The Demand of the Day

IS THAT a man shall be judged by his efficiency, by what he accomplishes, and not by what he claims he can do.

NOT in all cases, but quite largely, his ability to accomplish is judged by his accumulations, the care he uses in conserving his income, protecting his future.

THIS BANK cordially welcomes the accounts of earnest men, men who want to get ahead in the world, men who realize they could accomplish more if they only had a start.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.

Don't let the song die down! Andover has had a healthful stimulation of religious interest. But, like every other interest it must be worked at to keep it in good shape. The town is still here, the spiritual hunger must be supplied. We can't live tomorrow on yesterday's bread!

Let the church-going habit be established. Let the enthusiasm be kept burning. Keep pecking away at the job of life. There's life in it. A demonstration of the reality of religious experience will be shown on the everyday trail.

The Federated meeting at the Baptist church next Sunday evening will be a fine opportunity to show the people that the "feeling" is sticking. Sunday morning Mr. Williams—believing in illumination rather than exhortation—will make a survey of the Home and Foreign Missionary activities. The sermon will be of the "results." Facts. Let every member of the congregation come with open mind to this meeting.

Sunday evening, Feb. 18, at the Presbyterian church, Mr. Williams will present a sermon for the Masons.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. P. M. Baker, Pastor.
This church will continue to benefit for a long time from the gracious influence of the recent revival. They have been received on probation; 17 were baptised last Sunday morning. It is expected that several will present themselves for the Sacrament next Sunday. The pastor and members of the church stand ready at any time to help any who desire assistance in these matters.

Regular services on Sunday. Them of the morning discourse, "Some By-products of the Gospel."
Bible School at 12 m. The school is growing. Help it on.
Epworth League at 6 p. m.
Federated service in the Baptist church at 7:15. Brother Randall will give us a helpful message, one of his rich experience.

Sunday afternoon services at Elm Valley as usual.
Thursday evening prayer meeting is a fixture. Be regular in attendance.

The pastor wishes to express his heartfelt thanks for the hearty cooperation of all in the recent revival services. The other members of the Quartette as well as the pastor have a larger place than ever in their hearts for Andover.

The thanks of pastor and people are extended to Mr. F. D. Rice of Wellsville, for furnishing a piano for use during the work of the Quartette.

The men of the town are invited to a Council on Monday evening next, in I. O. O. F. Hall. A discussion of several matters of local interest will be led by several of our prominent men.
Let every man turn out.
