GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

January thaw. Sleighing is going. Holidays are over. Austin Rollins of King Hill is in town to-day. Supreme Court is on in Corning. Judge Clark presiding. The term will last for five weeks. Bradshaw Warriner is moving into the Webster farmhouse on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Moyd Drake of Jasper, are Greenwood visitors to-day. Miss Mabel Scott is home from Rochester where she has been engaged in stenographic work. Prof. and Mrs. Geo. Tilroe, who have been visiting in town, have returned to their home in Syracuse. James McCormick was a village caller Wednesday. The hostile countries of Europe are boasting that they cannot be starved, but that probably means that the war birds will have plenty, but what of the women and children? J. Knox Miller Esq. was in town Tuesday. The Russians seem to have gotten the Turks to turkey-trotting in the Caucasus. Ray Scribner of Rock Creek was in town Wednesday. John McCormick was in Greenwood Wednesday. Harmon Waters was in town Wednesday on business. Clarence Webster has moved into his mother's house on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Will Stephens, who have been guests at the home of H. P. Stephens, have returned to their home in Jamestown. Thomas Conlon was in town Tuesday. Mrs. Aden Miner was a village visitor Wednesday. There is probability of a scrap between this country and Mexico. Either the Mexicans must cease firing across the border—or they will be driven away. It is against the traditions to require a literary test of immigrants desiring to settle in this country. Moral character should be the standard adopted for admission. A good man who cannot read or write is better than an educated villain.

Tim Blair is drawing hemlock bark to Canisteo. A load of bark is an unusual sight nowadays and recalls bygone times. December last was the coldest in many years in this locality. Governor Whitman was given a fine set off in his inauguration. He has started the probe already and grafters will be looked after sharply. Judge Clark has denied the mandamus to the Avoca Advance and Canisteo Chronicle requiring that they be given part of the county printing on the grounds, first, that it does not appear that the Prohibition party in this county is one of the two principal parties. Second, it does not appear that those papers fairly represent the Prohibition political party. Third, it does not appear that its regular and general circulation in the towns of the county is anywhere near as large as the regular and general circulation of the newspaper selected by the board of supervisors to do this printing. There probably will be an appeal from the decision. Earl Hale is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hale. Joe. Murphy of West Union, is a business visitor in town. L. M. Foster, a brakeman residing in Hornell, was instantly killed while on duty at Addison. He was head brakeman on train 89 and was struck by train 80. Potatoes are quoted firm in New York markets and state potatoes show an advance of 15 cents per bushel. A child of Floyd Stephens, formerly of this place, was injured while coasting in Hornell. Hornell is preparing its side of the case before the state health authorities in relation to the polluting of the Canisteo river by sewage. A serious accident occurred in Canaseraga last week to Lena Karns while coasting in that village. She ran into a cutter and was ran over. Her thumb had to be amputated. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Warriner of East Hill, were in town Wednesday. A resolution is before the Ontario Board of Supervisors to abolish the office of county judge.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton E. Williams, Minister.

Sunday morning
Jan. 10.
Mr. Williams welcome the Lord's Day because it opens a gate of opportunity to together search out the beauties in the Craft-Book of Life. Let the Lord's friends respond to privilege. The days pass.

Sunday School Hour

The attendance is notably larger and the classes present a spectacle that speaks well for the future. Still, there is room.

The Society of Young People

A very large attendance usually at which time nearly every one takes part. The reaping will be later.

Mid-week meeting

This is the place of joyousness for many souls. Like an oasis in the desert of days we find refreshment for our hearts. Set apart Thursday evenings.

The Federated Meeting

Mr. Baker will bring to us a message of uplift and inspiration at this hour. Let all the people respond to the opportunity. Sunday evening, Jan. 10, 7:30.

The New Year Is Ours

Its hours and days are opportunities to build into lives.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. F. M. Baker, Pastor.

"Getting Married, When and to Whom." A sermon to young people next Sunday evening in this church.

The young people of the town are most cordially invited to be present and the older people are urged to co-operate in making this an evening of great value to all.

Morning worship at 10:30. Sermon by the pastor. Theme: "The Way of Life."
Bible School at noon. If four more had been present last Sunday the hundred mark would have been reached. Were you one of the four who stayed away Epworth League meeting at 6:30 sharp. It will be Epworth Herald Day. Topic "Good News; Old News, True News." References Isa. 57:2 and Prov. 25:25. The pastor will give the second of the lectures on the Epworth League Devotional Meeting.

