

Have You Bought

Your new Overcoat yet? If not, it's pretty certain that you will soon isn't it? With that firmly settled the next question is: "Where are you going to buy it?" Naturally at a store that features "Quality" goods and where your selection is unlimited. The store must also be one where you will be sure of value in every particular.

These essentials dovetail very nicely with our methods of doing business. We want to especially call your attention to our unusually wide line of St. Michael Smart and Clatheraft Overcoats. They are the result of specialization that gives the man who pays from $12 to $25 for his clothing, the largest amount of value possible. The popularity of our clothes proves this conclusively.

An unlimited variety of young Men's Suits in smart new styles—one exceptionally good range at $18 and which we know will please you even if you intended to pay several dollars more for your new Fall Suit.

Everything in the line of Hats, Shirts, Gloves, etc. that goes to make this a first class Men's Outfitting Establishment, and everything reasonably priced—quality considered.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

The cold has come. A couple of inches of snow on the hill tops.

Property brought fair prices at Mrs. Kelley's auction sale.

Bernard O'Hagan of Rexville was in town Tuesday.

Election passed quietly in Greenwood Tuesday.

The Republican ticket was elected throughout. The following is a list of the successful candidates:

Supervisor—W. G. Kellogg.
Town Clerk—Guy Plaisted.
Supt. Highways—R. P. Stephens.

Justice of the Peace—T. M. Blair.

Assessors—Geo. Conkey, Menzo Knight.
Collector—C. Scribner.
Constables—F. Norton, C. H. Jackson, Wm. Vanderhoof, J. Dennison, W. C. Knight.
School Director—W. T. Baker.

Frank Krusen of Jasper, formerly of this place, was in town Wednesday.

Hon. M. F. Smith of Hornell was in our city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Whitman were Greenwood visitors Monday.

Willis Schenck of Jasper was in Greenwood Monday.

Mrs. Margaret Cobb, wife of Theodore Cobb of Spring Mills, died Thursday, at her home in that place, after a long and painful illness, surrounded by her family.

Mrs. Cobb, by her christian character, had greatly endeared herself to her friends, and her loss will be deeply mourned by all who were acquainted with her. Especially will her memory be cherished by the poor and needy who always found her hand open to relieve want and suffering.

She was a devout member of the Presbyterian church, of which she had long been an active worker. She left surviving her husband, three sons, William of Wellsville, Howard of Johnson Arling and Charles of Spring Mills, Churchill of Greenwood, N. Y. Her only daughter passed away several years ago to the land of spirits.

The funeral was held at her home at her residence and the burial at Spring Mills, Saturday. Many from Greenwood attended the funeral services.

Harvey Gayton returned from Canandaigua, N. Y., Tuesday.

The eyes ran behind the bars on the question of municipal sewage.

Mrs. Mamie Guyon, one of Greenwood's most highly respected residents, died at her home in his village, Friday morning. Mrs. Guyon was one of the oldest residents of Greenwood, having lived here for upwards of 60 years.

Her maiden name was Pamela Dexter, and was married to John Guyon in the early fifties, living on Dryden Hill most of that time and where their children were born and grew to man and womanhood. In later years they moved to this village where Mr. Guyon died several years ago.

Mrs. Guyon is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Carter and Mrs. B. L. Goff of Canistota, and Mrs. Charles McDonald of Chautauq, Montana.

Mrs. Guyon was an estimable woman and was highly respected by her wide circle of neighbors and acquaintances.

Everything was done to alleviate her sufferings and she passed peacefully away surrounded by sorrowing friends.

Her funeral was held at her late home, Rev. Mr. Glover of Canistota, conducting the services. Burial was at Greenwood cemetery.

George Gosper of Jasper was in our city Saturday.

Dever Steffens of Norton was in town Tuesday.

Alex Kelley was in our city Tuesday.

Ellery Updyke of Andover was in our city Tuesday.

Knox Miller was in town Saturday.

Walter Edwards was in our city Tuesday.

OH! THAT GROWING THROB-BING CORN-ACHE!

Can you bear it? No pain of the body will injure the nerves any quicker or cause you more distress, Your own fault entirely, if you do not stop it without further suffering. Pay your dealer 15c for a package of Ransom Plasters and use them. The pain will disappear like magic—and the corn will go too.

WANT AD READERS come to know, unerringly, when an ad is worth answering and they rarely fail to find from one to a dozen ads in any issue of this paper. They thus keep in close touch with life as it is lived in this town and with this town's opportunities for money making.

