the ones called just as good. Fall shapes in town Friday. The early Fall Shirt is here. Quite a display of the ones priced $1.00 in the after new work on the railroad here window to the left. Our Boys' and Children's Depart- Thursday.

ment is replete with the newest of the are allowed to enter this department. Variety and styles are not excelled in the largest city stores and as to price of same we are quite positive that they spent Sunday at her home in Whiteswill meet with your ready approval. Sailor, Vestee, Kusslan Blonse, Norfolk and Norfolk Blouse Suits from $2 Overcoats to fit the same little fel-

And your money back for the asking SCHAUL & ROOSA.

GREENWOOD. Summer has come.

Weather warm and dry.

The rains seem to have shied around Mrs. Johnson of Troupsburg was in town Saturday. Hugh McCaragher of Jasper was on our streets Saturday. Rube Covert was in Wellsville Friday on official biz. Isaac Webster and wife of Mills. Pa., visited his son Jesse Saturday, horse of Darius Osmin Monday.

Sunday and Monday. Fabulous yields of oats are reported, many pieces going better than 60 bushels to the acre-

Rev. J. O. Potter of Young Hick- ing. ory visited his daughter, Mrs. Ellery Hall, Saturday.

the talked-of removal of the Cabinet ville with a load of freight Tuesday. rumored removal is unfounded, as Hotel Johnson Wednesday. Canisteo seemed to have started on an era of prosperity, and should have town Thursday. no setback in her progress.

Jasper Friday.

caller in Greenwood Saturday of last John Donegan of Coby Creek was heated hostleries in this section. havin town Sunday. Mrs. Jesse Webster and Mrs. Alonzo room.

at Kreusen's Corners Friday. Frank Barber shipped a car of day.

Republican State Convention this in Hornellsville Monday. week at Sarato a. Many from this county in attendance.

the National Encampment of the G. ported quite low. A. R. at Washington next month. excursion rate.

D. E. Smith of Oswayo was in town

N. Y. & P. Sunday were well patronized. They are very popular recrea- urday. tions and seem to increase in favor. Misses Francis Richey and Belle were guests of Mrs. Foster at Hor-Harden of Rexville drove to this place nellsville last week.

Grapes have appeared in our local.

Messrs. Burr Smith and h ton Smith and Misses Kate Sherwood and Preston of Hornellsville were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. last week. Slocum Tuesday afternoon.

Ellery Hall and wife went to Young

Hickory Saturday. George Smith and family went Hoffman.

Mrs. George York and children ame from Shingle House Saturday. Mr. York is moving on West Hill.

ville Saturday. lumbering job of H. A. York.

Hooking at meters Monday in Greenwood Monday. stomach and cures positively and per-

E. Burdick of Millport, Pa., called nanently all stomach troubles, indiges. in this city the first of the week.

| Holladay, Miss., writes : Kodol has | Supt. G. R. Brown was looking) ach troubles. .. was given up by phy-

Harry Hilborn of Jasper called Miss Chapin, of our school faculty, Additions to our school continue. The latest pupils are Richard Lyons. lows in every imaginable style from Dommick Morey and M. McCormick l from Rexville.

> day, to see Mrs. Murray's sister, Mrs. . Hyland.

Glenn Coston made a trip to Horreshingled same, and has all debts and buying. assessments paid in full.

Byron Ruger was in Canisteo Mon-Miss Jennie Ruger goes Wednesday

o Hornellsville as a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Berger. Vern Johnson purchased a livery

Mrs E. H. Plaisted visited her son. i M. Plaisted, last week. E. H. Hough, of the Conisteo New Life Pills," writes W. P. White

Chronicle, was in town Monday even- head, of Kennedale, Texas, "and soon

Canisteo is somewhat agitated over Albert Stephens went to Hornells-Several telephone men registered at Dixon of Andover was in D. Gorden of Detroit called Mrs F. D. Young visited West town Wednesday.

