Auditorium Saturday Evening

One of the greatest stage successes ever presented was the "Girl of the Golden West," as produced by the author, David Belasco some seasons ago. Since then this romantic story has been made into a grand opera. Saturday evening, at the Auditorium, Belasco in association with Jesse L. Lasky will present the "Girl of the Golden West," in a marvel of motion pictorial art, with an all star cast. Those who have seen the drama enacted will want to see this film version; those who have not should not miss the opportunity of seeing it in pictures.