Making classified advertising carry the news of what you have to sell, or of what you want to buy, to all who would be interested—that is to get merely average sort of service from such ads.

THE OLD FARM GATE

Oh, do you remember, the Old Farm Gate, That swung on its hinges early and late, How it closed the way at the end of the wall, That stood by the homestead, grim and tall, The winds of Winter and Summer too, Oft tried its framework since it was new, Many tales of the past, it could surely relate, Could it but speak, The Old Farm Gate.

In and out of the gate, have multitudes past, And at its rude framework, curious glances cast, The grey-headed sire, the golden-haired child, The gallant young lover, and the maiden mild, Dear grandpa, who long ago, slept 'neath the sod, Had in his manhood, the path-way oft trod, And many a time when the hour was late, Had grandfather closed The Old Farm Gate.

Long, long ago, in the olden time, He had built the gate, on the surveyor's line, With cherry posts, and never a crook, And fastened it firmly, inside with a hook, A young man then, in the prime of life, He found it good to secure a wife, To share his lot, his fortune and fate, He led a fair damsel through that same Old Gate.

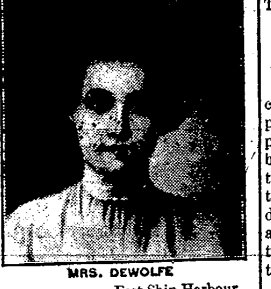

By the gate stood a maple, with wide-spreading shade, Where the robins so often, their nests have made, The bright golden sunbeams, in the years gone by, Had shown through its branches, when Autumn was nigh, Nearby was the well, a mysterious hole, With a bucket that hung on the end of a pole, Where those passing by, both early and late, Stopped to drink, as they passed through The Old Farm Gate.

The homestead stands, in its majestic still, The step-stone is there, by the old door sill, The lilacs still blossom, when Summer is near, But the children have grown to manhood's full year, Still others have come to make the place bright, And lovers still linger, 'till the hour is late, And reluctantly hang on The Old Farm Gate.

Our "B. B. B." column always does the business.

HOW LONG WILL THE WAR LAST?

The War Against Health Is Quickly Ended By "Fruit-a-Tives".

MRS. DEWOLFE
East Ship Harbour

"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefit I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-Tives'. For years I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-Tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person and I am deeply thankful to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

Mrs. MARTHA DEWOLFE.
"FRUIT-A-TIVES", the medicine made from fruit juices, has relieved more sufferers from Headaches, Constipation, Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Skin Troubles than any other medicine. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent by Fruit-a-Tives Limited, Ogdensburg, New York.

EVERY INTELLIGENT SON SHOULD LEARN TO WRITE!

More than a million people employed in the publishing business in the United States, are dropping out every day, some one must take their place. There must be writers for The Newspapers, Magazines, Moving Pictures.

They pay more for the class of service than most of professions. With a table, a paper and a typewriter you can begin now; and you do not have to give up your present occupation or employment. Even if you do not wish to take up writing as a profession, there is no better mental training than to write.

The man or woman who writes automatically thrown in with the big people who are shaping the destiny of the state, the nation, and with the things that are taking place in the new development of the world.

The fundamentals are simple and simply arranged in our correspondence Course of Instruction. A Washington correspondent, who has written for a class of publications during past twenty-five years, has ranged the work, and is in charge of the course. Money back you are not satisfied.

SOUTH HILL

by 3.—Our usual election her.

tato digging is nearing a finish and now the farmer boys up his hook, and "puts his plow to the plow," unless he is a sulky.

essrs Rob, Dean, Leo Horan, Ed, McAndrew served Andover on election board, Tuesday.

m. Dean was a Wellsville visitor last Friday, Miss Laura coming with him for the week.

Thomas Eagan of Scio, who has been helping the Dean Bros. in their digging, returned to his home Saturday.

an Horan of Wellsville spent the day with his people, the family going to Wellsville for an early Sunday evening.

Miss Nora McAndrew of Pingree Hill spent the week-end at home here.

A. Dean and sons take first place on potato crop in this section, having over 1,000 bushels of good grade tubers.

Ed Eva McAndrew returned from a week's visit in Wellsville.

Telephone line is badly out of commission, Edson Langworth was over the line last Thursday making repairs.

some friend should tell you a chance to save some money on the purchase of something you'd had better to him—would you? If one of to-day's advertisements you such information, in a little detail, you'd read it—wouldn't you?
