

MANY PEOPLE

who do not feel or understand the personal urge of getting ahead, of accumulating for future investment, do understand and appreciate results. When their neighbor by careful and systematic effort has accumulated a sum sufficient for an investment they may wonder how he accomplished it on his limited income, but they do appreciate that he has a start.

You can get a start by using our bank account plan. Come in and let us show you how easy it is and how it works for your future betterment.

Burrows National Bank

NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY

Report to Comptroller Dec. 31, 1914
 Capital, $25,000.00 Surplus and Profits, $26,500.00
 Resources, $277,800.00

S. PHILLIPS, President. E. J. ATWOOD, Vice President.
 W. BURROWS, Cashier. J. C. LEVER, Assistant Cashier.

MAILS CLOSE.

Going East.
 Train 222 8:55
 Train 26 2:20
 Train 224 6:45

Going West
 Train 25 11:2
 Train 541 6:05

11 for R. F. D. Routes close at M.

W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

Gossip

R. C. White is recovering from an attack of grippe.

Henry Huff, aged 70 years, died at his home near Belfast recently.

It is an age of calling sin names; of hugging and kissing it.

Rev. V. L. Eggleston will preach in the Seventh-day Baptist church next Saturday morning.

Wm. Yoemans is assisting in the care of John Nichols, who is at his home on Rochambeau avenue.

S. G. Waffle is building a new up-to-date poultry house. Mr. Hann and Archie Kemp are in the work.

More than 200,000 small herrings from the fish hatchery at this point were dumped into the Erie at Dunkirk.

Floyd Vars is reported as doing nicely from his recent operation for appendicitis at St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell.

Prof. G. E. Brinton has presented his resignation as principal of the Whitesville High School to take effect at the close of this school year.

Mrs. Fred Brundage and four children of Belmont were dangerously ill last week from ptomaine poisoning caused by eating canned maple sugar which had been taken from the bottom of an old trap can.

Eight cases of small-pox are reported at Medina, N. Y.

Keystona Paint. The washable kind Flat finish for inside work.

A daughter was born March 4th to Mr. and Mrs. Conley Morgan of Cuba.

John Monroe has moved from Slate Creek upon one of C. L. Earley's farms, near this place.

A large number of members of the local Grange attended the Pomona meeting at Wellsville last Friday.

Miss Edna Atherton of Belfast and John M. Knight of Macedon, N. Y., were united in marriage March 3rd.

Rev. Walter Green of Independence will preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning in the absence of pastor Baker.

Eugene R. Allen has been appointed superintendent of the Allegany-Bradford divisions of the Erie Railroad to succeed the late F. W. Hawley.

To-day, March 12th, is the 100th birthday of Andrew Fox of Cuba. The occasion is to fittingly be observed by his relatives and friends at his home.

The body of Lewis Morse who committed suicide by shooting at Dansville last week, was taken to Fillmore for burial. The young man was 20 years of age.

Henry Livermore has workmen excavating preparatory to building his harness shop on Main street, between the C. W. Williams grocery and the Ed. McLoughlin property.

In another column of this paper will be found the Andover Bakery advt. Andover surely needs the convenience of a bakery, and this will be possible only by the patronage of the people.

Rev. V. L. Eggleston received the check from the Equitable Life Assurance Society Thursday, settling the claim on the life of W. E. Snyder, and handed the same over to the absolute assignee.

An order has been issued by Emperor Francis Joseph to the effect that the imperial gardens and all the available space surrounding the imperial palace in and near Vienna should be used for raising cabbages to provide for his people.

Mrs. Ransome Manroe is recovering from a recent illness.

Keystona Paint is the best inside paint made. It is "Natures Harmony."

The Alfred Sun publishes a fine half-tone view of the University Campus this week.

Clarence Clark was very ill for a few hours Friday morning with an attack of acute indigestion.

The body of George W. Artlip was taken to Belfast for burial from Olean where his death occurred March 1st.

Lee Trowbridge has engaged to work for the Mutual Gas Co. He will have charge of the pump station below the village.

The Methodist Brotherhood will serve a waffle supper at the church parlors, Wednesday evening. A regular supper including waffles and new syrup, 20c.

Richard Smith has moved from West Center street to his farm which he purchased last fall, north of this village, formerly known as the N. Hardy place.

L. H. Thornton of Wellsville, former owner of the Belmont Dispatch, is one of a company recently organized for the purpose of promoting a Winter resort on the Isle of Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Earley, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. O'Connell and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lever entertained the Five Hundred Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earley, Friday evening.

Walter Neveger, a Portage farmer, known as the "Bean King" of Allegany County raised 3000 bushels of beans last year. He has sold part of his crop for $4.05 a bushel, but is holding the balance for $5.00.

William Satterlee died at his home in Wellsville, March 9th. Mr. Satterlee was 60 years of age and had a wide acquaintance in this vicinity having conducted the Satterlee Livery at Wellsville for several years.

