To use present success for ent advantages is the only means thru they do not get whiped to pieces by the which a community can be a success-

Continuous effort along the line of 2 East Greenwood ... progress and betterment is the way to increase and bring interest to already accomplished results. To have one We're Building factory of a number of additional buildings means much, very much, this Business but the conditions environment, the which can be accomplished or brought by the village as a whole, need changing. The streets might be made better. The old custom of scraping once a year might be improved on in many ways. Nothing makes for growth as the conditions within. There should ] be no standstill, but having mounted the ladder it should be an upward climb, each step adding too and in greatness. A BUILDING BOOM. It Dame Rumor tells the truth (and sometimes she does), perhaps more building operations will be in action this spring than the village has enjoyed in a number of years. If this be true, it will bring more mechanics class of men are always desirable as the inhabitants of a town. They are thrifty and money makers, and usually are men who enjoy the things of life. and hence they add to the business pressions will probably be lasting, and so during the building boom it might be well if care were taken to impress the new comers with all of the desirable features of our village life, and perhaps make them permanent resi-

IT MEANS BUSINESS. One can readily see that such additions as above outlined mean an increased volume of business. (A note 5 of warning might be well here.) will not come with a rush, but it will $ gradually reveal itself to the merchants that an increase of any number of inhabitants means more busi--ness, and it means that the wideawake climber will prepare the way, and with and new move, and be prepared for that which will come. So it means ] personal business. WHO CARES?

Huxley says, "When anybody asks 🔊 you how you are, say you are well, for --nobody cares." That may be true of the cold, intellectual world in which Huxley moved, but there is a heart to heart life in "Old Allegany" that ? makes us care. Why, we all care— 8 the climber who seeks to work his way into affections, and the politician (perhaps) who is seeking a new office | or continuance in an old one. Well, 2 well, one can't grumble much at this February. There may have been some like it in the years agone, but verily the oldest inhabitant never saw the like such as this.

New Wash Goods.

The new Mercerized Fabrics and goods with mercerized effects came this week. It is universally conceded that "white" will be a strong leader again this year. We have gotten together by far the finest and most extensive line of these goods we've ever shown. The prices range from 15c-to-48c a yard. Not a yard of mercerized white goods left over from last year. They're all new, neat and dainty patterns, even to the lowest priced pieces in the stock.

More than the usual attention has been given the selection of trimmings for spring. Fashion calls for pearl buttons, laces, appliques in cotton, lace and silk, fancy silk braids, etc., etc. We may not have ALL the designs in ALL the kinds, supplied by one of the largest and best dress accessory houses in New York City.