D. M. Chilson of Canisteo was a Watts Smith of Troupsburg was a caller in Greenwood Friday. The Greenwood House in this city is one of the best lighten and best > ling a stove and gas light in every S. A. Ryan and Charles Carter of

Neal O'Hargan of West Hill was Thomos McCaffrey, wife and son were called to Canisteo Monday b Edward Ostrander of Whitesville the serious illness of Mr. McCaffrey's was a caller in Greenwood last week. daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Hyland, Several from Gr.enwood will attend who has typhoid fever. She was re-

A copious and much needed rain business Monday. The sights of the National Capital fell on the just and unjust at this place N. Austin and Ora Whitford are re and the grand military pageant of the Monday afternoon. The rain storm pairing F. L. Bassett's house. G. A. R. can all be witnessed at one did not extend far north of this vil> ter went to Canisteo Monday. Miss Maggie Burger of Hornellsville visited relatives in this place Sat-

Mrs. Fred White and son Elton

Miss Mayme Canella of Elmira and John Stamer, a former resident Miss Nellie Sargent of Cleveland, Phio, were entertained by Miss Hester Phillips Tuesday. Miss Grace Chilson and daughter Canaseraga to see her sister Mrs.

Ruth visited relatives in Greenwood Spencer, who was seriously injured and Hammondsport Wednesday. . L. and J. F. Webster went t Bennett's Creek Sunday. Mrs. Byron Ruger is visiting mother in Hornellsville. | Sunday and Monday.

Eugene Brundage and wife went Mrs. D. M. Chilson of Canisteo is sick list. vassing for orders for dress goods

Take Gare of the Blomach.

leanees, purifies and sweetens

'dy 1 ever used for dyspepsia and stom-

Botany flaunels. This showing repre

ERLICH BROS.,

And the second second second

Fortune Pavors a Texan.

their hay press Monday.

Not Doomed for Life.

Mrs. Fosters Saturday.

it after meals. L. A. Burrows.

The man or woman whose digestic perfect and whose stomach perforn. a every function is never sick. Kodol

Ross Dennis was in Greenwood

n many sick people well and weak | people strong by conveying to their urday.

cured me. I codsider it the best reme. A Gertain Cure for Dysentery and Bradford Co., Pa. "I was taken sud-I dealy with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of 'the Laceyville Messenger, suggested, 'that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. doses, one before starting and one or New ones—all this season's styles ray's Corners were in Canisteo Mon- ing the popular styles in new waists last summer I was almost completely made from best all wool French and run down with an attack of dysentery ents the products of the leading mak- by L. A. Burrows, Andover, and N. E ers and embraces styles that are un- Coston, Greenwood.

An attractive feature of Enterprising Journalism. line of waists is the low prices Three years ago, E. S. Underh. which prevail. Your particular atten-). Rev. W. Adams, of the M. E. tion is directed to the waist at one crat and immediately infused new life church went to Conference Tuesday. dollar-it is made from all wool flan-into its columns, and has not allowed It is the desire of his people here that nel-made with the new slot seam and any halt in its growth since. It now he be returned to this charge. He comes in all colors. This week pre-appears in new style, under the name has painted the church outside and sents splendid opportunities for waist of "The Daily Leader and Corning Brooklyn, Young was at one time emincreased more than ten-fold under its that they were sure the prisoner was 148 Main St., Hornellsville.

> 'Pleasant and Profitable Time. The Chicken Pie Supper a Su

cess, both Gastronomically back and stomach, and being without 'appetite, I began to use Dr. King's The annual chicken pie supper given by the ladies of the M. E. church Hvely identified by Alfred Dolby, the manca. felt like a new man." Infallible in at the residence of A. P. Woodward, hall boy, as the one which he had W. W. Johnson went to Bath Fair stomach and liver troubles. Only 25c. on Friday afternoon and evening, was helped Young to carry out of his flat. at O. E. Vars & Son's drug store, And an enjoyable affair. The attendance with the Mormon elders continued for was good and the coffers of the Socie- about an hour. Captain Schmittberger the ladies know just how they are Park Rugar and wife of Andover visited Arthur Rugar Monday. Park Waters and A. H. Rugar start Ad. Hiliker rebuilt the bridge near

Mrs. P. Rollins was in this place Boorly. I then tried Aver's Sarsa Barilla, and in one week I was a new man."--- John McDonald.

"I was treated for three years . | good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, Mc-Connellsville, O., "for piles, and fistula, ut, when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica | Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, erup tions, salt rheum, piles or no pay. 25c. at O. E. Vars & Son's drug store. Dust is very prevalent at present.

R. Crusen Thursday. Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparills. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and W. C. Bassett was in Whitesville on Miss Ethel Conklin went to Canisteo Monday to work with Mrs. Simpson Mrs. Wilson Van Vleet and daugh- in the Beehive millinery store.

The Vanderhoef boys have the cellar dug for their new house. Mrs. Nelson Jeffers visited in Can-listeo last week. George Vickers and Miss Vinnie Traister of Purdy Creek visited Ethel | | and Eldon Conklin Saturday and Sun- | .

this place, now a member of the standing army, is visiting here.

