The regular monthly meeting of the Library Association will meet next Thursday evening Jan. 15th at the Library building at 8 o'clock p. m.

We are obliged to omit this week several valuable letters from our regular correspondents on account of other matter crowding our columns.

On another page will be found a complete epitome of News items and Vital Statistics for 1902, as reported in the several issues of this paper during that time.

At Nile, Jan. 1 1903 a very pleasant event occurred at the home of Mrs. M. E. Whitford when her niece, Miss Rachel Wardner, of Plainfield, N. J., was married to Mr. Raymond C. Daily, of Newport, R. I.

Married, at the Presbyterian parsonage in Canaseraga, by Rev. Albert Livermore, Wednesday, December 24, 1902, George V. Howe to Philea F. Swain, both of Canaseraga. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Swain.

Two marriages occurred on Christmas eve, at the Old parsonage. That of Addie McKelvy of this place to Marion Hazzard of Richburg, and Florence Cochran of Andover to Roy Nichols of East Olean. All are well-known young people to many in this place, who wish them a happy future.

Cuba Times: Henry Hendrix of Cuba, who was recently pardoned from Sing Sing by Governor Odell, will return to the prison as an employee at a salary of $100 a month. During his confinement he held a responsible position as bookkeeper and he performed his duties so well that the authorities have decided to retain his services.

Reporter: Mrs. Frederick T. Koyle, wife of Contract Surgeon Koyle, U. S. A., has arrived at Naga, Cebu, P. I., from Wellsville, N. Y., after a tempestuous voyage on the transport Crook. The Crook encountered a severe typhoon lasting over thirty-six hours, between Nagasaki and Manila. Her experience is one never to be forgotten.

Parties were in town last week, says the Cuba Patriot, and made a contract with W. A. Bates, owner of the Cuba Ginseng Gardens, for $3,000 of seed and one year old plant, the stock to be delivered by Mr. Bates next season. The Cuba Ginseng Gardens were only started a year ago last fall and $3,000 is certainly a nice sum for Mr. Bates to clear up from the enterprise the first year, besides greatly enlarging his own gardens.

I. O. O. F. Officers. Last evening the District, Grand Deputy installed the following officers for Andover Lodge No. 785, I. O. O. F. for the ensuing term: N. G.—Clayton Williams, V. G.—J. H. Backus, Secretary—Dr. John Common, Treasurer—Randall Pease.

George M. Baker. George M. Baker, who lived on the road west of the village, died very suddenly Wednesday. He was at the church choir.
