GANY DEMOCRATS STILL FIGHTING

Wyvell and Peet Don't seem to Love Each Other. More, One Sides With the Other With Root

In the recent utterances of newspapers, the Allegany News of Whitesville and the Masaraga Times, it is quite evident that these two Allegany editors are not lying fully in their little demagogue-trundle-bed. They show a peevishness. They don't love each other as they aren't nice. They should make up (as they usually will when the spasm is over) and they find out which is right. They will stand little of returning Woodrow to residential chair and then to the pie-counter if they stop pulling hair. Peet has managed in some way to get his sandwich wedged on both sides, and say he has cream in the middle since the incumbency of democrat party at the White House. Peet wasn't hardly out of the gate when the good luck first struck the party, at any rate he had dry behind the ears and therefore in no form to see and take all the rations that the counter afforded. But since he got his eyes opened and developed his power to croak, he has been callously and not to mention that any Democrat in Allegany County is going to out-run to the feed-trough.

It came out Mar. 4th, with the article that Allegany County is a "muller" (meaning Wyvell) been turned down by Co. in his ambition to become counsel for the United States. The International Journal of Missionary at a salary of $50.00 a year. The Whitesville editor of his article on the publishing in the Congressional Record, Feb. 20th. It seems that the News' article was written by State Bryan found a name to put Wyvell's appointment and on Mar. 4th President Wilson signed the Appropriation bill creating the sinecure.

Peet is espousing a method of Democrats who are satisfied with Wyvell's boss-Allegany County Democrat, Peet, evidently foreseeing a wave, and not finding use for his high-handed fish acts, is trying to hide his head under the tail of President Wilson for
