space. eee objects inside the windows.

The only advantage I obtained from and for an instant I thought of death. bed?" this was a clearer idea of the most I had never been cornered quite so , vulnerable points of the house and also completely before. I gathered up my the only ones that haven't been robthe way to escape from the premises in strength for a final effort and cleared bed." the event of an alarm. I saw the serv- the fence with a bound, but as I leaped ant go about his duties, and later I so unward the foremost Dane made a tre-He was a dark bearded, thickset, well of the fence in fine style. found myself at closer quarters with fore he could turn upon me I

few places of cold meat and bread, and kicked a few times and then lay of Mr. Goddard. He looked troubled drank a little wine and threw myself | quite still. on the dry leaves to sleep. There was But I had no time to prepare for the barn dressed in his ordinary morning no danger of being discovered in the second one. As if angered by the sight smoking jacket. woods, and I needed the rest and sleep of his dead mate he sprang upon me sleeping myself when I first closed my fessional pride had not tied my tongue. eyes. I crawled through the under- I bowed to receive my fate, deterthen waited and listened. The house close upon me I saw a flash of some was perfectly dark, and everything thing over the hound's head; it seemed me. wht of does but had falled ning. It made a curve downward and i However, to make mark behind. I felt great morts of Goddard's face.

Mr. Goddard. For an instant I was ' speechless and almost helpless, b. "You have only a few minutes to es-BY GEORGE E, WALSH sure of it I imitated the cry and snarl of a cat-a noise that always brings of the glass pane out, making an open-

point scarcely made any of the grating noise so common when one operates with cheap cutters. This one had been

As I took the piece of glass out and deposited it on the floor of the piazza anybody. Then I applied my ear to the Nothing could be heard of an alarm-

thought that all the ghosts and spirits

| Quick as I was, however, a flash of | light in the windows of the house beat me. The alarm had lighted every elec-

Even at this critical moment, when I made another mistake. Instead of made specially for me, and it was pe

fect in every detail.

of any watchdog.

I obtained leave to go to the city on of the dead had suddenly come to life to worry if I did not appear until the sound to be deceived.

a night favorable for house, I would find that out later. But a visit to Dr. Squires. I really saw no reason why dogs who fails to make Batisfied that the coast was clear,

It is a poor burglar would be kept on the place.

cereful preparations before attempting made my way toward the house, keep-to enter a house, and long experience ing well in the shadow of the trees.

in my business has made me extremely | Then I made a close examination cautious, I never undertake a job with- the windows and doors. They were out due consideration of all details. A locked with old fashioned catches and sneak thief may go around from house re-enforced with nails. I selected the to house in an aimless sort of manner | doctor's study as the place least likely erly barred, but not so with a pro- With a diamond cutter I took a piece

John always sent me off to exercise ing large enough to insert the hand.

and enter the first one that is not prop- to be occupied.

cape. They are coming. Rul

CHAPTER VI

T was daybreak before to the stable I was busily engaged ing character, and so I proceeded to of the night had left me a trifle pale house had been a modern one, I should | door. But John's was an unsuspectwindow without searching for a bur- from him, I'neighborhood I should like to see him glar alarm, but out in the country, "You're an early bird to get back so miles away from any assistance and soon in the mornin'," he said, "an' in such an antique house, I did not see your work half done, too, before breakdid not wonder that strange stories of the value of a burglar alarm and con-"I got a lift most of the way out," ;

ghosts and spirits had been gossiped sequently never once gave it consider-I answered. "I caught a milk wagon pay the reward." been a superstitious person, I should I discovered my mistake in an in- coming this way." have selected the house as the last one stant, however. I had not raised the "You're always lucky. Now, if that to rob. It was probably this idea that | window half an inch when there were had been me I'd tramped all the way had influenced the doctor in taking it a ringing of bells and an electric buzz- an' never met a soul unless it was for his workshop. He was pretty safe ing all through the house that made in assuming that nobody would disturb | me turn pale. An amateur might have "Hold you up!" I said disdainfully.

1 "A man of your size and age afraid o being held up by highwaymen?" Friday afternoon, and I told John not again, but I was too familiar with that "I never have been, but there are so many burglaries goin' on roun' here in | I was off the plazza in half a minute. I that it makes me feel creepylike when I'm out on the road after dark." "I hadn't heard of many robberies," replied; "none except that of the Stetson mansion the day before Mr.

