Carrie E. Leonard in writing to renew the Subscription of Miss Margaret Leonard, says: "Miss Leonard bids me tell you she is still enjoying excellent health, and is feeling quite at home in this western land. Beside three railroads we have electric lines, trolley and third rail, radiating in all directions from the "Watch City;" and these, with a few friendly carriages and automobiles, have afforded her opportunity to become acquainted with all the surrounding country. Not long since she enjoyed a day at Chicago's beautiful Lincoln Park. The water-lilies, red, white, blue and yellow, were in their prime, and the beds of cannas and other early autumn flowers were finer than ever before.

The old home and long-time friends are not forgotten, and the regular coming of "The Andover News" is one of the anticipated times of the week."

to the public through the columns of this paper. With every issue it carries its message into the homes and lives of the people. Your competitor has his store news in this issue. Why don't you have yours? Don't blame the people for flocking to his store. They know what he has.

PALATE PLEASING PRODUCTS

That's the kind we serve our customers every day. Besides being palatable, they're wholesome. We know enough about these things to tell when they are all right and furnish the best that money can buy. You couldn't get better goods, no matter what you paid.

Our cooler protects the flavor of the meats and insures its freshness.

Our Sausage, Weiners and Bologna are noted for their richness of flavor and superior quality.

NORTH-SIDE NEWS.

The bunch that were camping and hunting returned Saturday, tired but happy. They got some small game, but the woods were too noisy for good hunting. Fred, you should have joined us on that hunt. We missed you when swapping fish stories. Would like to have you tell about the big trout you caught at Great Valley with a hog hook.

That dog concert is a peach! I don't think.

Horace, why don't you call around and give your friends a ride when exercising your ponies?

Mrs. Case of Little Valley is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Platts of Rochambeau Avenue.

A. Daly is suffering with a bad case of red wood poisoning in his face. You have our sympathy, Andy. We know what it is.

The light over Horace's work bench is a dandy.

And Joe's coon dog! You bet-chur neck he can run and jump. He can jump clear out of sight the first leap he makes in the dark (he is a coal black). If you have any dogs just bring them around, Your Uncle Daubley will show you.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Platts were Little Valley visitors Saturday, the 17th.

Mrs. Dan Witter of Grove Street is convalescent.
