OL. XXIX. NO. 22.

FOR WEEK ENDING MAY 28, 1915.

TERMS: One Dollar the Year, Five Cents the Copy.

THE COMMUNITY CHAUTAUQUA

Arrangements are being made. A week of first class attractions, 14 sessions, at picture show prices.

Mr. Turner, Assistant General Manager of the Community Chautauqua Co., was in Andover Saturday in conference with the directors, completing the arrangements for the Community Chautauqua week that will be held in Andover the week of June 1-7.

As outlined by Mr. Turner we should have a fine list of entertainers, 22 in number, each not less than fifty cent attractions, and some that can not be had usually for less than a dollar. Season tickets will be $1.50 each, and they will be transferable.

This Chautauqua week is a new thing in Andover, but so great a success has it proven in other places that 98 per cent of those who had Community Chautauqua last year had signed contracts for the 1915 course. This in itself is the best of recommendation.

At the next meeting of the directors will be held Tuesday evening when much important work will be done. The best of recommendations should make it a point to be kept as much depends upon the support of all in making the Community Chautauqua a success it most surely will do all they can for it.

THE MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

Rev. J. W. Sanborn of Friendship, Speaker of the Day. Rev. W. H. Randall Makes Sunday Evening Address.

Monday is Memorial Day, when we should all make an effort to do whatever we can to honor the soldiers and sailors, both living and dead. The dead by decorating their graves with the most beautiful flowers, and showing honor to their memory by our attendance to the memorial services; to the living by bestowing upon them the manifestations of our love and esteem. Not only are we in duty bound to show them reverence because of their age, but because of the part they played when they were in the springtime of life, imbued with the principles and patriotic zest that brought victory and preserved for us this, the greatest land on earth, undivided and united.

Memorial Day is fast losing its holiday spirit, and as each year approaches a greater feeling of sadness and reverence is becoming more and more manifest.

The arrangements for Memorial Day in Andover is under the supervision of Edward Seaman, Post Sons of Veterans, and the program is as follows:

On Sunday evening the members of the local G. A. R., Ladies of the Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans will march to the Baptist church in bodies, where Pastor W. H. Randall has prepared for them and all others who may wish to attend the annual Sunday evening address.

On Monday—which will be observed in Andover as Memorial Day, because the 30th comes on Sunday,—it is desired that all homes and business places will be decorated with flags and bunting. Especially in these, the most trying hours of the world's history, should every effort be made that is possible to show to the world and to each other our loyalty as American citizens to the Stars and Stripes.

In the morning hours delegations from the local G. A. R. will visit the cemeteries outside the village and decorate the graves of soldiers and sailors buried therein.

At 1:15 the line of march will be formed at G. A. R. Hall. The order of the lineup follows:

The Andover Band
Sons of Veterans, Escort
Edward Seaman Post, G. A. R.
Flower Girls, Escort.
Ladies of the Relief Corps.
School Children, lead by instructors.

Civic Organizations, Citizens.

The march will lead to Hillside cemetery and the regular G. A. R. ritualistic ceremonies will be observed. The line of march will reform and lead to The Auditorium, where the following program has been arranged:

Selection by the Band
Prayer Rev. W. L. Eggleston
Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
Clarence Hardy

Song, "Star Spangled Banner."
School Children

Address Rev. J. W. Sanborn
Music by the Band

"America" by audience accompanied by the Band

THREE TEAMS TIE FOR FIRST PLACE

Interest Heightened by Close Standing of Clubs. Good Ball Games Every Saturday Afternoon at Local Diamond.

Two finely played and intensely interesting ball games were played at the Park diamond Saturday afternoon. The games were close all the way through.

The first game between the South Hill and Silk Mill Teams was a tie at the end of the ninth inning. So another inning was necessary. The Silk Mill boys made good use of their opportunity and brought in three runs and blanked their opponents, thus equalizing league standing.

There are three teams this week all clamoring for first position. They have each won two games and lost one. The contest is proving very lively.

Following are the scores:

COUNTY SUFFRAGISTS IN CONVENTION

Interesting Meeting of Allegany County League at Belmont. Last week. Mrs. R. B. Burrows Re-elected County Leader.

The League held their annual meeting at Belmont, Thursday, May 20th. There was a good attendance of representatives from the several towns.

The morning session was devoted to the usual routine of business and reports. The officers were re-elected for the ensuing year with the exception of vice president, as follows:

President, Mrs. R. B. Burrows-Andover; vice president, Mrs. W. T. Bliss, Bolivar; secretary, Mrs. E. B. Fries, Friendship; treasurer, Mrs. Winifred Smith, Scio.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, Chairman of the State Campaign Committee, and Mrs. Frank Shuler of Buffalo, Chairman of the Eighth District, arrived at 12 o'clock and were met at the station by a delegation in automobiles and escorted to the hall.

