Church Night

Thursday evening the last of the series of studies in Galatians. Let all who can be present.

Record of Church Attendances

It is planned that from now on a record shall be kept of the attendances of members of the church at the morning session on Sundays. The purpose is twofold. First that attendance upon divine service may be more systematically encouraged and secondly that the pastor may become immediately aware of cases of sickness or removal.

Brotherhood Banquet

With practically every seat taken and a menu and toast-list both of the very best, the success of the Washington's Birthday-Banquet conducted by the Brotherhood Class was assured from the start. An account will be found elsewhere. For the March meeting the Brotherhood is inviting Prof. Place to give his lecture on "The Economic Value of Birds to the Farmer." It will be an open meeting for all who wish to attend, ladies included.

Camp-Fire Girls Jubilant

There is a broad smile on the face of each Camp-Fire Girl as a result of the very successful social, held last Wednesday evening. The vestry of the church was well filled with young people, including a number from Wellsville. Games preceded the selling of the night-caps. Lloyd Robinson acted as auctioneer. Each night-cap had a duplicate belonging to the girl who had made them both. Hence the strenuous efforts of some of the bidders to get the right one. Thanks to the good work of the auctioneer and the response by the determined bidders, the girls were able to count up $15.50 as their

Community Club Organized

A most interesting and profitable evening was that of last Saturday when Prof. Place of Alfred gave his lecture in the church on "The Economic Value of Birds to the Farmer." Prof. Place brought with him nearly 150 specimens which added greatly to the value and interest of the hour. At the close of the lecture it was decided to start a Community Club to conduct similar gatherings and back up other work of the line of community betterment. The officers elected were: Pres, Paul Caple; Vice Pres. Loren Howland Sec. and Treas. Mrs. Jay Burdick. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening closed with a good singing.

Antique Social a Success

The Philatheas entertained last Friday evening at an Antique Social at the church. Many of the ladies appeared in their wedding gowns, others in more or less grotesque costumes. A table held ancient specimens of various sorts some dating back 125 years. Games fitting the thought of the evening were played earliest photos were guessed. Refreshments closed one of the most enjoyable evening of the Winter.

Boy Scouts Monday Evening

This is a call to all of the Boy Scouts to be present on Monday evening to carry out a program and plan soon to entertain the Camp-Fires.

The Bookkeeper Bought a Burroughs

"What are the best terms you'll make me?" said the bookkeeper of a store in Coffeeville, Mississippi.

The Burroughs man told him, and he bought—paid for a Burroughs out of his salary.

His boss wanted to "wait awhile."

The bookkeeper knew he would not only be worth more to the store, but that he would free his mind of the drudgery—he would have time to think—to improve—to grow into a bigger man and into a bigger job and a bigger salary, if he had a Burroughs Assistant.

We would like to show you and every bookkeeper how this Duplex will do two jobs at once.

Send for Duplex Folder, or ask us for demonstration—free, of course.
