Get Ready for Harvest Time. Install a HINMAN MECHANICAL MILKER

There will never be a better time than just right now. You may easily know just what these milkers are doing for others right here in Andover and they will do just as much for you.

WHY WAIT

you are losing time and money every day you put off having one of these Greatest of Labor Savers installed. You lose the help the milker affords you during the busy season. You lose the satisfaction of having contented hired hands to pull with you now when you need them so badly.

But most of all you will lose the peace of mind contained in knowing that your milker is right ON THE JOB every day and that you need not worry about "who'll do the milking."

Let us measure up your barn and give you full particulars.