The addresses in the afternoon by these ladies were the important and interesting events. Mrs. Catt speaking from the following outline: "Watchers at the Polls, Fair Work, (Canvassing, Publicity, Press Work and Organizers)." She placed great emphasis on the desirability of women watchers at the polls on election day. She also said the members of the constitutional convention probably would try to have the amended constitution framed in such a manner that another vote on the suffrage question would be impossible during its life if it should be defeated this Fall.

Mrs. Shuler spoke upon "Methods and Plans for Campaign Work." Both ladies presented practical suggestions and ideas and expressed confidence that if these were carried out by the county leaders, victory was assured for Suffrage in New York State, November next.

Addresses were also given at a mass meeting in the evening by Mrs. Catt and Mrs. Shuler.

The pupils and teachers, also some of the High School pupils were informed of many incidents that took place during the imprisonment of the two gentlemen that they could never learn from history. The talk given by each was highly instructive and appreciated.

VICTORY FOR THE COLONEL

Jury Agreed From the Start That Roosevelt's Charges Against Barnes Were True. Later Plans to Appeal.

Syracuse, May 23.—The great Barnes-Roosevelt suit came to an end Saturday with victory unqualified for Theodore Roosevelt and defeat unmitigated for William Barnes.

Word from New York that Mr. Barnes would appeal, gave promise of another airing of the issue between the two political leaders.

After forty ballots, in forty-two hours of deliberation Juror Edward Burns, whose insistence that Colonel Roosevelt should be required to share with Mr. Barnes the expense of the suit, brought about the long deadlock, agreed that he could conscientiously vote for a straight out verdict for the Colonel.

The one great factor which determined the vote was the question of veracity between Roosevelt and Barnes. Everything else was subordinated. From the minute the jurors received the case they felt that they could disregard practically every question except the one of truthfulness. And it is now known that from the first the entire twelve believed Roosevelt and refused to believe Barnes.

"It is only right that we had to tell the public that Colonel Roosevelt's truthfulness was obvious to us and that we could not accept Mr. Barnes' statements," said Warren J. Somers, foreman of the jury, after the jury was discharged. "That was the attitude of every man from the start. Such slight divisions, as existed on early ballots had nothing to do with the question of veracity. Every man of us was convinced that Colonel Roosevelt's course had been honorable and above reproach and that his testimony had been frank, sincere and absolutely truthful. All of us realized the great issues that lay in this case."

PASTOR F. M. BAKER GOES TO BUFFALO

The Local Methodist Church Lose Their Pastor. Buffalo Congregation Gets Him. Will Begin Work There June 1st.

Rev. Frank M. Baker, pastor of the Andover Methodist church, has been transferred by the officials of that church from Andover to the Lovejoy Street church of Buffalo.

This action, which came as a great surprise and disappointment to the members of the local church, was made necessary on account of the death of Rev. G. A. Bond, who was the new pastor of the Lovejoy street church.

Mr. Baker came to Andover nearly three years ago from Whitesville, and is therefore well known in this vicinity. He has also preached in Elm Valley Sunday afternoons since he came to Andover. He is an eloquent speaker, a most energetic worker and his church has grown and flourished under his charge, and many are the regrets expressed on account of his decision to accept the opportunity of a larger field.

The Buffalo Lovejoy Street church is a prosperous one with a membership nearly double that of the Andover charge, with the whole city of hundreds of thousands of residents as his field. The charge has connected with it the largest Epworth League in the Genesee Conference. Mr. Baker is especially pleased and qualified to lead young people. He is a leader in the conference in Epworth League work. His work at Buffalo will therefore be very pleasant and enjoyable to him.

While his Andover congregation regret that they will lose their pastor, they know that their loss will be Buffalo's gain, and that Mr. Baker will receive better remuneration for the work he is doing.

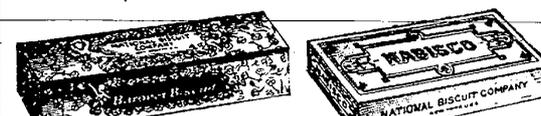

Mr. Baker will bid farewell to his Andover charge next Sunday and begin work on the new pastorate the first Sunday in June.

Until July 1st the pulpit in Andover will be supplied. After that time a theological student will have charge of the parish until Conference meets in October.
