

UNDER the provisions of the new FEDERAL RESERVE ACT your money is SAFER THAN EVER in this bank. The government stands guardian. Periodical examinations by government experts made for the benefit of depositors. A large sum in absolute reserve to its liabilities is kept with the government. In addition, there is PERSONAL INTEGRITY of the officers and directors back of this institution.

NEW ACCOUNTS WELCOMED.
Burrows National Bank
 NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY

Report to Comptroller Dec. 31, 1914
 Capital, $25,000.00 Surplus and Profits, $26,500.00
 Resources, $277,800.00
 S. PHILLIPS, President. E. J. ATWOOD, Vice President.
 W. BURROWS, Cashier. J. C. LEVER, Assistant Cashier.

MAILS CLOSE.

Going East.

M. Train 222 8:55
 M. Train 26 2:30
 M. Train 224 6:45

Going West

M. Train 25 11:2
 M. Train 541 6:05

all for E. F. D. Routes close at 11:00 P. M.

W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sawyer of Friendship have a daughter born Feb. 18th.

—King's Daughters' 15c supper Saturday, March 6, 5:30, Presbyterian church.

—Miss Violet Coombes of Bird-sall and Ralph L. Comstock of Belfast were married recently.

—T. Courtney has rented the Parshall house on North Main street and is moving his family there.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farwell, Thursday morning, a baby girl of eight pounds. Mother and child are doing well.

—The little infant of B. A. Clair is very ill at the home of Mrs. Mont Crance, Dr. C. W. O'Donnell attending physician.

—The farm house on the Sawyer farm, owned by Riley Allen, between Allentown and Bolivar, burned last week. Loss $1500, insured for $700.

—Hayden Rogers has moved his family from this village to the Rogers farm near Whitesville where he will assist in the work during the coming season.

—The News is glad to report that Miss Edith Brainard is gaining nicely at this writing from the serious illness from which she has been suffering for the past two weeks.

—Mrs. W. E. Hornblower, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed women of Main Settlement died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Washburn near Ceres, Sunday morning of the infirmities of old age. She celebrated her 92nd birthday on Feb. 2, 1915.

—The man who has no skeletons to conceal is never afraid of newspaper.

—The Forum discusses "Self-government," personal and political in this issue.

—Albert Austin of Friendship underwent a serious operation or appendicitis last week.

—Miss MacKay has been unable to attend her school duties on account of illness the past week.

—Benjamin F. Stanton, an aged and respected citizen of Friendship died at his home in that village, Feb. 18th.

—Without question the appearance here of the English Opera Singers next Thursday evening will be the greatest musical event of the season.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Coleman Tuesday, March 2nd.

—Call and see new Hats in all new colors for 'Spring at McManus Millinery Parlors.

—At some time here or hereafter, every account must be settled and every debt paid in full.

—Colin McCarn is reported as gaining from an operation performed at the Wellsville Hospital last Friday.

—Miss Julia Milliken of Wellsville and James Anderson of Whitesville were among the marriages reported last week.

—Everett L. Seaver died at Cuba last week after an illness of several months. The body was taken to Lowville for burial.

—Joel VanDusen, who has conducted a harness shop in Canandaigua for 44 years, died at his home in that place, Feb. 24th aged 65 years.

—Floyd Vars went to Hornell Wednesday for surgical treatment at St. James Mercy Hospital. An operation was found necessary and was performed Thursday.

—Rev. H. B. Williams will speak as supply in the First Presbyterian church of Hornell, Sunday, Rev. V. L. Eggleston will speak in the Andover Presbyterian church.

—The Breeze says that Thomas Vogan of that place has six live grasshoppers on exhibition which he captured near the village last week. He believes this a sign that Spring is near.

—Mrs. W. H. Meissner died at her home in Scio last Friday. Mrs. Meissner was born in Scio in 1864 and has always resided in that place. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. Hiram Breeze of Elm Valley.

—The Department of Agriculture says we could export a million bushels of wheat a day until this year's crop is available without danger of domestic shortage, but the gamblers jack up the price all the same.

—Allie Halbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Halbert of Bolivar was instantly killed Feb. 22nd by falling from the roof of a house upon which he was working. He landed on a cement sidewalk. Mr. Halbert was thirty-five years of age and was recently married. The body was taken to Bolivar for burial.

