WE MUST HEAR

IT IN ANDOVER

We often hear these days of "Town Doctors"—men who go around diagnosing the ills of cities, villages and communities, but we did not realize until this week, that Andover had one of these gentlemen numbered among our own citizens.
Rev. H. B. Williams' lecture on "Community Betterment," delivered Monday night to a highly intellectual audience at Alfred, the home of Alfred University, with the president and a large number of the faculty being present, was highly pleasing and drew from them a warm hand of approval.

This lecture is just what every community needs to hear, whether they want to or not, and if Mr. Williams does not see fit to disgorge himself of it before an Andover audience in the very near future, we're going to send a stenographer to some town where he is booked to deliver it, and steal it and give it to Andover people in print.

His lecture, not only diagnoses the disease, but also prescribes the remedy for a cure and holds the patient's nose while he administers the dose, all at the same time.

Any city or community or individual cannot escape from receiving great benefit from his treatment. It is not a scolding, nor a sermon, but solid, cold facts forced in under the skin by the gentle use of the hypo-needle of subtle humor.

The Alfred Sun says of Mr. Williams' lecture:
"Rev. Hamilton B. Williams of Andover gave his lecture on community life at the church, Monday evening. It was one of the best things we have had in a long time, Mr. Williams handling his subject in a manner that was forceful and convincing, showing us some of the things that we need, to have a community spirit of the right kind. We can recommend Mr. Williams to all towns who desire to better their civic conditions. It was a disgrace to Alfred that there was not a larger attendance."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE BALLOT

According to information received from the office of the Secretary of State of New York three ballots will be issued to voters on November 2nd, one for general officers, one for questions relating to the revised constitution and one ballot for the amendments submitted by the Legislature. The woman suffrage amendment is Amendment No. 1 of the Legislative amendments. The amendment will be printed on a ticket that will carry one other amendment, "Amendment No. 2," and on proposition, "Proposition No. 1." The woman suffrage amendment comes first on this ticket.

A great many voters are under the impression that the woman suffrage amendment will be printed
