Popularity usually costs more than it is worth.

B. S. Brundage is taking treatment at the Hornell sanitarium.

Eugene Chalker of Beach Hill suffered a light stroke of paralysis last week.

Miss Julia Chappel fell and sprained an ankle on the icy sidewalk the last of the week.

Roy Brundage has been appointed administrator of the estate of his uncle, the late Robert R. Parshall.

S. P. Rumsey, died at his home in Richburg recently after a long illness aged 67 years. Interment was at Friendship.

Peter A. Sikes, a resident of Bolivar for fifty years—died at his home in that village last week following a ten day's illness with pneumonia.

J. M. Brundage sends a card from the Grand Canyon of Arizona in which he says that they greatly enjoyed their second trip to this place of wonderful scenery.

Mrs. A. A. Porter is closing out her shop in Olean preparatory to removing to Cleveland, Ohio, where she will open a "quality shop," for corsets and ladies' furnishings, as she has been carrying in Olean.

Mrs. C. L. Crittenden, Miss W. A. Bishop and Glenn Robbins were nearly asphyxiated with gas at the Crittenden home at Whitesville last week. Miss Bishop and Mr. Robbins were insensible when discovered.

William H. Thomas, former postmaster and a successful business man of Rushford, N. Y., has purchased of John P. Herrick a substantial interest in the stock of The Herrick Agency Inc., and was elected a director and treasurer of the corporation.

Lynn Bridge, a driller employed by B. F. Hayward, of South Bolivar, was severely injured on Tuesday last week. He was riding on a load of logs when it tipped over. Bridge was caught under the logs and had his right leg broken in two places above the ankle.

A party giving his name as Prof. G. A. Rupert arrived in Whitesville some two weeks ago and began preparations to conduct a school of dancing. Saturday evening the opening dance was held at the library. After collecting his fees from those in attendance the professor became a minus quantity. Investigation proved that he had skipped on the 10:30 train over the Erie. The professor left several unpaid bills among them one claimed by Mrs. Miller, where he boarded to the amount of $16.00.

"Politics does not mix well with health and charity."—Governor Whitman.

Edward Rutherford of Belfast has been appointed deputy clerk in the Assembly.

Wm. Duke, Jr., of Wellsville, has resigned as president of the Interstate Base Ball League.

The Western New York Butter and Cheese Mfg's Association will hold its annual banquet at Cuba, Feb. 4th.

Miss Ada Brooks, preceptress of the Bolivar High School has resigned that position to accept a position in the high school at Wellsboro, Pa.

Thomas, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. McDowell, of Bolivar had five teeth knocked out and his face badly lacerated in a coasting accident.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets this afternoon with Mrs. J. Harvey Backus. Mrs. Meade, Supt. of Literature and Mrs. Backus of Press. Directors.

If your "favorite store" uses in this issue, more advertising space than in any issue for months—it probably means that it had more important news for you than in months.

A CONFERENCE FOR BIBLE SCHOOL WORKERS.

A workers' conference and training school for all officers of the Allegany Bible School Association, all its district officers and superintendents, all pastors and Bible School superintendents will be conducted by Dr. Joseph Clark, the State Superintendent, Miss Elizabeth Harris, the State Elementary Superintendent and others at the Belmont Baptist Church, morning and afternoon, Tuesday, Jan. 26th beginning at 9:30 a. m. Those attending may bring a basket lunch. Hot coffee will be served free. This is a rare opportunity for getting a good working knowledge of the present plans and methods in organized Bible School work and nothing should keep the workers mentioned above from attending.

BOARD OF HEALTH NOTICE

The local board will support the demand of the State Board of Health, that every physician report to local health officer within 24 hours from time case is first seen by him, any communicable disease or presumably communicable disease.

The same is required of hotel keepers, boarding house keepers, and also heads of private families. Violations of same are punishable by fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment of not more than six months or by both.

GOOD ONE ON BRODERICK.

Here is a new Ford story: Hon. George Broderick of Hornell wrote to the Ford company and told them they could feel very much excited for the reason that the Ford is the only car mentioned in the Bible, and to prove it, cited them to passage in Isaiah which says: "He went up into heaven on high." George wants to know what other cars a Ford could do that?

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sunday afternoon Jan. 17, Miss Marjorie Borden entertained at the home of Rev. V. L. Eggleston in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Grace Russell. Luncheon was served at 5:30, covers being laid for seven. Miss Norma Mackey was an out of town guest in attendance.

Strange Insanity.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith in her "Memoirs of a Highland Lady" tells of an old Scotchman who once took the strange whim into his head that he was a turkey hen. He made a nest of straw in his carriage and filled it with eggs and a large stone, and there he sat, hatching, leaving his station only twice a day, like other fowl, and having his food brought to him. His friends had at last to watch a proper opportunity to throw out the eggs and put some young chickens in their place. Then the old man, satisfied that he had accomplished his task, went about clucking and strutting in the midst of his brood.

Houses of Mud.

Most of the ordinary houses of Afghanistan are constructed of sun baked mud brick. The ordinary building method is to fix firmly in the ground some poles, on which a complete wooden skeleton of walls, doorways, ceilings and roof screens is formed. The wall interstices are then filled with sun baked brick. Upon the poles placed as rafters long rush mats are spread, and over them about six inches of mud is smoothly laid, forming a roof into which sundry bits of hollowed wood are fixed by way of rain spouts.

OUR CHURCHES

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. H. Randall, Pastor.

Sunday morning services at 10:30. This is the day that is called the Lord's. Let us give unto him our time, our thoughts and our worship. If the members of our churches were all in their places who are able to come our pews would be filled.

