Andover State Bank

C. FISBEE, President. FRANK S. CLARK, Vice Pres.
J. M. BRUNDAGE, Cashier. A. D. FULLER, Ass't Cashier.

IN FORMING

A banking connection give thought to the factors: Capital and surplus and their relation to deposits; the equipment for safe guarding your money; the ability to assist you when you are in need of an accommodation; the individual business standing of officers and directors; the kind and degree of management given the bank's affairs.

We believe this bank fulfills all the requirements and in addition you will find the officers take a personal interest in doing all they can consistent with prudent banking to develop and advance the interests of each individual patron.

PASTOR RANDALL SURPRISED

A merry company invaded the home of Rev. W. H. Randall Tuesday evening as a surprise visit in honor of his birthday. The evening was very pleasantly passed with music and games. Sherbet and cake were served the guests.

Before leaving T. J. Gilbert in well chosen words presented Mr. Randall with a silk umbrella as a souvenir from the gentlemen present. Mr. Randall responded in a most happy vein, expressing his deep appreciation and loyalty to his friends.

Rev. Mr. Randall and his estimable wife have formed a large circle of friends since coming to this village who unite in wishing many more birthday anniversaries for them under as happy conditions.

SPELLING "EFFICIENCY"

In his "efficiency" sermon at the federated meeting Sunday evening, Rev. H. B. Williams will spell the word "efficiency" using a word beginning with each letter of the word, the meaning of each word bearing upon some phase of or attribute of efficiency.

The pupils of Andover High School are undertaking to anticipate Mr. Williams' spelling of the word.

Next week the News will publish the correct spelling as given by Mr. Williams, and also publish the spelling of the five who come nearest to spelling the word accurately, according to the pastor's dictionary, and also any other lists that may receive favorable mention from the judges.
