Mr. Bryan's efforts to catch the negro vote in the North is not very rleasing to his party adherents in the South. The Associated Press gave a report of the reception given at Fairview by Mr. Bryan to delegation of negroes from Lincoln last week_at_which time Mr. Bryan , expressed his desire that they should get in touch with their brethern everywhere, and particularly in Ohio, in behalf of the democratic ticket. When Katie Waits.

The air is heavy with the scent

My heart is gay with gladness:

The dew upon the glinting grass

Is shedding diamond luster.

My failing courage muster!

I go with spirits flushing

Beside the gateway, blushing.

The air is filled with dulcet sound.

And I, with fervent soughs of bliss,

When Katle waits for me at night

To meet the woman of my heart

But when I see her wond rous eyes

And every path shall lead to her.
