New Fall Clothing

Usually about this time of year every man is debating with himself as to what he will wear during the coming Fall and Winter. In some cases the styles have changed quite a bit and a man must do some tall thinking to answer the question.

Possibly he may think that the new style does not look exactly right on him when he first puts it on. It may seem a little too snug or too loose. In a case of this kind a man really needs the suggestion and counsel of an experienced clothing man—one who has made a careful study of the business. We consider ourselves authority in this competent to talk and we feel absolutely sure of our ground. For that reason we ask you to place your confidence in us. Experience shows that you will not have any cause to regret. There surely is nothing to suit you in our new line of

Stein-Bloch Smart or Clothcraft Guaranteed Clothes

Beginning at $12.00 and up to $32.00

FALL SHOWING OF KNOX HATS

117 Main St. Schaul & Roosa Hornell, N. Y.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

September starts alright.

A big oat crop secured.

The Dennis reunion was held in the opera house Tuesday. A good number gathered at the board.

The Westfield fair is on this week.

Ed Drake of Jasper was a Greenwood caller Friday.

The Germans are not losing as many deserted cities as they were.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Case of Jasper were in town Friday.

Jas. Fitz Patrick of Hornell was in our city yesterday.

Labor Day was observed Monday. The reason it is called Labor day is, that no one is expected to labor on that day.

Ed. Spencer of Oswayo, is in town today.

Fred White is in town today.

H. P. Barnard and wife of Canisteo spent Sunday with their daughters in Greenwood.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Vaughan and children of Arcade formerly of Greenwood visited relatives in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley of Rexville are in Greenwood to-day.

Earl Foster had a mishap with his automobile Sunday. He ran into a bank near the Morris Hill breaking an axeltree.

Charles Fisher and sisters Agnes and Mary Fisher were in Greenwood to-day.

The Grand Jury and the witnesses before the Grand Jury seemed to have been intimidated the same as were the trial jury in the Leo Frank case. No indictments were found.

The Russians are like chickens they fight better in their own dooryard.

John Tobias died at his home in Greenwood Friday night last from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Tobias had been in poor health for a number of years. He was a resident of Greenwood for upwards of fifty years where he was highly respected. He leaves a son and daughter and many other relatives to mourn his loss. He was 70 years of age. The funeral was held at the home of his son Lord Tobias Monday, Rev. L. B. Peacock preaching the funeral sermon. Interment at Greenwood cemetery.

Smith Brunstetter of Bath were in Greenwood Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. [illegible] the Gulf were in Greenwood visitors Friday.

Mrs. A. P. [illegible] Canisteo visited relatives in Greenwood last week.

J. M. Atkins of this place while autoing home from Canisteo Saturday met with an accident. He was running behind the auto of Charles Jeffers who stopped and Mr. Atkins ran into him before he could stop his machine. No serious damage was done however.

Rev. P. F. Trowbridge and family of Hammondsport are the guests of Mrs. Trowbridge's parents.

Mrs. H. A. York formerly of this place has purchased the Osborn House, one of the leading hotels of Hornell.

D. C. Amey formerly of this place was the guest of F. E. Carney this week.

Calvin Dennison of West Union was in town Tuesday.

Edward Dailey of Genesee was in Greenwood on legal business Monday.

David D. Smith was greeting friends in town Yesterday.

Robert McHatton of the Marsh was in our city Monday.

Mrs. Fred Conrade of West Hill was in town Monday.

Mrs. Geo. O'Dell of Jasper was a Greenwood visitor yesterday. She reports Mr. O'Dell as being in poor health.

There is to be a demand that the Jews in Russia be accorded full rights of Russian subjects. Tell us as voting aye on the question.

Harmon Hoyt of Hornell was in our city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsley of Trenton N. J. were the guests of their aunt Mrs. A. B. Karlen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tilroe of Syracuse are guests of G. M. Woodward.

Misses Bertice and Agnes Conway were Saturday visitors in Greenwood. Miss. Agnes Conway just returned from Montauria.

A. B. Karlen and wife motored to Hornell Sunday.

Raymond Fulkert who has been spending the summer in Greenwood has returned to his home in New Jersey.

Mrs. Wesley Reynolds of Alfred is visiting friends in town.

Miss. Gertrude Harkenrider is again at the store of Young & Young after a brief vacation.

Mrs. F. E. Mallory was in Hornell Friday.

Mrs. Kibbie and son and Mrs. Anna Lowe and Mr. Will Burton of Franklinville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sochum Tuesday.

Harry K. Thaw has commenced an action for divorce. He is found to keep the courts busy and he seems to enjoy posing in the limelight. His wife will oppose him in the action.

The Allan liner Hesperian was sunk either by a mine or torpedo. One American lost his life. It is to be hoped that the sinking was had a torpedo, as it hardly seems probable after the agreeable understanding between this country and Germany that the sinking was willful and without warning [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Dorin Clark of Wellsville [illegible] were in town Sunday.

[illegible] born to H. L. [illegible] and on the 16th [illegible]

[illegible] Wednesday [illegible]

[illegible] Friday.

[illegible] Thursday.

[illegible] Tuesday.

[illegible] Tuesday.

[illegible] Tues