E. D. Conklin is improving his house, by the addition of a bay window. Mrs. Will Norton and two children, were quite ill last week.

Hugh Carragher was at Troupsburg Center Wednesday and Friday. Miss Irene Van Scharck is on the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay of wood last week.

that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor of New Albany, | culture, in whose establishment . purchased a bottle and took two took possession of the Corning Demo-Democrat," and shows enterprise ployed. thruout. It's subscription list has present management, and is growing positively established until Young was faster than ever. Mr. Underhill knows confronted with Levy, who instantly how to dish up the news in attractive recognized him. Young eventually adform and while it is new news.

" Having distressing pains in head. and Financially Considered. ty were swelled to the extent of $36. said that he was satisfied that the falo and Rechester Divisions. Stops at Wells Chicken pie is a favorite dish in the Methodist's menn at Greenwood, and

"For two years I suffered terdepression, and was always feeling your time and money trying some other kind. Ladies' Aid Society supper with Mrs. | rilla. $1.00 a bottle. All draggists.

J. C. AYER QO., Lowell, Mass.

Health, Rest, Recreation are assured under the most favorable conditions at Çambridge Springe, Pa. midway between Chicaso and New York on the ERIE RAILROAD.

You ought to know all about i Brie booklet, "The Bethesda of the Middle West" on application to the Ticket Agent

