COMMUNITY CHAUTAUQUE

Arrangements are being made. A Week of First Class Attractions, 14 Sessions, a Picture Show Prices.

Mr. Turner, Assistant General of the Community Chautauque Co., was in Andover Saturday in conference with the directors, completing the arrangements for the Community Chautauque Week that will begin in Andover the week of next 3-7.

outlined by Mr. Turner will have a fine list of entertainments, 22 in number, each not less than fifty cent attractions, and some that can not be usually for less than $1.00. Season tickets will be $1.50 each, and they will be transferable.

Chautauque week is a new thing in Andover, but so great a success has it proven in other places that 98 per cent of those who had Community Chautauque 1914 have signed contracts for 1915 course. This in itself is the best of recommendation.

The next meeting of the directors will be held Tuesday evening when much important work will be done. It is thought that should make it a point to be present, as much depends upon the support of all in making the Community Chautauque a success it most surely will do all they can for it.

THE REBEKAH ASSEMBLY

Andover Ladies Attending Meeting at Elmira Last Week

The sixteenth annual convention of the New York State Rebekah Assembly was held in the Grand Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., from May 17th to 19th.

The District Deputy President of Allegany County, Mrs. M. Hann, tells the News that was a most interesting session.

Four Hundred ten Participants took the Assembly. The order now numbered 59 sisters and 16,979 brothers of 52,048 and the receipts totaled $75,106.66.

Mrs. Hann, who also represented the Whitesville Lodge, the youngest in the district, Mrs. Frances Bloss, reported Andover Rebekah Lodge, Mrs. Clara Martin, Grand, accompanied them.

An interview Mrs. Hann gave this closes my years work as District Deputy President. I have been a year of great pleasure to me and I hope to do it all. Mrs. Anna Martin, the President of the district, appointed Mrs. J. M. of Mercy Rebekah Lodge to succeed me, and I hope to have the same success, please her loyal support that I have given me in my work this year.

The next session of the Assembly will be held at Alexandria, Va., at Thousand Island Park.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday Morning, May 30, Rev. Williams will give an account of the meeting of the general assembly held in Rochester.

The people may expect information as well as inspiration.
