NOTICE TO ALUMINUM USERS

LECTURE LECTURE LECTURE
10:00 a.m. 2:30 p. m. 7:00 p. m.

SATURDAY, MAY 1st

A rare opportunity to hear an EXPERT talk on the subject of Aluminum--a subject about which there is so much to know and from which so much profit can be derived. The time you spend here Saturday will be a real investment--you cannot afford to miss so rare an opportunity.

Mr. Frank Kighttinger representing the Famous Swiss Aluminum Ware, will visit our House Furnishings Department Saturday, May 1st, and will on that date lecture on "The Care and Uses of Aluminum Cooking Utensils."

Mr. Kighttinger will tell you, ladies, many interesting things about your aluminum cooking utensils. Among the subjects he will discuss are:

- How to treat your aluminum cooking utensils before using them.
- How to treat your aluminum ware so that it will not tarnish on the outside.
- How to retain the nice bright polish on the outside as long as you wish it to remain so.
- How to treat your aluminum skillets so you can fry beefsteak, mutton or veal without butter or lard at a great saving of expense.
- How to treat your aluminum griddle so that you can bake any kind of griddle cakes without grease; no smoke or odor in your kitchen and your cakes nice and brown.

Do not forget--Saturday, May 1st, at 10 a. m., at 2:30 p. m. and at 7 p. m.---as you cannot afford to miss getting this valuable information

Rockwell Brothers' Free Trip to the Panama Exposition

We have arranged through the Whitmore National Service Co., of Chicago, to give a free trip to the Panama Exposition in California and return from Wellsville, including sleeper, together with side trips as follows: Steamer ride on San Francisco Bay, including Vallejo and Mare Island Navy Yard, U. S. Government property trip to Mt. Tamalpais through Muir Woods, with ride on the most crooked railroad in the world, boat trip to Oakland, thence on trolley through Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, the home of the California University and great out-door Greek Theater. Six tickets to the Exposition and twelve tickets to concessions inside the grounds. At Los Angeles, trolley trip to Pasadena, viewing the great hotels, beautiful mansions, and the famous Busch sunken gardens; the gift of Adolphus Busch, one of the most beautiful gardens in the world; through Pasadena, the home of the Cavston Ostrich Farm, through Alhambra to the San Gabriel Mission; a Los Angeles trip along the Ocean, through Sawtelle Soldiers' Home, Santa Monica, Ocean Park, Venice and Redondo, and to Moonstone beaches. Trip to Catalina Island (four hours from Los Angeles by steamer) trip out to Catalina in glass bottom boats, viewing the Marine Gardens--at the bottom of the ocean. Trolley to Long Beach, the famous beach resort, through the orange belt. From Los Angeles a trip down the coast to the old city of San Diego with the thousands of sion tickets to the San Diego Exposition. Isn't this program enough to awaken the greatest enthusiasm and stir the blood of every live young man and woman that reads or hears about it?

Hundreds of young people are going on this trip from different parts of the country through the work of the Whitmore Co. and no doubt arrangements will be effected so they will meet at Chicago or some other central point and proceed to California in one company. Some one is going from Wellsville or from one of our near-by towns tributary to Wellsville. If you would be that one, or if you want some friend to take the trip, come at once to our store and register the name. Coupons entitling to vote, will be given to every cash purchaser of goods at our store who asks for them. In case you should not win the Exposition prizes are offered; a $50.00 diamond ring, an Elgin watch, a 26-piece Rogers & Bros. silver set, a fancy 3-piece ladies toilet set, a special gold handled umbrella, a special 10-piece manicure set, quadruple plate, a fancy 3-piece silver plated carving set, a fancy locket and chain, a special ladies' necklace.

This contest continues 24 weeks, but if you are determined to have the trip it is essential that you begin activities at once and also get your friends busy in your behalf. Any further information will be gladly given at our cashier's desk.