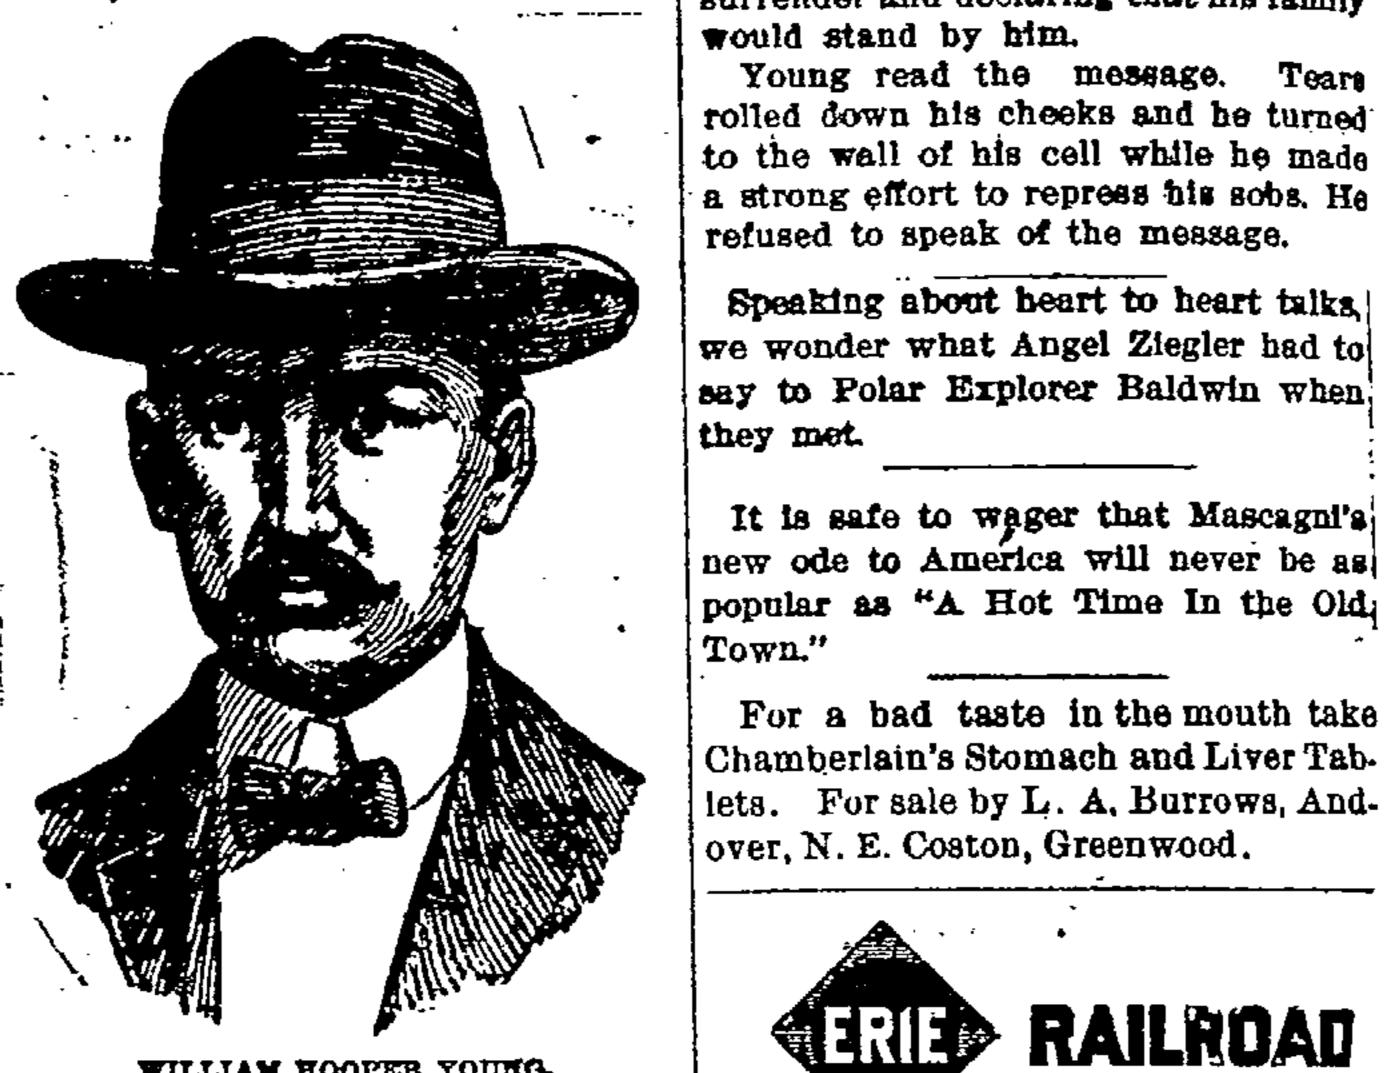

D. W. Cook, General Passenger Age

~~···· and placing his hand on the shoulder striving at Millport at 6.44. Oswayo 7.00, Rills of the prisoner he spoke in a low tone 8.18, Greenwood 8.29, Canistee 8.55, Rrie June-

tively Identified

cago Brought to New York—It Contained Mrs. Pulitzer's Wearing API For Her Husband.

e supposed murderer of Mrs. Anna oner raised his head and exclaimed: Pulitzer was ended when news reached Wm. Hale and wife were in Green- police headquarters in this city that Young and the latter's own admission the man calling himself "Bert" Ed. cleared up all uncertainty regarding wards, who was arrested Sunday night | the case the police had been positive near Derby, Conn., had admitted that for several hours that they had the he was William Hooper Young after man they wanted. "Some years ago I was one of a party he had been positively identified by Mac Levy, an instructor of physical Detectives sent to Derby, reported Young but the identification was not mitted his identity.

The articles of feminine apparel manca, Jamestown, Cleveland, Cincinnate found in the trunk brought back from ville at 12:46 a.m. Chicago were positively identified as belonging to his wife by Joseph Pullitzer, who was deeply affected when. shown a little parcel of cakes found in stations to salamanca. Pullman cars to Cinci the trunk, which his wife had bought nat! and Chicago, connecting for Bradford. for him when she went out Tuesday 12 21 p. m. No. 25, daily accommodation f night last. The trunk also was posi- Dunkirk, connecting at Carrollton for Bradien

Captain Schmittberger's conference Howkellsville. Mormon elders were in no way connecthad not been seen by the police from Thursday night until yesterday morning, had made a catisfactory explana-

TAKEN TO NEW YORK.

His Father Will Stand by Him-Claims He Had an Accomplice. Derby, Conn., Sept. 23. — William Hooper-Young, for whom the police of New York have been searching in con-Nelson Pulitzer, has been found. In the guise of a tramp he had been wandering about the country for several days when he was arrested by the Derby police on suspicion. Although his description corresponded closely with that sent out by th New York police officials, the prisoner p. m., arriving at Canaseraga at 6.85, Angelica, with the murder, and even when he was confronted with a man who was Ruffalo and Wayland Accommodation, leave formerly a fellow workman he still de- Hornellsville at 1.00 p. m., arriving at Wayland