Church Night

Again we call upon the church members to lay all else aside and be present at the church on Thursday evenings, which is Church Night every week. A valuable series of studies in Callingtons has been started. It gives an opportunity for systematic and consecrated study of the Bible. We all need it.

Week of Prayer

Just as we were about to announce the Week of Prayer in this column last week a "tramp" rang the parsonage bell and broke off proceedings at the desk. He wanted some shoes and it took but a glance to note that his statement was based upon fact. There was little left of what was once a good pair of shoes. The next hour was used in a successful effort to get good shoes for the man's feet, thanks to one of our generous citizens. Last year when there was plenty of work this man might have met with a different response. But the days through which we are passing are exceedingly hard. "I was naked and ye clothed me." The week of prayer will mean more now. The last of the three services will be held at the Baptist church to-night.

Camp-Fire Girls

An important meeting of the Camp-Fire Girls will be held next Wednesday evening at the church. A program is being prepared. Let every member be present.

Quarterly Letter

By vote of the Official Board an effort is being made to finish the first quarter of the Conference year with bills paid. It means that one quarter of the pledges for the current year should be paid by the 10th of January. A letter urging this is to be sent to all of the contributing members and friends of the church.

New Janitor

Though regretting very much that Bro. Charles Baker finds it necessary to give up the work as janitor we feel confident of receiving good service from the new janitor, Bro. Carroll Richmond. The church last Sunday morning was 68 degrees warm, and has been comfortable all Winter. Don't stay at home saying the church is cold because it isn't.

New Members

Two new members were received into the church last Sunday morning, Mrs. Clayton Ackerman and Mrs. Wm. Burger. Two others are to be received on probation next Sunday.

Large Communion Service

A unusually impressive service was that of the Lords Supper, last Sunday morning. Nearly the entire congregation participated.

CHEAP LIVING IN NORWAY.

Prices and Wages Are Low and Nobody Works Too Hard.

Norway is a land where peace and quiet and cheap living rule. Wages and salaries are low as compared with ours. The royal household is allotted $175,000 a year, the prime minister receives $5,000, the secretary for foreign affairs, who is the entertainer among the officials, receives $7,500, and the other members of the cabinet, $3,000. The bishop of Christiania, the head of the Lutheran or state church, though he is, he says, only primus inter pares, receives $4,000 a year. The other bishops—there are six in all—$2,000 to $2,500, and the clergy, of whom there are 800, from $1,000 to $1,500.

An income of $5,000 a year means every comfort. An income of $10,000 includes more than all the luxuries that the small towns afford, and $20,000 means wealth and places a man well outside the realm of expenditure of his neighbors in Christiania or anywhere else in Norway.

Cooks are paid $6 a month—a good one $8—and a certain diplomat who pays his cook $13 gave us a dinner that his chef in Paris would find it difficult to improve upon. Housemaids and the like receive $5 a month. In one of the smaller towns I was told on the good authority of a leading citizen that families with $500 to $600 a year keep at least one servant, who receives, say, $50 a year, and where the income is from $1,000 to $1,500 there are two. Nobody, in short, works too hard.

On the farms the servants are more or less members of the family, and women of small officials and others sometimes go into service, and very often take employment as clerks, stenographers, secretaries and the like.

The wife of a foreign diplomat was asked for an evening off by her maid the night of a court ball. The mistress demurred, as she needed her maid on that particular evening, but discovered that the maid also was going to the court ball, being invited as the daughter of a small official in the town.—Price Collier in Scribner's.

When Water Gets Into a Watch.

A watchmaker who has worked at the bench for over a quarter of a century gives this advice to watch owners who may accidentally get water into their watches: Do not open your watch until you secure some sort of dish into which to place it and also enough kerosene to cover it all over. Any old tin can will do. Open your watch case, both front and back covers, and carefully move it around in the kerosene until you have filled it with oil. Allow it to remain in the kerosene until you can have it cleaned. It will come out of the oil without any of the parts rusting, thus saving much expense and the watch.

Her One Desire.

The pensioned off "faithful nurse" in an aristocratic family took a mournful pleasure in keeping the "In Memoriam" cards which were from time to time sent her. On one occasion "the daughter of the house," visiting the old lady's cottage, noticed the collection so ostentatiously displayed. "Ah, yes, miss, I keeps 'em all!" said the aged nurse. "I've got your pore par's and your sainted mar's and your brother William's and your sister Carry's, and if I only had your I think I could die 'appy!"—London Standard.
