Men's Wear for Fall

Our Men's Department this Fall will be an interesting place. You will want to visit it many times, and perhaps even at this early date will e interested to know that never before have we bent such energy to assemble for the well dressed men of Andover, such a complete assortment of the latest haberdashery. We haven't space here to tell you all about it. That will come later. We wish, however, to mention the B. STERN & SON line of Distinctive Custom Tailoring for its not too early now to think of the Fall Suit. From this line you can learn what modern tailoring does for a man. You-cannot gain this knowledge by reading our advertisements even though every word is honest clear

"Nor can you judge our attractive fabrics for Fall and Winter Suits and overcoats by looking through our glasses. But if you will honor us by looking at some of our more than 500 patterns you will consider your itime well spent, and you'll be in pocket thereby.