The subject of the morning discourse will be, "The Neglected Vineyard. Is It Yours?"

The Sunday School will be held at 11:45. While our school is growing still there are others who should be in the different classes. The lessons that we are now studying are interesting and very helpful. Come and see what a brave man did.

The J. C. L. will meet at 3:00. There are a goodly number belonging to this society who are glad to get out to this meeting and find it a pleasure to study under the able leadership of their teacher, Miss Minnie Clair.

The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30 p. m. The topic for next Sunday evening will be "Favorite characters of the Bible, and why?" The leader is Miss Seabury.

We had a goodly number out last Sunday evening but let all the members make an effort to be at this meeting and bring one with you.

The Federated meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at 7:30. It is needless to tell you that Bro. Williams will give you a good, helpful sermon, for he has never given you a poor one. Come and fill the church.

The Mid-week Prayer Meeting will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30. Let us all study our Sunday School lesson before we come and then we will be ready to help make the meeting worth while.

Let all the members of the church and congregation bear in mind that the annual Roll Call meeting will be held in the church on the 30th of this month. Let us try and be on hand for the social hour and dinner. The Roll Call service will begin sharply at 2 p. m. Let us make this service one of the red letter ones in our history.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.

Morning Worship

Jan. 24.
At this hour Mr. Williams will bring a sermon on "Our Relations." An effort will be made to make hte offering worth attention.

Federated Meeting

At 7:30, Jan. 24, in obedience to a request the minister will give the "Passing of the Third Floor Back." This is Jerome K. Jerome's great drama in which Sir J. Forsyth Robertson made so notable success in this country. It is one of the great dramatic themes. Mr. Williams will attempt to interpret its meaning at the evening service. Those who enjoyed the "Blue Bird" will find this play well worth consideration.

Sunday School

Growing.
We congratulate ourselves on the flourishing condition of the Sunday school.

The Young Folks Meeting.

At 6:30 every Sunday evening the young folks gather and plan a seven days journey in the wake of the Master's gleam. It's not a mechanical meeting, but full of life, and it promises futures.

The Midweek Meeting

One needs but to go to discover a well of refreshment. It is good to be there.

Every Member Canvas

At the joint-meeting of the elders and trustees last Tuesday evening it was decided to make a complete canvas of every member of the church. This work will be begun at once and continued until every member of the congregation has been seen. This plan is the only equitable and systematic one. It means better financial conditions and a better proportion.

Just a Word of Cheer

The Kingdom of God has been built up by optimists. God never used a discouraged soul upon any of his business. Let every friend of Jesus and humanity brighten up, put on gala dress and go forth with faith and hope and love. For these three are the foundations of the Kingdom.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. F. M. Baker, Pastor.

The theme on Sunday morning. If you feel faint in any Christian experience, come and learn the cure.

Bible School at noon. New record-books for the classes and a new secretary's book for the new secretary, have come and will be put into use next Sunday.

Epworth League at 6:30. Topics: Moses: From passion to self-mastery. Leader, Mrs. F. M. Baker. Fourth and last lecture on the devotional service.

Federated meeting in the Presbyterian church. Plan to go and you will be there. Forget it and you will miss something worth while.

Church Night.

We appreciate more than we can express the growing sentiment in Andover in favor of having the churches have one night of the week. We believe that it will make for a better Andover if the churches are given Thursday evening entire for the development of the soul-life. Give us a chance and we will make good in these things that are expected of us.

A New Treasurer.

While regretting very much the fact that Mrs. Teasdale finds it necessary, for physical reasons, to resign as treasurer of the church, we count ourselves fortunate to have secured Miss Marguerite Barley to take her place. Miss Earley has already assumed the duties of her new office. Checks for current expenses should be made payable to her.

W. F. M. S. Has Fine Meeting.

The Ladies of the Foreign Missionary Society met with Mrs. Charles Starr on Tuesday last in a gathering that proved to be one of the best in attendance and interest for some time. Mrs. Chas. Robinson, the president, is to be congratulated upon the excellent condition of the society.

Camp Fire Girls.

There will be a meeting of the Camp-fire Girls at the church on Wednesday evening next at 7:30, sharp. All out.

Men's Choir.

The Men's choir will be used again next Sunday morning. Rehearsal at the close of prayer meeting.

INJURED BY FALL

Grace Fowler was badly injured Thursday evening of last week. Coming out of Cheesman's Drug Store she slipped and fell striking her side across the stone step. One rib was broken and her side and back severely sprained and bruised. She has been confined to her bed since.

Wonders at Dictation.

It was said of Julius Caesar that while writing a dispatch he could at the same time dictate four others to his secretaries, and if he did not write himself could dictate seven letters at once. The same thing is asserted also of the Emperor Napoleon, who had a wonderful capability of directing his whole mental energy to whatever came before him.

Sardou's Opinion of Women.

"I have," said Sardou, "the highest opinion of the fair sex. I consider women superior to men in almost everything. They possess the intellectual faculty to an extraordinary degree and may almost always be trusted to do the right thing in a crisis of peace. They are full of courage and, though heavily oppressed by fate, come well out of it. You have but to put them to the test to realize the truth of what I say."

Would Love Her That Way.

"Oh, George," exclaimed a very young wife to her husband, "I've been reading in the newspaper of a woman who was suddenly stricken dumb during a thunderstorm. Do you think her husband will love her still?"

"Rather!" replied George. "Any man who wouldn't love his wife still deserves the happy fate of an old bachelor!"
