

FRANKLIN CAN- GOES TO TEXAS

APPOINTMENT AT KEY CONSERVATORY MUSIC IN CONNECTION WITH TEXAS COLLEGE.

Franklin Cannon, who has for years been the most prominent figure in the musical life of the town, has recently accepted an appointment at the Conservatory of Music in Sherman, Texas.

The past five seasons, since Mr. Cannon's return from Vienna, Mr. Cannon has alternated in his teaching between New York and Andover, and during that time he has given special attention to his well established ability in teaching time.

ALTER HABITS OF MANKIND.

making before the Elmira Club the other day, Secretary of State, Francis M. Hugo, said that at the beginning of the automobile movement in this country none of the participants had any idea of the extent to which mechanically-propelled vehicles upon the roads would alter the habits of mankind, affect political and social development, and change our mode of living.

motorists pointed out that they were a subject of bitter comment by a part of the energy of the country on either side of the progress even at a speed of thirty miles an hour would not be a slightest danger to any of themselves."

his concluding remarks Mr. Hugo spoke of a number of proposals for the administration of a motor vehicle law, urging members of the motor vehicle associations to co-operate with state and local authorities in a sane enforcement of the
