BURROWS NATIONAL BANK NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY

Report to Comptroller June 23, 1915

Capital $25,000.00 Surplus and Profits $28,000.00
Resources $279,500.00

J. S. Phillips, President.

E. J. Atwood, Vice. Pres.

F. W. Burrows, Cashier.

Ralph E. Temple Asst. Cash.

—Christmas advertising is booming.

—Only nineteen more shopping days before Christmas.

—Miss Ruth Price and Melvin A. Ingalls of Bolivar were married Nov. 26th.

—“Society Influenced by Speculative Methods” at S. D. B. church, Sunday night.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Rockwell of Wellsville Thanksgiving Day.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thornton and family of Wellsville have gone to Bermuda for the winter.

—The district meeting of the 35th Masonic District is to be held at Wellsville Tuesday, Dec. 7th, at the Wellsville Masonic rooms.

—Don't forget the turkey supper of the King's Daughters, next Wednesday, 5:30 till all are served.

—Oil operators are jubilant at the $2.00 quotation on oil which jumped from $1.90 to $2.00 a barrel last week.

—A sanitary drinking fountain is to be placed in the Village Park at Canisteo by the Pontiac Equality Club of that village.

—At the Auditorium to-morrow (Saturday) night, Miss Nellie Walsh will sing “When I Leave the World Behind,” by Irving Berlin.

—Belfast voted down the proposition to raise $400 per year for the support of the new library building given them recently by Mr. Bartlett.

—The framework is completed on the new residence being built by Postmaster Wm. O'Connell and work is being rushed as rapidly as possible on the building.

—“Some Baby,” which thru a fortunate (for Andover) open date, is coming here next Tuesday evening, plays Hornell Saturday; Olean, Monday and goes from here to Jamestown, Wednesday.

—Water drowned out the pressure of gas in the York gas well in Hornell to such an extent that it has been taken from the city main and the drill started to go deeper with the well in an effort to obviate the water trouble.

—Train 7 now carries west-bound mail instead of train 25 as heretofore. It now looks as though there would be no letter mail on Sunday as Postmaster O'Connell has been informed that neither 7 or 25 would carry mail Sundays.

—Andover had more added to her assessed valuation than any other town in the county by the equalization committee of the Board of Supervisors. They added $210,000 to the assessment roll of the town as a basis for the state and county tax.

—The gas engine at the cullery plant broke down Saturday and closed the factory until a portable engine could be placed and started Monday the plant was in full swing again. The new parts of the engine arrived from Springfield, Ohio Tuesday evening.

—The partridge season closed Tuesday.

—Romona orange in Almond this week.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lewis of Wellsville, Nov. 29th.

—Miss Florence R. Smith and Farnum Gee of Wellsville were married Nov. 29th.

—The In-as-much Society will meet with the Misses Bessie and Alice Nobles Friday night.

—Efforts are being made to get the Howell Condensed Milk Co. to locate a station at Whitesville.

—Andrew Carnegie has recently given $1,300 to the Friendship Methodist church for a new pipe organ.

—It is said that after October next Bolivar will have the only licensed drug store in Allegany County.

—The Whitesville News is responsible for the statement that in that little hamlet there are 42 widows and 15 widowers.

—The annual turkey supper of the King's Daughters of the Presbyterian church will be served Wednesday evening next.

—Don't worry about Xmas gifts make it a magazine year for your friends. Call at the News office and get our combination prices.

—Rev. Clifford Carr, whose death occurred at his home in West Haven, Conn., recently was a son of Adelbert Carr, well known in this village.

—It is going the rounds of the press that Cuba, N. Y. is the only town in the state that went from the “dry” to the “wet” column at the recent election. It hardly seems possible.

—A new-time table went into effect on the Erie railroad Sunday. The only change made in the trains stopping at Andover was that train 541 arrives at 6:23 p. m. instead of 6:31, and train 8 at 8:35, instead of 8:40.

—The federated service at Seventh-day Baptist church next Sunday night, at 7:30. The next sermon in the series on Social Problems will be given, “Society Influenced by Speculative Methods,” Special music. You are invited.

—Word comes to Andover relatives of the seriousness illness of Leslie R. Hahn, at Louisville, Ky., of typhoid fever. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hahn of Norwich, N. Y., are with him. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

—Later—Mr. Hahn died Monday night, before his parents reached there.

—Upon the very best authority the News stated last week, in its village edition, that C. B. Lever had died. We are more than glad that it proved to be a mistake, and our genial Charles is still with us, as well as he has been for some months past.

