THE STUDENTS HOME FROM COL

halffays was not so common an ex- shows a liberal margin earned above little conception. well known to the writer, there remed a far hard climb to Parnas in its earnings as threatens its wish hights. A few girls had adven- ity to pay its regular dividend. attended State Normal fehecl. This was popularly regard- particularly women, should ed us a more or less foolhardy enter- stocks under no circumstances, alter from High School go on beyond.

A glamor of romance used to attach to the college youth as he strode down his native heath. student songs had alluring sparks of scholarastic witticism, not unmingled with naughty but nice touches of the world, the flesh, and the devil. His clothes created envy among the stay at-homes, and deepened contempt for the village tailor.

pinhacie. There are two many of him. A lot of people have the idea men have done. That places on dead wood.

speaking, when he comes back. there are more positive factors. The and deplore it.

make hiş own.

The investigation now proceeding teddling children on a foot ball field, this "quiz" will have been well worth find it profitable to richer than you, for my possession liren

-Never buy a stock that has not eald dividends at least the consecu-The return of the students for the year and unless its income account opportunities of which they have had

3.—Never buy a stock unless with spects distant mail order houses. A for years and years but one boy in a year it has fallen in value at mail order house 300 to 600 miles the strength a college. It least 10 per cent., without such a fall away must pay 62 cents to get a 10 People without business training prize. Today about half the gradu- cept on the advice of some train investor who is personally intereste in their welfware.

If these rules were generally served, thousands of stores and fact ories would be employing labor and have gone under the hammer of lauctioneer, or whose meager bone have been picked by the hungry debtors of the Bangruptcy court,.

A COLLEGE PROFESSOR , The announcement that President that you can make a boy a genuine Taft as to become a college professor not by teaching him to do things, but will cause some commotion among by reciting by heart the things other the busy money makers. The estimate has recently been made that every college a certain burden of an ex-president, by using such business opportunities as naturally con And so the college bey has become to him, could make, $50,000 a year. too common to excite special remark. Why should Mr. Taft take aposition, still eat with his paws spiritually take a big chunk out of his time? The position of college professor But usually the life of the campus does not have the social standing as opens a fellow's eyes to a lot of of yore. I does not attract young unworldly men, not to speak of such he must have his swallowtail, his din golden truths from hte world's sages ner coat, his Prince Albert, all fresh as the boy of 18 may be able to and frequently revised to the latest college, boy taste.

Altogether the typical college feld. He associates with persons who are low does have a poise and a grac- wealthy. The plumber, the tailor journess of manner that are very win assess him a bill to correspond. He draw from. Advertising in this newssome. And when admiring aunts em is taxed by the Improvement Society paper will bring this business.

To work up to it he must have spent corporation, Andover, N. Y., on Tues A truth-lover ballasts his contention. several costly years under the ger-day, January 14, 1913, at 8 o'clock, A person in dead earnest animates into life. For centuries there were und grinders of German universities [p. m. And after all this his wife must toil, The following is a good general spin and save the basting threads.

rule: Remember that when a Wall He must ride a creaky bicycle of an | court this morning Geo. Church, who | magic of persuasion;. Peter's ser | souls. That's the demonstration street stock is advancing in price, tique pattern, at which even the vil was being tried for abandonment, men on Penticost with Peter behind religion. the chances are better than ever that lage urchans point with derision.

vide an entonication the become year.

THE PARCELS POST AND MERCHANTS.

The new parcels post law has been amining an authoritative tabulation ing by retail merchants everywhere. its income account for the past llowever, it should give them new improves their position as rechant serving the same article to a 50 mile territory, can get the same thing carried for 32 cents. He can send it for local delivery, including ' such rural routes as may start at the home post office, for 14 cents. A mail order house over 1,000 miles eway must pay 91 cents to get such parcel mailed. It should be possible for the local nerchants of this town to develope a good trade in the outlaying country or material to be developed by par-

Suppose a farmer wants a steak. for dinner. He can order it by telemiles for eight cents. The possibilities for the development of this busi ness are unlimited. The postage i spend in the provision store making this town, there is thus a great po-If he went to college a cub, he may that will pay him but $5,000, and will get. It will go to the man who gets after it with advertising.

