MEMORIAL DAY IN ANDOVER

Decorations Day Was Very Successful With Interesting Program and a Patriotic Address by Rev. J. W. Sanborn.

The Sunday evening Memorial Service by Pastor W. H. Ranney was one of the best ever held in Andover. Many words of commendation were heard by those in attendance, and the G. A. R. Ladies of the Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans fully appreciated the address and the words of the speaker.

The weather man was surely kind to the "Old Veterans" and their friends among whom every woman and child in this city are counted—by ringing for them a most beautiful and impressive Memorial Day last Monday morning.

The morning hours were dedicated by most people and the graves of departed comrades and friends. Andover cemeteries were never more beautiful than they were this year after the touch of the deft fingers that had beautiful and loving tributes on the last resting places of those who had preceded them to spirit land.

At 1:30 o'clock the line of march was formed at G. A. R. headquarters by the Andover G. A. R. and W. R. R. automobiles, and flower and school children carried the solemn cortege. It was an impressive and inspiring spectacle.

For the services at Hillside cemetery the line was reformed and marched to the Auditorium. The program was rendered an unusual and interesting program. The children, led by their spiritual L. C. Sterner, sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. J. W. Sanborn offered the prayer. Clarence Hardy read the "Gettysburg Address." Rev. J. W. Sanborn, presiding over the services, introduced the speaker.

Rev. J. W. Sanborn spoke for one hour and fifteen minutes, and the subject in a thorough and very satisfactory manner. In his address he paid Andover a high compliment for beauty and prominence in civic affairs, and for the people's great credit for having built such a splendid Auditorium.

The speaker expressed his sentiments regarding the European war in very vehement words; and first of the great principle for which the veterans of the Civil War a few of whom were left, and contrasted the motives of that war with the spirit of the war now being fought all over Europe. He characterized the present conflict as being but a big family row on the "Lords of Creation" on the other side of the Atlantic, but any reason, but the gratification of personal ambitions and gain of wealth.

Rev. J. W. Sanborn won his audience and his touching reference to the love of American citizenship for the dear old flag dimpled many an eye in the Auditorium. His entire address was replete with intensely patriotic utterances.

HOME STUDY COURSE IN VEGETABLE GARDENING

An advanced reading course in vegetable gardening has just been started by the extension department at Cornell, in order to meet a growing demand for home study courses. This advanced reading course in vegetable gardening is the second of such course offered; one in fruit growing was started last Fall. Both courses are said to appeal to farmers who desire to "read up" on the subjects, as well as to those who are not fully familiar with the subjects treated.

These advanced reading courses are conducted by means of a textbook, by questions, and by correspondence, and a special effort is made to assist in making a local application to the principles and practices discussed. The work of those taking the course is graded and the only expense of either course is in connection with a standard textbook, not published by the College.

Those who desire to receive information on practical farming problems without even this expense may register for the general reading course lessons. Residents of New York State may obtain further information about the reading courses general or advanced, by addressing the College of Agriculture at Ithaca.

Pingree, and a man who has pleased Chautauqua audiences all over the country with the strength and vitality of his messages. He will speak at both the afternoon and evening sessions of the Chautauqua, and will be precluded both times by the Metropolitan Glee Club, a Male Quartette giving vocal selections, readings and impersonations, bell ringing, and trombone quartette numbers.

Second Day—Brandon Booth, son of Maude Ballington Booth, and grandson of the great General Booth, will appear on this day. Mr. Booth is the national authority on prison life and speaks on the subject of "Reclaiming the Prisoner." On the second day also appears Elma B. Smith, the foremost child impersonator and bird warbler in America. She is the highest paid attraction in her line on the Chautauqua platform to-day. The Venetian Players will also furnish entertainment. They will give novelty numbers on the violin, cello, piano and accordion.

Third Day—Donald Mallock of Chicago. The lecture topic will be along the line of community welfare and civic improvement with special reference to the needs of the small town. He is a specialist. The entertainment on the third day will be given by Herbert and Floy Sprague, the famous dramatic company especially noted for their presentation of Rip Van Winkle and Esmeralda. Music will be given by Miss Mae Sheppard, popular dramatic soprano, giving grand opera numbers.

Fourth Day—On this day will appear as lecturer, Dr. Harry G. Hill, of Indianapolis, one of the most popular men on the Chautauqua platform to-day. His favorite subjects are "Heroes in Over-alls" and "Sugar for Sour Grapes." On this day also will appear Vitale's celebrated Italian Marine Band with Master Vitale, the world's youngest band director, as leader.

Fifth Day—Hans P. Freese of New York will lecture. He was born in Mormonism, but at the present time is one of the foremost opponents of the pernicious practices of the Mormon people.

Some years ago he toured the world, speaking on this topic and was received with great acclaim by Royalty and people alike in all the countries which he visited. The entertainment on this day will be given by the original Swiss Alpine Yodlers, a Company brought over from Switzerland for the St. Louis Exposition, and considered one of the strongest and most popular attractions now before the public.

All the above numbers which are definitely named are under contract to appear on our program next Summer, and except for causes over which we have no control, will be delivered as outlined, except of course, for minor changes in arrangement.

New Epworth League Officers

The annual election of a new cabinet was held last Sunday evening at the Epworth League meeting. Over his protest Howard Hann was re-elected president of the League by a unanimous vote. As an expression of appreciation for his faithfulness in the office the League presented him with a beautiful Bible on Sunday morning, the pastor making the presentation speech. The other officers elected were 1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. Henry Thorne. 2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. Henry Carr. 3rd Vice Pres.—Reba Burrows. 4th Vice Pres.—Bessie Nobles. Secretary—Cecil Hoard. Treasurer—Harland Robison. Organist—Hazel Baker. A committee was appointed to revise the membership list consisting of Mrs. Thorne and Alice Nobles. The year has been a good one, but a better one still lies ahead.

MEET JUNE 10TH, 1915

Annual Meeting of the Members of the Farm Bureau Association at Belmont.

By vote of the Directors on May 18th, the annual meeting of the Allegany County Farm Bureau Association will be held at Belmont, on Thursday, June 10th, at 3:30 p. m.

At this meeting three Directors will be elected for three years in the place of Wm. Breneka, Angelica; E. W. Barnes, Wellsville; and A. F. Randolph, Belmont, whose terms expired. Such business will be acted upon as may properly come before the Association at this time.

The Directors adopted a resolution providing for a change in the time of the annual meeting of the Association from the second Thursday in June of each year; to the first Thursday of January each year and further providing that the first meeting under the new date shall be held in January, 1916. At the meeting on June 10th the following change in the By-Laws will be voted upon:

Meetings—The annual meeting of the Association shall be held on the first Thursday of January in each year.

A large attendance of the members of the Association and others interested in the Bureau work in the County is urged.

By Order of the Board of Directors, C. F. MOULTON, President E. W. BARNES, Secretary.

To the Farmers of the County:

Every farmer in Allegany County is invited to attend this annual meeting. Members of the Association are particularly urged to be present. The meeting will be held the afternoon of the first day's Pomona session at Belmont. The present membership of the Bureau is not as large as is desired. If every member would make an effort to secure one new member, the membership could be easily doubled during the month of June. If you are not a member come and learn what the Association is doing.

Won't you make an effort to attend this annual meeting? And won't you get your neighbor to come with you to Belmont on June 10th? You will better realize the importance of the work being done by the Bureau, thru its Manager F. C. Smith, if you hear the records read covering the past year's work. Learn what is being done for the agricultural interests in the County. Your interest and co-operation in this movement is earnestly desired, and will be an effectual aid in extending the work.
