OUR CHURCHES

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. V. L. Eggleston will preach on Sabbath morning at 10:30 as usual. Sabbath School at 11:30. Prayer Meeting on Friday evening at 7:30. Leader, E. C. Langworthy. Topic, "The Original Bible as the True Guide Book of Life." The annual Labor Day services will be held in this church on Sunday evening at 7:30. Sermon by Rev. V. L. Eggleston on "Society Influenced by Political Methods." Every one invited.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Herbert W. Walton, Pastor

Sunday services— Morning service 10:30. Sunday School 11:45. Epworth League 6:30. The Epworth League will be led by the pastor. Since the League has not been in session for several weeks and since this is a general Rally Day for all Leagues it is expected that a large number will be present. The evening federated service will be held in the Seventh-day Baptist church. This is Labor Day service. Come and give Mr. Eggleston a good hearing. The Prayer Meeting will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister

Labor Day Sunday, Sept. 5.— The people of the congregation will greatly encourage the minister by attendance, and by sympathetic hearing of a Labor-Day sermon on next Sunday morning. Other Meetings of Interest— The C. E. Meeting last Sunday evening was exceptionally interesting. The adults are missing a meeting worth while who do not look in on "the church of tomorrow." The Sunday School presents its constant claims in the bright faces of the children who come to be taught—life. Lives teach better. Your attendance bulwarks the work. The Federated Meetings To Be Resumed— Definite programs for each church have been made for the first four months to be announced Sunday. Mr. Eggleston, preacher for the Seventh-day Baptist church, will begin the year's work with a special Labor-day sermon Sunday night at the Seventh-day Baptist church, 7:30. A big chorus choir is in training under Miss Clair's direction. The lodges will attend in a body. We anticipate a great meeting. Readers of the Forum know the fine "think-quality" of Mr. Eggleston's offerings. The federated meeting is for the "Good of the Town." Give us the support of your presence.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. H. Randall, Pastor

The pastor's vacation is now over and while, in part, he has not kept up the church services and work, still he has not spent the time in idleness. Our prayer meetings have been kept up; some calling has been done, and study has been carried on to the end that better work may be done. The pastor thanks the church for granting him the vacation and now after you also have had a rest he wants to remind you of the fact that the services and work of the church begin again. He hopes and requests one and all to endeavor to be present at the morning service next Sunday that we may one and all open up the campaign for the Fall and Winter. The four pastors of the federated churches are planning a series of sermons that will extend over a period of four months. You will see what each one has to speak about by referring to their notices. The line of thought that I shall take up will be "Modern Lessons From Historical Epochs." The Sunday Services—

The morning service will be at 10:30. The Sunday School will be at 11:45. The Young Peoples Services— The J. C. E. S. will be held at 3:00. The Christian Endeavor will be at 6:30. The Federated Service— The federated service of the churches will be held in the Seventh-day Baptist church at 7:30. This is the Labor Day service and Bro. Eggleston will preach a patriotic sermon that none of us can afford to miss. Come and see if I am not right. The Mid-week Service— The prayer and study meeting will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30. Come and see what help we can get from the lessor. The Cottage Prayer Meeting will be held on Friday evening at sister Benton's and let us all try and be at this service. The monthly Covenant meeting of the church will be held on Saturday afternoon at the church at 2:30. Let us all try and be present.

ELM VALLEY CHURCH

The Rev. Herbert W. Walton will preach here at 3:00 on Sunday afternoon.

W. C. T. U.

The Womans Christian Temperance Union will meet Friday afternoon, Sept. 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Hamilton B. Williams, Supt. of Franchise.

ATTENTION MASONS!

All Masons are requested to meet at the Lodge room Sunday night at 7 P. M., to go in a body to the Seventh-day Baptist church to the annual Labor Day service.