Goddard engaged me." "Well, you haven't heard everything then. That was the fifth or sixth in ) four weeks, an' they have had four Two miles down the road I found seeking safety in the woods as fast as more houses entered since then." that I was perfectly concealed from my legs would carry me I waited to see was interested. John continued: never leave any trace behind them. must come from the city over night an' get back again afore mornin'. But they can't find any of the stolen goods to challenge me upon my honor to bethe neighborhood have moved away -not in any of the pawnshops. It's trav him But I changed my mind a moment

a fine mystery to be a-hangin' over all talkin' about leavin', an' nobody | that there was no danger of my be- | The lake is 14 miles long and abou feels safe. I ain't sayin' that I'm not | traying him. He had in reality made | three miles broad. The water on glad that I'm livin' out here over the a coun d'etat in rescuing me from the surface is almost barn instead of in the house. They | fangs of the savage Dane the night be | and at times is thrown into the air never bother the stables, an' I suppose The electric wire that had started the I'm all right."

"But you'd go to Mr. Goddard's as- ne beyond all possibility of ever aftersistance if an alarm was given at | ward annoying him, but his interfer-"I ain't employed for that," John re- of mosition which brought me daily in-As if by instinct they rushed upon servants before, and my experience the plazza, catching the scent almost plied evasively, shifting his eyes from to closer contact with him, convinced had always been that they are exceed- immediately. But in that instant I had object to object. "I've got a wife an' ingly troublesome. I therefore used turned and fied toward the woods, my child to look after, an' there ain't no purpose. Either he had some object only place of safety. Could I reach reason why I should get killed to save to attain through me or he wished to i my master a few dollars."

"No? Well, I'd go as soon as I found 1 he was in trouble." "Well, you haven't anybody depend- ries of robberies in the neighborhood "That's true." Then I added: "You i say most of the houses around here to know, and I looked forward to fuhave been entered in the last month or | ture developments with considerable

The blood seemed to rush to my head, two. Has Mr. Goddard's been rob- interest

"That's curious," I reflected aloud. "Not at all. We expect the robbers formed as prominent a part in the decured my first glimpse of the doctor. mendous lope and cleared the top rail any night here, an' that's why the serv- votional ceremonies of the time as they ants all threaten to leave. The rob- had in the old religion of Egypt. The proportioned man, and one who would We both landed on the other side, but bers wouldn't take the trouble to break cat Elurus was embalmed after-death prove a bold and powerful antagonist. the force of the hound's leap carried into Dr. Squires', for there ain't nothin' and buried in the city of Bubastis be More than this I could not say until I him several feet over my head. Be- in that old place to take. He's too poor cause, according to Herodotus, Dian cocked my revolver, and as he made a Breakfast at this juncture inter- was said to have transformed herself, I remained in my treetop position savage dive toward me I exploded it rupted John's talk, and we had no into a cat when the gods fied into until well after dark, watching every- full in his face. The range was so chance to renew it that morning. But Egypt. thing that occurred around the house. short that the explosion must have about noon the subject was recalled to Then I descended to the ground, ate a partly stunned him, for he rolled over me rather forcibly by the appearance and dissatisfied. He came into the trustworthy?"

John, I've got to make some change of man who will set his watch at 11:30 to prepare me for the night's work. | with a snarl that I can remember to here," he said. "My butler has be o'clock and then call your attention to It was shortly after midnight when I this day. The great red, foam flecked come frightened over the recent rob- the manner in which it keeps time opened my eyes again. Habit had made jaws were close to my face, and I beries and won't stay, and the rest of when the 12 o'clock whistle blows."-It a second nature with me to awaken drew back with a helpless shudder. 1 the servants are up in arms too. They Washington Star. at this bour, and I had no fear of over- could have yelled in fear then if pro. all talk of leaving. I must have some He looked significantly from John to | in de pulpit or at a church fair, but |

"I have a family to look after." John . began to stammer, and as he spoke a the brute rolled over with an angry deeper water by displaying his coward lice. As a good, faithful coachman and but as a man of courage he was a total

"If you have no objections, sir, would like to offer myself as one will expression on his face, although first I expected he would resent 'intrusion. I recalled the old, but sometimes erroneous, saying that "there'. honor even among thieves," for in spite. of what he knew about me he was will-, ing to trust me. There was certainly a very peculiar relationship springing

"Thank you, William," he answered. burgiar scare passes away. It seems are known to be in the mine now and 'strange that the gang of thieves cannot be caught. I would give considerable myself as a reward just to break "Do you think that there is a gang of | that the rescuing parties are being | "Certainly." he said, without hesita-

be committed with such success? Why, have you any reason to believe other-up yet, and when he finally came down and they will squeal upon the others.", of that, and yet, yes, Jenkins, the de The explosion knocked down all of and agitated, for in all my experience tective, came to that conclusion some the brattices for a quarter of a mile be there is more in the idea than I cutting out the air from the men imnever have thought of opening that ing nature, and I had nothing to fear thought. I will think about it, and it > captured. I believe I will offer a reward myself for his capture." "It would be a good idea," I replied, "for you would probably never have t

"Well because a man sharp enough to evade detection all this time is L likely to be caught by somebody working to get a reward." "That may be, but I shall offer to reward at once. I'll make it a thousand dollars for the man's capture and l make me his confederate in order to dispose of the goods he must have collected, for I had no doubt that the se-

What his purpose was I felt curious

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

When the Cat Was Sacred.