But last evening, upon the arrival of leaves Hornellsville at 9.85 a. m., arriving at Use the old, tested, tried, a man with whom he was intimately Wayland at 10.80. acquainted, the prisoner acknowledged that he is William Hooper Young. He a. m., arriving at Hornellsville at 7.55. consented to go back to New York New York and Buffalo Express, leaves Waywithout the formality of requisition

> It was to Mac Levy, a physical culture instructor of Brooklyn, and Detective Sergeant Edward Hughes of Nev York that the prisoner admitted his identity. Mr. Levy and the detective reached here at 6:20 o'clock and were conducted at once to the prisoner's' corridor in the fall by Chief of Police Arnold and Police Commissioner water of Derby and Detective Ser Ceries at 7: 10 a. m. No. 8. Way Freight and Accommodation. Leave Oswayo at 11.10 a. m., arriving at Shingle geant Peter A. Finley of New York. The suspected man, who up to this Housest 12.25. time had insisted that he was "Bert"
> Edwards of Portland, Ore., was taken from his cell and met Levy in the corNo. 6, Way Freight and Accommodation.
> Leave Canistee at 6.45 a. m., arriving at Greenwood at 7.30, Rexville 8.18, Whitesville 9.02, Genesee 9.35, Oswayo 10.50.
> No. 4. Mail. Leave Brie Junction at 6.35 p. m., > Rexville 6.22. Whitesville 6.45. Genesce, 7.09 Elsoon as the prisoner appeared. There shingle F when Levy again saluted him he said burg 10.47. Oswayo 11.12, Miliport 11.27, Shingle House at 11.40, P.S.&N. Junction 11.22, Ceres 11.50 camly: I don't know you." "Of course you know me," said Levy No. 1, Mail Leaves Shingie House at 6.80s. m.

mally the remove to the gradet and the atture of the crime of which he is suspected. The prisoner then for the first time admitted that he is William Hooper Young. He talked with the was talking with Young an acquains ance of the latter, Dixle Anzer of Ho boken, passed by the cell and looked parel and the Cakes She Had Bought in. Mr. Anzer, who was formerly a business partner of Young, was some what in doubt about the identification of Young, but as he went by the prin surrender and declaring that his family would stand by him. Young read the message. Tears rolled down his cheeks and he turned to the wall of his cell while he made a strong effort to repress his sobs. He refused to speak of the message. Speaking about heart to heart talks we wonder what Angel Ziegler had to blegram sent by his father, John W

> "Hello, there's Anzy." While Mr. Levy's identification Young was shown a copy of the ca.

Young, from Paris, advising him to say to Polar Explorer Baldwin when! they met. It is safe to wager that Mascagni's new ode to America will never be as

For a bad taste in the mouth take

Tickets to all points Bast (r West. NEW YORK and CHICAGO, Pullman Cars to New York, Boston.

7 20 p. m., No. 8. daily for Hornellsville, Corn-ig, Rimira. Binghamton, Boston and New York,

D. W. COOKE,

Takes effect Sept 15, 1904.

No. 6, daily, New York special stopping at Hornelisville, Corning, Elmira, Binghamton, arrive at New York 800 a.m. Pullman Vestibule

Central N. Y. & Western Division,

TIME TABLE.

New York Express via Wavland, leaves Hor-

New York and Buffelo Express via Wavland.

Bath and Wayland Accommodation, leaves

Express, leaves Angelica at 7.00 a. m. atrivip

at Canaseraga at 8.50, Hornellsville at 9.30.
D. F. MARONEY, Vice Pres.,

N. Y. & P. R. R. CO.

"Miss Stetson, sir, and I think the my ears. No. 3. daily. Solid Vestibuletrain Olean Sala Wellsville at 5:19 a. m., for Olean, Iamestown

Then with admirable composure. with great tact he said: "Oh, yes; I forgot to tell you, Wil- "Why, how is that? What killed | 9 31 a. m. No 102, daily, accommodation for Ham, that they were coming here to them?" tunch today. Have a good lunch for "They simply died. My man over-and it was a satisfaction to look at all this wealth even though I had no right in any of it. The curious circumstance that I should ever be placed as a guard over so much treasure amused me and ,

CHAPTER VII

induced speculations in my mind abou

the uncertainties and inconsistencies of necessity be something of a philosof life. A man of my profession n opher. How else could be accept .

continual risk of capture and conv.

tion and silence all qualms of fear an conscience when engaged on delica and dangerous jobs? There are L and downs in every life, I suppose, fessional burglar.

none more so than in that of the pro

The second day of my installation

butler in the house was marked by an ,

Miss Stetson both appeared at lunch.

