

Farmers' Business

We give particular attention to the business farmers.

*****

A checking account with a bank is a convenience farmer should be without.

*****

Our offices are always at the disposal of our customers. We cordially invite the farmers to make this their banking house.

*****

A bank account is a little schoolmaster—it teaches you the systematic care of your funds.

*****

Save while you can that you may spend when you must.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister

Sunday, Aug. 22, 10:30—At this meeting the minister will offer the fourth talk along the trail-blazing line. The courtesy of the presence of the congregation would be appreciated.

Other Meetings, C. E.; S. S.—The very fine meeting of the young people last Sunday evening under the direction of Mr. Ramsay ought to be a future builder. The Sunday School is highly important.

To-day is a Gate Open.—But it will never open again. Not To-morrow, to To-day places us in the scheme of things. Who passes by To-day's opportunities will pass by To-morrow's. If we are interested in the King's Business we will be found To-day laboring where we are In the King's Kingdom.

"We belong to ourselves not when we devote all energy and time to our own business, but when we find time and energy to mix in others people's business. God only uses men and women for His work—a man on a man's business."

WANTED—Horse Shoer and Blacksmith. Must be familiar with carriage work. Good position by the year for sober, industrious man. State age and wages. Expected first year. Louis Wurmser, 255 North 7th St., Brooklyn N. Y.