—Olean, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Frank W. Higgins, wife of the late Governor Higgins, announces that she has directed the preparation of plans for a nurses' lodge to be built in connection with the Higgins Memorial Hospital, erected several years ago by Mrs. Frank Sullivan Smith of Angelica, a sister of Governor Higgins. The nurses' lodge will cost $30,000, and will be erected as a memorial to Mrs. Higgins' son, Orrin T. Higgins, who died a year ago.

—If this country must be forced into war we expect our public office holders to be the first to enlist. Then we mere mortals can bask in the sunshine of their patriotism.

—Regular meeting of Anna McArthur Chapter, O. E. S. Monday evening, March 8th. HATTIE CONLEY, W. M.

—Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Van Wic gave them a surprise visit one evening last week. They succeeded in surprising Lewis alright.

—A voluntary petition of bankruptcy has been filed in United States District Court at Buffalo by James L. Moore, of Alfred, who claims liabilities of $7,188.91 and assets of $60.

—Shall the Board of Trustees be authorized to expend the sum of fifty dollars for band concert during the Summer season of 1915 and each year thereafter until otherwise instructed?

—Charles Schall of Belfast died suddenly Feb. 15th, aged 26 years. Deceased was a young man of exemplary habits and supposedly in usual health. He was at work drawing fence posts when he complained of a headache and fell to the ground unconscious, dying five hours later without regaining consciousness.

—Colonel Wm. F. Cody, Buffalo Bill, passed his 70th birthday anniversary Feb. 26th. Some five years ago Col. Cody retired as he thought from the show business and determined to remain upon his Wyoming ranch the rest of his life. But he found ranch life too stifling after the years of travel and this Spring will again find him on the road with his Wild West Show.

—Dr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Jack are planning a trip to Spokane, Wash., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Plantz, who took up her residence there at the time of her marriage last Fall. The doctor is making arrangements to go by water and in that way take in the wonders of the Panama Canal. This would be a sea voyage of something like twenty-two days. The start will be made during March but their return has not yet been decided upon.—Hornell Tribune.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Park Rugar entertained at dinner Saturday, in honor of her birthday. Covers were laid for twelve. She was the recipient of many useful presents.

Have Your Harness Oiled

before the spring work opens up and it will last longer.

Have it oiled now and it will last still longer.

But if it is worn out, not worth oiling, we will sell you a new set at mighty close figures—and they'll last a mighty long time, too.

HENRY LIVERMORE
 Andover, N. Y.

Buy Wall Paper NOW!

IT IS NONE TOO EARLY TO SELECT YOUR PAPERS, EVEN THOUGH YOU DO NOT CARE TO USE THEM JUST NOW.

BY INSPECTING OUR STOCK EARLY YOU WILL HAVE A FULL LINE TO SELECT FROM, AND WE KNOW THERE ARE MANY PATTERNS IN THE LOT THAT WILL PLEASE YOU.

COME IN AND MAKE YOUR CHOICE NOW.

J. D. Cheesman & Co.

Have You Tried Our Fresh Homemade Candies? If Not, Why Not?

Fine line of Cigars, Tobacco, etc. Cretekos Bros.

Real Estate Bargains

Several fine homes in Andover village at attractive prices.

A Chicken Farm within the corporation.

A 100 Acre Farm near the village of Andover, N. Y.

A Cheese Factory, one of the best in Allegany county.

CHAS. M. LASH

CLOTHING

We have a large and complete line. Just think of an all-wool Blue Serge guaranteed Suit at $12.00

There is no better Clothing sold than we have and the price is a little lower than other dealers.

There is a reason why—then—

BROWNING, KING & CO., the Leading Tailors
 They give satisfaction

Gloves and Mittens—the H. & P. brand

Calhoun Clothing Co.
 "The Men's Store"

Why not not try

Sweet-Orr & Co.

Working Clothes,
 Overalls, Jackets
 Pants and Shirts.

Everyone who wears them finds no fault.

Auto Gloves, Coats and Caps

We Sell The Beacon Shoes and Guarantee Them
 $3.00 to $4.50

MALLORY HATS
 CRAVENETTE WEATHERPROOF

To dress your head—choose a hat that fits your personality. Look for good style, good workmanship, good quality. Then, consider the reputation of its maker as an indication of the hats probable good wear. The Mallory fits each requirement—and there's more being sold each year. Let us show you the latest Mallory.