The people in the farm home rarey pass the town merchant's shop l I window. They will do their shooptones down cub manners. And then themselves are the first to admit the merchant has a chance to show them his goods. It is agreat show atmosphere of youthful enthusiasm. Formerly, the professor could wear window in which the entire communthe companionship of brilliant but his rusty tail coat for 20 years. Now ity looks every week. Formerly high i near by territory. Now the lower rates and the spread of rural delivery open a big new field for the mer-

NOTICE TO STOCK-HOLDERS

changed his plea of not guilty to one | would move no one. It was God

That the Lord might take comfort there. The fire's ruddy glow was a cheerful sight, And shone far out in the night. But the Lord did not seek my light.

The weary of world's streets, the sick and lame, And the wrecks of the shoals of shame, Looked eager. . . but passed by my fastened gate, While I wept that the Lord was late. Folk paused as they passed by, but, I intent On making my own lament,

Did not care that they came or went.

Pouse of the Aproad.

I built my house close to the Lord's highroad:

It was built for the Lord's abode.

I garnished and kept with a woman's care

Each morning I set forth my wine and meat. For the Lord when He came to eat. The dawns dimmed to dusks, but not my hope: And I kept my watch toward the Uproad Slope.

Each dawning I said, "He will come today, Not always will He delay." But the Lord never passed that way.

A night of black storm drove a man outdone To my door. . . ah, 't was not the One! But I gave the Lord's meat for his distress, -- And Lord's bed for his weariness.---Outside raged the storm, but beneath the roar I heard a hand knock at the door. 'T was the Lord whom I long looked for.

I said to Him, "Why didst thou come so late?" And the Lord said, "thy fastened gate For not till the stranger was given My meat Could I turn toward thy house My feet. Who giveth to needy ones giveth to Me. Alone, I a guest cannot be;— And I came with My brother to thee."

The House of the Uproad, since then, is the Lord's: For all brothers the cheer it affords. The fire's ruddy glow through the door shines far On the road where my neighbors are. All,—weary and laden, the poor, the lame, The wrecks of the shoals of shame.

Are my guests since the Lord Christ came.

-Hamilton B. Williams.

A self-master is a battalion.

his principle. An enthusiast may to beautiful gates for the submerged! All stock-holders are urgently releven force error a long way. class of people. William Booth de Nothing outlasts the rage of time, cided that there should be one at J. M. Erundage, Cash. however, except truth. Truth is the least. And through his dead earnest

But there are wise old books in 's' guilty. He was sentenced to one in him that made 3,000 people hung way of Christ's religion the human dead earnestness.

That is holy ground where honest oprayer is made, That is true religion that links one to God and man. And to is a successor of the aboution, who like Andrew brings Die brothers, and like Peter convince souls of their need of Jesus Christ. In the days preceeding an emphasis of religion the soil of hearts should be prepared by prayer and somerence. If that is done it will guarantee the Harvest. God has given us the keeping of. human souls

Each one of us is a beautiful gate —if we believe, And through believing bearts God thas always come with healing in his

God's trail is by way of human

Crandall bomestead Stock Farm

In order to make room to stable our stock, will sell four Young Cows, also a few Bulls.

M. A. Crandall & Son Andover, N. Y.

OYSTERS

VARS has commenced to handle Oysters, and you all know that means

Oysters Right from the Beds and at a low price—25c qt—when I furnish Crackers.

O.-E. Wars

THE OLD RELIABLE

is open and ready to serve you with all kinds of Feeds and Mill Stuffs. Give us an opportunity to figure on your Feed requirements . . .