This meeting was not premeditate

by my master. It was apparently

About noon the two visitors appeared of all the allver and to greet the guests. Through the open doors I could hear their voices. "How do you do, Charles? Ready | for early visitors? I didn't believe you | ercise." It was the loud, gruff voice of the asked Miss Stetson.

"Dr. Squires and Miss Stetson, you

we should come around here. So I master to secure the two bounds from consented provided he would promise 1 to make you go off for a ride with us." I did not listen to the descriptions hadn't thought of going out

"That's the man of business," the police? These were questions that swear to return and lunch with him. Squires to hush up anything like a sen Well as for my part I agree to it, for sation. It would only attract peo, Charles always tempts me with his to his workshop, which he wanted

I could not hear the replies as they moved into the parlor, but I knew, enough to convince me that my master, was very sensitive about his jealousy, would he admit it. A few minutes later I saw them) going off together, Miss Stetson riding, a fine roon, with the doctor mounted the as I did something of their lives. Promptly at 2 they returned, a lit.

ed. I have taken a great fancy to you.

I was always so stupid that he would. get everything mixed up. But I think

'Some day maybe you can belp'. a higher way than at present." for you, air," I answered sincerely. trust with anything-secrets or any-

He looked long and inquisitively me and then said, with the most imperturbable smile on his face: had complete command black, brilliant and restless eyes. These my employment."

and I answered it accordingly: "Probably. We often meet faces by chance in the world and forget them | until reminded of them by some later | "Yes, true. You're quite a philosopher. too. William."

"Enough to accept life as it comes justed. gree, forming the life of the party, but without a demur," I answered. the eyes that so attracted seldom took | sometimes. But to return to business. stant to fathers their meaning seized You know that I have appointments left his headquarters to go to dinner. should be put in, but it was the con the market where, after examining me. To accomplish this I spilled some | with Dr. Squires nearly every day. of the salad dressing on his coat sleeve. | Well, this is one of the mornings, and eyes. So intent was I that I forgot to | before tomorrow. If he sends any an- | there came an announcement that Mr. be confused at my mishap. The inci- swer back, remember it and tell me. dent occupied only a minute, but in That's all."

"What sort of servants do you have | drew as quietly as I could. here. Charles?" he broke out savagely when the dressing filtered down f. ' and I cantered slowly down the roac his coat sleave to the floor.

that short space I had read the char-

BY GEORGE E. WALSH

gave me no particular notice, and tinct features of his face-his cost eyes never laughed, not even when he was convulsed with merriment. They were always cold, penetrating and, as repel and fascinate at once. They casily dominated everything that came

He was talkative and lively to a de-thought, sardonic. They seemed under their sway.

left me to mykelf to examine him

My master looked annoyed and quickat the house on horseback. My mas- "He is a new man, doctor, and you ter did not see them at first. He was must overlook this accident." gravelly drive attracted his attention. I forgotten.

"Who's that coming, William?" he the open window. I could still hear Meanwhile everything about the premium Bovernor and that Benator lie had struck Tommie. Instead of re-L was near the window and, looking consequence to me, but finally the to me.

Dane hounds for sale. Can I secure to the doctor. I feared the doctor there was something brewing. ter interrupted me, and I turned in | "Yes. I can get them and make you time to see his face deathly pale. He a present of them. But why do you recovered himself immediately, how- want two more? You have two of the finest Danes I ever saw."

> "No. I haven't any." "Haven't any?" ejaculated both my master and Miss Stetson. "No; they are both dead," replied the ' prevent anybody seeing me. I succeeded so well in this ruse that i fed them, I imagine, and they both Then he hurriedly changed his coat | died yesterday of convulsions." its. I seemed to hear the scurry of said, but he had not talked with Mr. "No. not strange at all. I told my footsteps, as if the bell had given the Sheldon. man that he would kill them if he fed alarm to innumerable rats and mice. Then Benator Depew, who had promthem too freely while they got no e

"You don't think he poisoned them?" when they were sick and cut open their glided toward the door, making the "Good morning, Charles! I was out bodies afterward. There was no sig.