In the middle ages brute animals

Bubastia the chief diety of the place,

Watch Owner's Pride.

"Then you do not regard him as "I should not go so far as to say be

Lady-Ain't you ashamed to be beg-is not trustworthy, but he is the kind

"That ought to be sufficient to tempt | A telephone message received from Algoma says 11 bodies have just been i recovered from the mines and that six who tells of his comrade in crime for a | miners with the exception of one white i reward is worse than the man who is miner named Luster. captured. He is not only a criminal i ACTIVE VOLCANO IN MEXICO.

Mr. Goddard's eyes flashed sharply benefit the words were spoken. Did Phoenix, Arizona, Sept. 16.—Judge "They are slick ones, too, for they he think for an instant that I would Henry Redwine brings to Phoenix turn traitor and claim the reward story of an active volcano in a smokily I could do it? He had placed him-lacross the Mexican line. | self in my power, and now he seemed | The Indians who formerly lived i

> But, then, he had saved my life once, of mud and fire, and the white settlers fore. He could easily have stood aside gigantic columns, amid which and let the hound finish me, placing plays, producing a weird effect.

to the listener.

Picked Up In North Sea.

London, Sept. 16. — The mate and seven of the crew of the British steamer Berwick, which was on her way to Stockholm with coal, have arrived at were smashed. The captain and 10 men remained on board the steamer,

The trawler which brought the mate and Death at North Fork, W. Va.

Boston, England, in a trawler which picked them up Sept. 14 in an oper boat on the North sea. They report that the Berwick's cargo shifted dur-Lamp of a Miner-Six Kegs of Pow ling a gale and that the steamer wear der Also Exploded-Explosion Caused on ther beam ends. In launching the by Lack of Precaution—Some Nar boats from the Bewick three of them and his seven companions to Boston Roanoke Times says: saw no trace of the disabled steamer. there is no chance of their being re- Antwerp and Montreal. It is undercovered alive as they are beyond the and the gas and smoke is so thick

. H. F. Frankenfield, the bank boss. and George Gaspie, an Hungarian Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners miner, succeeded in crawling over the of America met here in annual con-

"That's very true, very true," he kegs of blasting powder that had been winds. Now, if I had been in the city or the I had never been quite so near death's time ago, but I scouted the idea. May back towards the mine entrance, thus termed the "cheeseparing policy of the such a man is really terrorizing the There had been a small gas explo-| Mine Superintendent A. J. Stewart | fused. When it is considered that the > ing but was driven back by the want i It is now learned that the coal is enemies to good health. Burdock Blood burning and there is no hope of ex- Ritters destroys them. tinguishing the flames until a new air passage can be built to the point of another thousand for his conviction."

regarded his orders and went in.

A party headed by Mine Inspector

since the lake began spouting column and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Br. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam best : ence, coupled with my sudden change and the phenomenon is accompanied

You can have them either plain or with sets, elaborately

Ward's Jewelry Store, Wellsville, N. y.

6% ANNUALLY 6%

Government Bonds are not Safer.

Assign it to you and guarantee For seventeen years our guaranty has fully protected every client. Write

FORT WORTH, TEXAS. W.H. Cobb,

Purchased Leyland Steamers. of the Leyland line of steamers. five steamers engaged in trade between stood, the dispatch says, the vessels acpulred by Mr. Morgan will be managed by the Leyland line.

Carpenters and Joiners. Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 16.—The United

Weather indications.

It is announced that the Earl of general was $50,000 a year. He asked for as much more to defray the cost of president of the United States mantested by a safety lamp, but they disto approve the Australian decision.

Brooklyn, N. Rheumatism. He began to take Di All druggists sell it in the NEW 50 CENT SIZE Sample bottle-enough for trial, free by man.

RINGS and RINGS

carved or no carving at all. One thing is certain, they are all beautiful and will fit any hand or any idea. Bring in your finger and let us fit it for you.

I IE invest your money in a first VV class real estate mortgage

The W.C. Belcher, Land M'tge Co.

L. D. Cobb,

to work again until the air bad been ages to get along very comfortably and same salary Lord Hopetoun was getting, American opinion is quite likely Bad blood and indigestion are deadly

