Great June Sale

From Now Until Saturday Night Remains--

Profit By the Many Sensational Bargains

Positively the biggest values we have ever offered in Ready-to-Wear.

Often this superlative statement is made when the merchandise offered does not justify the claim a statement, however, that we never make.

We are in a position during Our Great June Sale, nevertheless, by reason of our buyers' opportune trip to the New York market, to offer values that more than back-up the statement made at this time.

Come in tomorrow early, before many of these sensational bargains are snapped up, and allow us to prove conclusively the truth of our well-grounded claim.

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of authority to me given by a Power of Attorney from the devisees and heirs of Chauncey F. Bennett, late of Canaseraga, N. Y., deceased, I will offer for sale at Public Auction on Saturday, June 19th, 1915 at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the front of the Hotel Kingston, in the Village of Canaseraga, N. Y., the Chauncey F. Bennett farm (so called) containing about 268 acres of land, situated near the Village of Canaseraga, N. Y.

This is one of the best farms in Allegany County, well located, with fair buildings and must be sold to settle an estate. It is well adapted to dairying and diversified farming. The buildings are on the main valley road which runs through the farm and are less than 1/2 mile from the business section of Canaseraga, a thriving village of about 1000 population. The Erie and Shawmut Railroad stations are only a few rods distant from the farm.

Terms: Small payment down and balance on mortgage on easy terms.

Right reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dated June 18th, 1915.

J. J. GRANTIER, Attorney.

Five—ten—twenty years from today the files of LESLIE's will be priceless. For LESLIE's is the one great national illustrated weekly newspaper of today.

Special war correspondents and photographers by the score "cover the war" for LESLIE's—in Germany, in Austria, in France, in Russia, in Britain, in Belgium, in Turkey, in Egypt, in the Far East, on the high seas.

The LESLIE's news and pictorial service "covers" not only the war, but the world, for the benefit of its 350,000 subscribers. At home or abroad—wherever news is happening—there the unparalleled service of this great weekly newspaper is recording it and picturing it for the people of the United States.

For sixty years LESLIE's has brought to the American people week by week the most important news of our own and every other country, not in words alone, but also in pictures—that universal language which tells more at a glance than pages of words could describe.

No wide-awake American can afford not to have LESLIE's in his home every week. Every member of the family will profit by it. It is not too "old" for the youngest child, while every page teems with interest for every man and woman in the family.