> turbed by the thought that somebody he not report the facts of the case to "He exacts a fee I could not dismiss from my mind, > > keep quiet and exclusive. CHAPTER VIII. at my master's house least not under ordinary circumstances, as I could wish for my meet often. On the contrary, I found, meetings with the doctor in his office your income, Briggs? Don't you feel presented Mr. Sheldon's name to the and that the latter was subjecting him | cramped?" "Cramped, did you say? Why, \ texions discuss that had been inherited have got to go out and borrow $10 ev- testically exclaimed: Well. we en from past generations. Curiosity to ery time I want to stretch myself."--]. know what this complaint was and Smart Set. what Dr. Squires was prescribing for, tis cure possessed me, and (like my) other fits of inquisitiveness) I deter-Has Abandoned His Camp Near the, mined to satisfy it upon the first posrible occasion.

just related I was called into my mas- diers who were captured by General by Ht." ter's room. He had not yet risen from Herrera at Agua Dulce and who were is bed, and I knew by the pallor of compelled to join his army and who said: "I will be nominated for lienhis face that he was not as well as succeeded in escaping have arrived tenant governor." William, I want you to take a note the whole revolutionary army has for me around to Dr. Squires. I can- abandoned its camp near Chorrers and not keep my appointment with him is retreating towards Agua Dulce.

t bands he can induce to join him. "Certainly. I will repeat it word for | Colon.

Improvement Will Secure Endorse. ment of Barge Canal.

Saratoga, Sept. 23.—The first real tion examination be revealed the most dis- fancy I've seen your face somewhere dors where the convention before that is, before you came into are assembled occurred when a rumor went about that the slate had been day. The committee then adjourned I knew that this was a test question, broken. It was just as the state committee adjourned that the rumor was

> It came suddenly upon the close of B. McEwen. Anson G. McCcok and an exceedingly quiet day, when the John McDonough are mentioned, while differences existing over the lieutenant | Candidate Mongin still is in the race | of the difficulty. governorship seemed to have been ad. It was said that the position would a

George R. Sheldon, the prospective "Well, that is more than I can do candidate for that office, after spend- plank in the platform. They could not money, he had quite a unique methor close to the Kings county and Lieuten- canal is what is wanted. it. Go and tell him that I cannot come ant Governor Woodruff's headquarters Sheldon had been told to withdraw and that the ticket would include the He dropped his head back upon the names of Timothy L. Woodruff pillows and closed his eyes. I withlieutenant governor and Anson

McCook for secretary of state. various objects that had become indel- not agree as to the new slate. Some ton barge canal system. The advo one was allowed to beat down prices ibly impressed upon my memory from Woodruff men alleged that Senator cates of canal improvement declare or to leave the place without making smoking in his dressing room when The conversation flowed on freely the experience of that eventful night Frank Higgins of Olean was to be that the plank that will be inserted in purchases. When everything was sold, the clatter of horses' hoofs on the hard, after that, and the mishap was soon when I attempted to enter the house. nominated for lieutenant governor and the platform in regard to the canals, I had by no means given up all idea of Mr. McCook for secretary of state. will be satisfactory to them. was passing through the room at the . When the wine and cigars were exploring the interior of the haunted Another set had it that General Mcbrought, they retired to an open bal- house, but was merely postponing the Cook was to be the nominee for lieucony just off the dining room. Through second trial for a more opportune time. tenant governor and that Senator their talk. Most of it was of little ises assumed some special importance be the candidate for secretary of state. And as the rumor spread and the words of the doctor made me prick up I wished very much to see the interdelegates excitedly swarmed about rior of the house in the daytime, and headquarters looking for information; man they call Dr. Squires. I've never By the way, Charles, yen apoke of a I determined to force an entrance at several things occurred that helped met him, but from what John said I friend of yours having a couple of all hazards in delivering my message bear out at least the suggestion that Mr. Bheldon Could Not Be Found. My. Sheldon, who had been close to Fost avoid this, if possible, I stopped some disappeared and could not be found a

> | shadow of trees and shrubberies to if Mr. Woodruff would not be a can- | English speaking folk it now means | didate he also would withdraw. Nobody could say just who the mer it meant any book whatever or scroll-I reached the plazza without being dis-senger was or whence the message to speak by the card lest equivocation covered. The bell, which I rang, ech- came but it alleged that it was sent undo us. Tracing the word Bible oed throughout the gloomy interior of lafter Mr. Sheldon had conferred with straight home, we find it as bubles, the house so discordantly that it made Mr. Platt. Senator Platt declined to another name for the papyrus reed

but a moment later I was satisfied ised that his speech nominating Mr that the noise was made by human Sheldon would be ready for the newspapermen during the evening, sent The doctor's servant-a dark, dried word to them that he would not give strong and active. He shuffled to Emerson W. Barnes. J. on his face. He was evidently disted to place great credence in the