Lanphear Mill

A Happy New Pear

fly crazy. Orville, don't you know inachine that would fly? And, Or-ounty Governments.

EAU IDEA

local authorities.

NEWSPAPER ERROS

free from errors, either typography whether they are really human.

I ville, don't you know if anybody ever

NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY Report to Comptroller Sept. 4, 19122 Capital, $25,000.00 Surplus and Profits, $20,720,49 Resources. $286,644 62

J. S. PHILLIPS.

-The cutlery plant is closed

100 mm

L. J. ATWOOD Vice President. J. C. LEVER, Assistant Cashier.

-Mrs. W. H. Bellamy died at her ductive.

-Miss Maude White, of Wellsville and Arthur H. Crandall, of Belmons

-Andover high School closed Friwere married_December 13th. day for the holiday vacation. -Joseph Lincoln, an aged and r ---In accepting a favor it is just as i spected citizen of Almond, died well to look for the price mark. his home Sunday, Dec. 15th. -John Tinsler, 17 years of age, has been taken from Little Genesee at her home in Brooklyn. the State Hospital at Gowanda. covered from the results of an injury

-Harrison Madison died at the home of his son, Dr.E. H. Madison, of Belfast, Dec. 15th., aged 83 years. home in Belmont after a brief ifiness recently received from a fall.

Wm H. Bellamy, of Wellsville, the marriage of Miss. Mary Brown. of Richmond, W. Va., and Edwin Strang, of Kingson, Pa.

Ward, Dec. 14th, aged 78 years.

the 1st. National Bank at Cuba, reing Co., will move its plant to that paper which can be proven entirely Valley grape fruit from his plantation on the Isle of Pines.

. . . -The body of Olivar . Gilbert, who Star Line S. S. Laurentic, for a trip an order; a lawyer who never lost a Wellsville, Dec. 20th, was taken to South America, and on the return who never wrongly diagnosed a case. a Civil War veteran, serving in Com- da ing event. Merrimans Orchestra are an last week, his death occurring upon Decatur in November. There is to furnish the inspiration. Spectator his 18th birthday. The case is a sad quite a country. Ask D. P. Corwin tickets are o he 25c for men, ladies one.

vecil, at Burns, last week. His bood | He Works, and at one time postmast-on a flying machine, a great many One friend of the family, a vener- number—and how to escape the hoo. 4 able shoe dealer, took it upon himseli doo. Also an exposition of to call and remonstrate with the "signs". A sermon to start 1913 in young men regarding their conduct. the right way. Superstitious and He found Orville Wright in the back others are invited.

yard of the Wright home tinkering | Sunday night at the Baptist church on the rough model of what after Mr. Tower will open the series wards became the first glider that , makin' a couple of plumb fools of a trail. You'd better stop all this foolishness before you go entire-that nobody and did make a flying Rev. W. H. Randall, Pastor.

of meetings in the Baptist church for the next two weeks will be the speak -Mrs. Delbert Snyder died at her WOULD EXTEND THE FARM BUR. er, and begin live work with us. all our church and congregation cut to welcome Brother Tower. Sunday School at 11:45.

v the Baptist church to which "The bureaus will be operated by be good singing. fective methods of farming, so that their land may be made more profor members of hte church the price for it. Same with us, says the presented at the morning service nex stock is taken by Medina citizens them all he would be kept busy. We 6:00 p. m. Epworth League. for in statements of fact. We wil.

FUR COATS CHEAP

Lewis White was found lying be the Hornell Chamber of Commerce, Xmas Candles

Nuts, Oranges Bananas

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday, Dec. 29th. Mr. Williams will tell why "13" is an unlucky every one attend. Get the church-

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Morning service 10:30. Rev. C. M.

