—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prentice of Belmont, March 5th.

—Mrs. Anna Duke and Floyd Thornton of Wellsville were married last Tuesday.

—John J. Casey, R.J., has rented the Sanford Meade farm on Greenwood Hill for the season.

—A card party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Boyd Thursday evening of last week.

—Brush up your memory of American History by seeing "Francis Marion, The Swamp Fox" at the Auditorium, Saturday night.

—A fire-proof building 40x30 feet in size is to be built in Bolivar to replace the wooden structure occupied by the Bolivar Dreamland Theatre.

—How do you like the meter of my poem?" asked the poet when the magazine editor had finished reading it. "There is plenty of gas in the thing, but I'm hanged if I can see any meter!" replied the heartless editor.

—Rev. A. F. Countryman, aged 83 years, a retired Methodist minister, died at his home in Scottsville, N. Y., last week. Mr. Countryman had a charge at Short Tract for a number of years and had a large circle of friends in this county.

—J. L. Williams was operated upon for the removal of the appendix at St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, Saturday. The News is glad to report his condition as very satisfactory at this writing for a rapid recovery to health. Mrs. Williams is with her husband at Hornell.

—A review of the Village Election held in Andover, in 1897 when the late John Prest was elected Village President was made Tuesday at the Village election. There were at that time 139 votes cast. Of them 51 have since died, 43 have moved out of town and but 45 are still residents of Andover.

—D. A. Stebbins died at his home in Almond, March 16th, after an illness of over two years. Mr. Stebbins was born in Crawford Co., Pa., in 1854. Since 1884 he has practiced law in the village of Almond. Funeral service will be conducted to-day at his home by President B. C. Davis of Alfred University.

—Rev. Thomas Melvin died at the home of Mayor R. E. Craig at Belmont, March 7th, after an extended illness. Rev. Melton was formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of Belmont from which he was obliged to resign because of failing health. The body was taken to Shortsville for interment.

—Saturday, the 20th, last day for discount on gas bills.

—A daughter is a recent addition to the family of Charles Clark.

—Mrs. Myra Fraser died at her home in Rushford, March 5th aged 67 years.

The annual district meeting of Odd Fellows was held in Angelica last Wednesday.

—Raymond C. Burdick, principal of the Alentown Union School, has been re-engaged another year.

—Bolivar is to have an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, to be held under the auspices of the Old Home Week association.

—The Rebekah degree was conferred upon a new member at the regular meeting of the lodge Wednesday night. Luncheon was served after the work.

—Mrs. Edwin S. Moses of Cuba died at the hospital in that place March 17th, following an operation performed two days prior for appendicitis. Deceased was 35 years of age and leaves her husband and two sons.

—C. M. Williams of Bolivar has sent an application to the conservation commission at Albany for a number of ring-neck pheasants and eggs. These pheasants will arrive in Bolivar in May and be liberated in the woods in that vicinity.

—The death of Walter McHenry occurred at his home in Almond, March 4th. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted in 1862 in Co. G., New York Volunteers, being later discharged on account of sickness. He re-enlisted in 1864 and served until the close of the war.

—Marion Ferry of Cuba, fifteen years of age, were attacked by two bull dogs at the farm home of Mrs. Mary Brown last week and seriously injured. The girl was thrown to the ground, the muscles torn loose from her arm, the arm and hand badly lacerated by the teeth of the canine. The animals were shot.

—Merrit Adams, engineer at the Producers Gas Co., pumping station near Shinglehouse, was struck across the head with the lever as he was starting the 180 h. p. steam engine at the station last week. He was thrown ten feet upon the top of another engine. His chest and neck were badly bruised and he suffered a serious scalp wound.

—Four deaths were reported last week from Friendship. They were Mrs. Addie Lord, whose death occurred after an illness of months duration, March 2nd; Wm. Brandon, March 4th, at the age of 79 years; Mrs. L. J. Cross, March 5th. Mallory Hats must be pretty good hat. They have been made through four generations—since 1823. And more people are wearing them each year!

They stand up under all weather and don't lose the appearance of a high-character hat.

Years of "knowing how" are joined to selected material and skilled American workmanship.

That is why "Mallory" means hat-satisfaction.
