The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church under the direction of the Masonic Fraternity. Rev. G. W. Adams, his pastor, conducted the church services assisted by Rev. Messrs. Harrington and Bacop of the village churches. Mr. Adams' remarks were based on the text, John 13-7. A male quartet consisting of Messrs Chas. Pickette, Jas. P. Cannon, John E. Cannon and Wm. E. Snyder sang several selections and at the grave the full masonic ritual was used. Thus Andover endeavored thru church and fraternity amid a profussion of flowers both in design and cut, which covered the casket, to show their respect and esteem to the memory of Lowell A. Burrows.
