—To say that the people of Andover are appreciating Paramount pictures at the Auditorium Wednesday and Saturday evenings is altogether too tame a statement; they go wild over them. The management of the Auditorium sure made a hit when they installed them.

—C. E. Brown was the recipient of a very pretty and valuable present from one of the Jamestown furniture houses with which he has been dealing for many years, this week. A solid mahogany dining set, consisting of table, buffet, china cabinet, serving table and chairs.

—The Dean Brothers, one mile west of Andover have recently installed a three unit Hinman milking machine. Baker Brothers of Andover were the agents for the company. The machine so far is proving very satisfactory and others will soon install them in this vicinity if they continue to do good work.

—A surprise birthday party was given Miss Veronica Forness at her home on Maple avenue, Friday evening, by a number of young lady friends. Everything was working finely when they discovered that the ice cream they had put in the refrigerator had been lifted, and was gone. Policeman Hammond was notified and soon located the miscreants. A number of boys from Wellsville working on the road and boarding themselves had appropriated the toothsome cream. They settled.