The same fellows who used to comment freely upon Colonel Roosevelt's loquacity are now making pert remarks about his silence. Meanwhile the Colonel remains as uneffected as a duck's back in a rainstorm.

Mrs. Maria Gowdy died of pneumonia, March 2nd, at the home of her daughter in Belmont. Mrs. Gowdy was born in Independence in 1840, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Leach. The body was taken to Shongo for burial.

Henry Alvord, formerly of this place, is in the Bradford Hospital suffering with a broken leg. While at work on a building in the city he accidentally stepped through an open place in the floor breaking the bone in three places.

Rev. H. B. Williams announces in another column as his subject for the federated meeting to be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, an interpretation of Charles R. Kennedy's famous play, "The Servant in the House." Mr. Williams has given several addresses based upon modern plays, and live wire, 20th century themes; and always draws from them a lesson which gives his hearers a boost upward. You can all depend upon another treat being in store for Andover church-goers next Sunday night. Not only are his themes and subjects up-to-date but his addresses are up-to-the minute and an inspiration to his audience.

Mr. and Mrs. John Little of Cuba have a daughter born last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Funtner of Wellsville have a daughter born last Sunday.

David Hunt fell in the yard at his home on Greenwood street, Saturday, injuring his side.

You can't tell a man's worth by his money, he may be a millionaire and yet not worth a cent.

Miss Florence Bassett, who has been confined to the house by illness for several weeks, is reported as improving.

All ladies, as well as men are requested to read "The Forum" this week under the caption "Faults of the Tongue."

At a special village election last Friday at Angelica the proposition to pave the main street with brick in connection with the county road to be built this season was carried.

Leon Root, 18 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Root of Bolivar has just been granted a pension of $17 per month, with $70 back pay, on a disability claim. The young man enlisted last Spring at the Olean recruiting office and was sent to Columbus, O. While there, it is said, he was vaccinated and as a result has a crippled leg.

ENGRAVING

Just at present is a good time to have some of that hand engraving work done that you have been thinking of having done.

We can show you fine specimens and do the work quickly and at a price you can afford now.

We do all our own work. Do not have to send it out of town.

Floyd C. Vars, Jeweler

BUICK

The Car of Quality, Power, Durability and Economy of Upkeep

There's no other in its class,
 All cars on the hill 'twill pass,
 No car eats so little gas
 As the Buick.

Come and let us demonstrate,
 Do it now, before too late,
 No car goes at such a rate.

P. C. Lynch & Son
 AGENTS
 Andover, - - New York

WHOOPIING COUGH

Well—everyone knows the effect of Fine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your Druggist. Electric Bitters a Spring Tonic.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
 The Kind You Have Always Bought
 Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

ROYCE GOODS

I have the agency for these goods, previously handled in this village by Mrs. Comstock. Should I fail to see you drop me a card if in need of goods.

MISS MARY WHITE
 ANDOVER, N. Y.

D. J. COMSTOCK

Has returned and is ready to begin work at his

WAGON SHOP

Red Pitted Cherries
 18c per can

Red Raspberries and Blackberries
 15c per can

E. TRAINER

Buy Wall Paper NOW!

IT IS NONE TOO EARLY TO SELECT YOUR PAPERS, EVEN THOUGH YOU DO NOT CARE TO USE THEM JUST NOW.

BY INSPECTING OUR STOCK EARLY YOU WILL HAVE A FULL LINE TO SELECT FROM, AND WE KNOW THERE ARE MANY PATTERNS IN THE LOT THAT WILL PLEASE YOU.

COME IN AND MAKE YOUR CHOICE NOW.

J. D. Cheesman & Co.

Have You Tried Our Fresh Homemade Candies? If Not, Why Not?

Fine line of Cigars, Tobacco, etc.

Cretekos Bros.

FARM WANTED Is Yours For Sale?

We are constantly receiving inquiries from people who are looking for desirable farms.

If your farm is for sale it will cost you nothing to list it with us. We make no charge unless we make a sale.

For Rent—Two or three houses and lots.
 For Sale—One of the best residence properties in Andover.

CHAS. M. LASH

Browning, King & Co.

are Tailors—they get the FIT and STYLE. Try them for your Easter Suit

New Spring Clothes

When you need a Suit of Clothes why not call and look our stock over? We carry a large, new line at right prices.

Sweet-Orr & Co.

Pants, Shirts and Overalls

Calhoun Clothing Co.

"The Independent Men's Store"

Too many men a hat is a hat, and only to be judged by its price. But the initiated have learned to look for a name.

Mallory Hats
 Cravenette Weatherproof means to these men, not only smart style and comfortable fit, but something more.

It means a good-looking hat to the end of the season—Mallory quality and workmanship.

Why Not be Initiated?
 Spring Models Ready NOW

Shoes always the Beacon they are guaranteed

Ask to see our line of Auto Gloves from $1.00 to $3.00.

We carry a complete line of every article that Men and Young Men need to wear.