GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Winter has arrived. Herbert White was a Saturday visitor in Greenwood. Homer Donaldson was a city caller Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Cady of Troupsburg was in town Saturday. Mr. Cople and Mr. Sterling of Canandaigua, expert wing shots, are guests of J. H. Goodno on a hunting expedition. Mrs. J. S. Young, who is critically sick with bronchitis and heart disease, remains about the same. Miss Emma Allen was in Hornell Saturday. Melvin Atwell has bought the Cheesman house on South Main street of J. M. Cheesman. Mrs. Lena C. Crane R. W. D. D. G. M. was in Greenwood Monday accompanied by the officers of the Hornell Chapter of Eastern Star and constituted Greenwood Chapter 594. About fifteen ladies from Hornell were among the visiting members of the order. The following named officers were installed: Mende W. Kollogg—W. M. Elizabeth Karlen—A. M. Lena White—Sec. Bertha Slocum—Treas. Mary Coston—Con. Mary Streeter—A. Con. Nettie Lewis—Capt. John Williamson—W. Patron Mrs. M. C. Williamson was in Hornell Wednesday.

Surrogates Court in Hornell Wednesday. J. H. Goodno is putting a bathroom in his residence on South Main street. Jason Weeks has commenced business in his new shop. Jas. Donegan was in town Wednesday. Hunters in Tioga County, Pa., claim they saw, while hunting, a black fox whose pelt they valued at $1600.00. But the fox succeeded in getting away with it. Perhaps it was one of those black animals that live on onions.

The United States seems to be an important battle-ground of the German sympathisers. Blowing up factories, inciting riots, leading to homicides and sinking ships with Americans aboard are getting altogether too common for neighbors who claim to be friendly. Earl Hathaway of Jasper was in town Wednesday. A. I. York of King Hill was in our city Wednesday. $500,000-000.00 is what the United States will have to spend on account of the danger of German militarism.

We take the following account of the marriage of Frank Herrick and Miss Grace Smith, (a former Andover girl, granddaughter of Isaac Smith), from the "Erie Railroad Magazine."

The marriage of Miss Grace Smith, for some time a valued member of the office force of Storekeeper J. H. Karl, to Frank Herrick, was celebrated Monday afternoon, Oct. 20, at the First Baptist parsonage in this city. Mr. Herrick was formerly an apprentice to the machinist trade here, but for several months has been connected with the Curtis Aviation Co., of Buffalo. That the happy couple were held in high esteem by their numerous friends is shown by the many kind attentions shown them at the depot on their departure. Rice in large quantities was a prominent factor of these regards. "We were just married," was a banner with the strange device that was bravely worn by the groom pinned across his back during the leave-taking, showing that he was willing that all the world should know the momentous step he had taken. The bride was presented with a box containing many useful and homelike articles. A message by telegraph followed them on the way embodying advice that their friends had neglected to give them before they left on their wedding journey.

In looking over the academic register for the first quarter we are pleased to note that the aggregate attendance is 66 days more this year than last. Non-resident academic aggregates 34 days more. It is a small increase but even that is better than a decrease. The following honor marks are for the first ten weeks. The estimate here given is a combination of teachers' estimate and written test. In cases where there are no honor marks the name of the class leader is given.

THE FRUIT-LIVES FOR THREE YEARS

Constipation Completely Defeated When "Fruit-Lives" Was Used.

MR. JAS. J. ROYALL, S.S., "Boston", Central Wharf Boston, Mass., April 26th, 1914.

"For three years, I was troubled with Constipation. At times, the attacks would be very severe, accompanied by Dizziness and Violent Headaches. I took medicine and laxatives the whole time, but as soon as I discontinued the treatment, my bowels would refuse to move. Last October, I went to Montreal and there heard of 'Fruit-Lives'. I used one box and the results were so pronounced that I bought two dozen boxes. I continued using 'Fruit-Lives' and noticed a decided improvement in my condition. The dizzy spells no longer troubled me and my bowels began to perform their function regularly. I took the entire two dozen boxes of 'Fruit-Lives' and my physical condition was perfect." Jas. J. Royall. 60c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent by Fruit-Lives Limited, Ogdensburg, New York.
