WHAT HAVE YOU TO SAY ABOUT THIS?

"THIS TELEPOST MUST BE CRUSHED OUT, REGARDLESS OF THE COST." In these words a prominent Wall Street financier announced that the "Interests" had declared war on us and on you.

Why he wished to crush it,—the many attempts to ruin it,—why they failed,—the great benefits of the Telepost to you and to the entire country,--and how, cities than between any other two cities in the world with your co-operation, it can never be crushed, prompt me to address you. It concerns you. It is your fight as well as ours.

The Telepost is an independent telegraph company owning a system of automatic machine telegraphy recognized as the highest development to date in its field. It is in active commercial operation between Chicago. St. Louis, Indianapolis, Louisville and other cities o the Middle West, with the lowest rates and best service ingly large from year to year.