—The Board of Supervisors at Belmont recently appropriated $1,500 instead of $1,000 for the farm Bureau work in the county, with the express understanding that if Allegany County farmers failed to avail themselves of the benefits that may be derived from the work of the Bureau the completed year, the appropriation next year will be discontinued entirely.

—Be sure to be at the Lynch Block, Saturday at 2 p. m. We give a $17.50 present free.

—The lecture Monday night by L. B. Wickersham, the second number of the lecture course, was one of the best this community has ever had. The subject “Day Dreams.” The lecture was filled with wit, pathos and good hard truths. The only regret is that it was not possible for every person in the town to be present and profit from the inspiration so generously given.

—The lecture Monday night by L. B. Wickersham, the second number of the lecture course, was one of the best this community has ever had. The subject “Day Dreams.” The lecture was filled with wit, pathos and good hard truths. The only regret is that it was not possible for every person in the town to be present and profit from the inspiration so generously given.

What Became of November?

Why it just slipped away and now you awake with a start, realizing how near to CHRISTMAS we are. “Mercy me!” says you, “now I have to get a pucker on and make some of my Christmas Dreams come true.” Early shopping Greases the Wheels of Progress at Yuletide, so let us look into the matter—it may save you a bit of money and it certainly will spare you a deal of trouble and tearing of soul if you will let us offer

SOME GIFT SUGGESTIONS

CORNELL VACUUM CLEANER
No gift could possibly please the housewife more; it cleans perfectly, floors, rugs, carpets, side-walls, ceilings, under heavy furniture, has a nozzle brush that gets the dirt and dust all out around the buttons on upholstering of every kind. There is no spot or corner that “The Cornell” will not reach and the best of all it works so easily a child or delicate person can use it. With all attachments complete $15.00

WIZARD CLEANING AND POLISHING SETS
Consist of a Floor Oil Mop, another of special construction for the Walls and Ceiling, a Handled Furniture Duster, and a chemically treated Dusting Cloth of large size, also a bottle of Wizard Oil; these are all put up in a beautiful Holly Christmas Box, and are a most sensible gift. We offer the complete set for $1.00

BEAUTIFUL GAS TABLE LAMPS
Others as well as ourselves have from time to time shown a few Gas Portables in Andover, but this season we have put in an assortment that we are proud of. Already some have been selected for Christmas gifts; so if you wish an up-to-date Gas Lamp for a gift, or your own use, come in and pick it out before the best selections are all gone. Priced with all fixtures ready to turn on the gas and light, from $4.75 up.

ROYAL NIQUELED CASSEROLES
With inside dish of Fire-Proof Gurnsey Ware, every housekeeper can find use for at least two of these splendid practical, table beauties. They Improve the Food. Priced from $1.50 up.

Lots of Toys, Games, Dolls, Wagons, Skates, Sleds, in fact every thing to make glad the heart of the Kiddies, young or old, and we are all Kiddies at Christmas time, no matter whether our span of life is one or one hundred.

ALUMINUM KITCHEN SETS
You can't go wrong on one of these sets no matter what the kitchen outfit already contains, the set comprises 1 2-quart Coffee Percolator, 1 6-quart Tea Kettle, 1 2-quart Inset Cereal Cooker, 1 6-quart Covered Berlin Kettle, 1 6-quart Preserving Kettle, 1 4 quart Sauce Pan, 1 2-quart Jelly Strainer, in all ten pieces, and cheap at our price of $7.50, but for ten days from the date of this paper we will give a Special 10 per cent Discount. Only six Sets to sell at the reduced price.

ROGERS BROS. 1847 OLD COLONY SILVER WARE
The quality your parents had for the best 50 years ago, and better than ever today. No home is complete without a generous supply, and no tidy housekeeper ever gets too much, why even the school girls stand and admire our case of these goods and wish for them for Christmas; what better proof do you need of their beauty and popularity? Gifts in this line from 85c to $15.00.

DINNER WARE
In sets, or make your own assortments just as you please. Our stock will fulfill your expectations, and the prices Will Please.

RICH CUT GLASS
In addition to the heavy cut, we have just added the celebrated “Lotus” light cut to our stock; many new things moderately priced. Don't fail to look it over.

GLOVES AND MITTENS
We often hear a man say, with pride, when displaying a fine pair of Fur Mittens, “Got them for Christmas.” Our are the pride kind priced from $1.50 up. As our stock comprises some 20,000 items we could go on indefinitely, so just to make you think we will mention, Clocks, Flash Lights, Tools, Tool Boxes, Cutlery, Fancy China.

This is your Christmas Store. Use it—don't be bashful about looking around or asking questions.

We appreciate your Christmas patronage in past years and we trust our showing this season will please you.