For an hour the rumor fight went. "I have a message for Dr. Squires," on and in the meanwhile the New York city delegation started to hold its He stuck out a long, bony hand as if | meeting. It waited for a while until a to take the letter which he supposed I it could hear from Mr. Platt and the had. At least he could hear and was news was evidently favorable, for a. familier with the English language. I absolute endorsement of Mr. Sheldon also believe that he could speak and was made. Then leader Warren an that his dumbness was merely pretend. nounced that Eric would follow suit. ed. But there is no way to make a A few minutes after the atmosphere HE visits of Dr. Squires man speak if he doesn't want to, or at had begun to clear Mr. Sheldon arrived at his headquarters and after listening to the story, said: "I have not been asked to withdraw from the contest for lieutenant governor. I have made no overtures to Mr. Woodruff. I do not intend to withdraw and my name will be presented to the convention."

to open the door more

TO BE CONTINUED.

In a Close Pisce.

HERRERA RETREATING

here. They confirm the report that for a battle to occur at Panama

But the Contract of the

to arrive on the isthmus.

New York delegation, hurried in and) grasping the candidate's hand enthus-"Well, that settles it then," Sheldon replied. "I'm nominated." "Yes, but were'nt you afraid of the

Just then Gherardi Davis, who had I

McCook rumor?" asked Mr. Davis. "No, I was not a bit afraid. I di not take the rumor at all seriously and was not in the least disturbed

Meeting of New York Delegates. The New York county delegation met in the ballroom of the United It is reported that Herrers has in- States hotel and pledged unswerving > delegation was for Mr. Sheldon. to endorse Mr. Sheldon.

toffered to Kings county today.

send an alternate.

One day there sat at the table adjoin John D. Post's. M. J. Dady did ing his own a wealthy Russian Bubbe proprietor and demanded an explana-The man, an Italian, recognized Sir dorsed the temporary roll of the con Arthur as an influential client and vention for the permanent organiz was profuse in his apologies. He explained that the mistake lay with the cashler. Going over the items to which said: "The convert I take him off disession was set for 12 o'clock on Tues) rectly, and the butter I charge him to ' the grand duke. He not notice it." So far as could be learned nothing The idea of charging to the gram duke an item against whose extertion-I ate price another customer protested. always struck the great composer as a decidedly humorous way of getting out

A Royal Road to Wealth.

The advocates of canal improvement When a certain late shah of Persia met and discussed plans for the canall ing several hours receiving his friends, agree on what form the resolution of filling his purse. He would go to Emanating from a point suspiciously | census of opinion that a 1,000-ton targe | the shops, he would select one and The conference was a lengthy one "Will you take me in as a partner is and it was finally decided that a com i New York, Franklin Edson of New The shah would take his seat near the falo should draw up the resolution I Who'll buy?" The latter, not daring to each article made out and loyally, shared with the shopkeeper tha

> When People Laugh. People laugh when they are amused when they think people expect them to be amused and when they don't lelse to do.--Los Angeles Herald.

"You said if anybody was mean to me to heap coals of fire on his head. . Bitters destroys them.

The Word Bible. distance from the place, hitched my by his staunchest adherents. From the |: The word Bible furnishes a striking | the book of books. In Chaucer's day one think of ghosts and departed spir- talk. He had heard the rumors, he Egypt.—National Review. A coroner's jury in Ireland delivered | the following verdict on the sudden i

"We, the jury, find from the new doc-I tor's statement that the deceased came enough ahead."

it, for I know by experience it will do

Dr. David Kennedy's Rose Jally radical cure If so, it is a great saving to your self | Catarra, Hay Fever and Cold in Head. 50c.

You can have them either plain or with sets, elaborately carved or no carving at all. One thing is certain, they are all beautiful and will fit any hand or any idea.

Ward's Jewelry Store,

I E invest your money in a first Assign it to you and guarantee it. For seventeen years our guaranty.

The W.C. Belcher, Land M'tge Co.

want to be rude and don't know what Bad blood and indigestion are deadiy enemies to good health. Bardock Blood

The Rev. Aaron Coons. D. D., or the Methodist Episcopal Church or David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy

"Sample bottle-enough for trial, free by mail.

'RINGS and RINGS.

Bring in your finger and let us fit it for you.

Wellsville, N. y.

6% ANNUALLY, 6%

Government Bonds are not Safer.

has fully protected every client. Write amount of the profit realized.