The Federated meeting will be in Albany, Dec. 21.—Calvin J. Husen, the Baptist church at 7:30. Bro. C. State Commissioner of Agriculture, M. Tower will speak to us and bring will ask the next legislature to make us something good and help make county farm bureaus to be main. Every evening this week, except ing Saturday, meetings will be held ask for a state appropriation of $600 we are promised will be brought us. for each bureau and the remainder Self and the minor things we did not l of the money is to be provided by want but Christ and His Redeeming localities. It is proposed to establish Power. Come with us and we will do charge of the service and there will

Rev. F. M. Baker, Pastor.

10'00 Class Meeting especia The editor of an exchange doesn't by the pastor. Theme, "Why a New Ready while you read. want any one to send him any more Year." The pastor has prepared a -The purchasing committee of the copies of his papers in which they orief New Years greeting to Scio. Grange purchased between ten have found mistakes. If they find a beoble and will be pleased to place and eleven thousand dollars worth perfect copy, however, he offers a big one in the hands of each family r editor of the Crystal Falls (Mich.) Sunday Drill. If the fool critic who hunts for mistakes in the papers would find be pleased to find a merchant who and case through his own errors, a doctor weeks are in charge of the Baptist a post office official who never put people, and Rev. Mr. Tower will be William N. Hall of Allegany, has purchased a timber tract of 2,000. $50,000 bakn building on the corner of teapot before putting in the water.

7:15 Federated service at the Bap

> DOING LOTS OF BUSINESS. A Patrol of Boy Scouts was organ

Liscount

To Make a Clean Sweep

All 50c articles____34c E And that is the way it goes through the entire Holiday line. Then we are making extra special prices on A some other goods to reduce stock before inventory. A good Barn Shoyel.

This is the last opportunity to get one of those 50c Double Bitt Axes. The price will be advanced January 1st, 1913. The continued advancing in price makes this necessary. These special prices are in effect only until Tuesday Evening, Dec. 31st.

Our Store Open All Day New Years

Not so much for business as that we want the oppor tunity of expressing personally to you, as well as on paper, that we wish one and all a most happy and prosperous 1913.

BAKER BROTHERS

ROCKWELL Clearance Sale

next year, with the approval of the be 7:30. Bro. C. M. Tower will have Marching Orders for all Fur Coats, Plush Coats, Cloth Coats and Tailored Suits

An immense assortment to pick from, but multitudes have been eagerly waiting for this announcement and will take advantage of it at the earliest possible moment; hence 10:30, Morning worship. Sermon the necessity for promptness if you are at all interested.

40.00 Black Russian Pony Coats ... 60 00 Black Russian Pony Coats___ 63.00 Russian Marmot (brown) Coats_____ 67.50 Russian Marmot Coats 80.00 Electric Seal Coats_____ 22.50 Seal Plush and Caracul Coats _____ Caracul Coats, full lined_____ 5.90 and paign which is to extend through the Caracul Coats, full satin lined _______ month of January. The first two Heavy Cloth Coats, worth $25, at___ ^t Fancy Cloth Coats, worth $13.50, at______ 7 75 the evangelist. Then will follow ser Black Broadcloth Coats, worth $17.50, at _ ____ 12 00 vices at the Presbyterian church and Misses' and Juniors' Heavy Coats _____4.50 and 7 50

ROCKWELL BROS. & CO.

WELLSVILLE, M. Y.

BARGAINS---JUST LOOK AT THESE!

house and patch of alfalfa. At your own price. Ten room house, six acres of land, barn, hen bouses. Going at a bargain price.

An eight room house with three acres of land, barn, hen-barn, hen houses, shed, natural gas and water in house A six room house, one and one-forth acres of land, bern Strike The Trail.

Your Attention is Respectfully Called to a Series of Evangelistic Meetings! Presented to the People for the Good of the Town a secondary place.

At the Baptist Church, Beginning Sunday, Dec. 29, 7:15 p. m.

speaker, will show the Man of Galilee to be the Light of the World. Good $ Music, Good Cheer and an honest presentation of Religious Truth