—A squash weighing 80 pounds is on exhibition in a window of the Frank Linder meat market in Clifton Springs. The vegetable was raised by Charles Boyce in the town of Hopewell.

—The Hampton Court Singers appeared at the Auditorium, Wednesday night as the first number on the lecture course. The company presented a very pleasing program, sufficiently out of the regular order of musicales as to be a novelty.

—Frank Robinson, aged 52 years, a resident of Knights Creek, died Thursday of last week, in a barber shop at Seio. The attendant had just finished cutting his hair and shaving him when he suddenly gasped and expired before he could be lifted from the chair.

—Several cases of hog cholera have been discovered in Riga, N. Y.

—You cannot afford to miss the address of Dr. B. C. Davis, Sunday evening.

—Bloss Orchestra will furnish the music at the Suffrage Rally Friday evening, at the Auditorium.

—Among recent marriages in the county is that of Miss Estella Crowell and Thomas E. Jones, of Rushford.

—The pie social given by Standard Bearer at Mrs. John Straight's, last Friday evening, was a big success.

—C. M. Tilden and R. G. Saunders of Friendship will open a laundry at Belfast. It is what Andover needs badly.

—The body of Edward R. Allen was brought to Whitesville for burial from Rochester where his death occurred Oct. 23rd.

—Remember the News Office Agency can quote you the lowest prices on subscriptions to all magazines and newspapers. It is in our line.

—Miss Jennie Stadel of Olean, formerly of Wellsville has recently come into a fortune of $106,000 bequeathed her by her cousin, E. R. Steyner of Olean.

—The Mrs. Jennie Rhineyault residence, on Rochambeau Ave., has been repainted and the interior is being redecorated for the occupancy of H. A. Inskip, after Jan. 1st.

—Alfred University Foot Ball Team will play the Syracuse Freshman at Hornell, Election Day. Both teams are strong and a lively contest assured. Special train in the afternoon from Wellsville.

—The price of a drink ranges from ten cents to unpaid bills, unpaid grocery bills, unpaid doctor bills, foreclosed mortgages, protested notes, lost positions, hungry children, broken-hearted wives, corrupt government and souls that are damned.

—Evangelist John M. Linden, of Madison, Wis., is conducting a successful revival campaign in Friendship. The four churches are co-operating in the meetings which are full of enthusiasm. Mr. Linden was formerly an assistant to Billy Sunday.

—The federated Sunday evening service will be held in the Auditorium this week. It will be in the nature of a no-license mass meeting. Dr. B. C. Davis, president of Alfred University, will be the principal speaker and will give some facts and figures that the intelligent voter cannot fail to hear.

—A strange accident caused the death, Oct. 20th, of five-year-old Doris Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Boyd of White Settlement, near Canaseraga. The child was found by her mother drowned in a can of milk. She had evidently leaned over the can to pick out some leaves which had blown in, and lost her balance.

—Henry Livermore has begun the brick work on his new field street store.

—Suffrage mass meeting to-night at the Auditorium. Count one with your presence.

WILLIAM H. CRANE IN DAVID HARUM

Mr. William H. Crane makes his first motion picture appearance in his famous characterization of David Harum which is to be shown at the Auditorium, Saturday evening. It is doubtful if any American work of drama or fiction has ever achieved such widespread and instantaneous success as did this book and play. Mr. Crane's wonderful portrayal of the genial and quaint old hero of this masterpiece is one of the best examples of character work ever given on the stage, so that the unusual ambition of star and play insure a photo drama of unusual merit.

CHILDREN DIE UNDER PECULIAR CIRCUMSTANCES

Gerald Parsons, aged 10 years, and Margaret, aged 8 years, children of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Parsons of Bradford, Pa., died Oct. 14th, from a cause which baffled the attending physicians.

The family returned the day before from a visit at Bolivia. In the morning both children complained of feeling ill when they arose. A physician was called who said there were symptoms of typhoid fever.

A few hours later the children were taken violently ill and both died within an hour. An investigation of some candy purchased at Olean and eaten by them is being made.
