

Save $100

The new $100 you save by using our Bank Account Plan will not satisfy you. It will merely give you a start and encourage you to a larger endeavor. For practical results no other method of getting ahead is so sure, so safe. No other method so completely adapts itself to the needs of the man of small or medium sized income.

TRY THIS PLAN

BURROWS NATIONAL BANK
NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY

Report to Comptroller Dec. 31, 1915
Capital $25,000.00 Surplus and Profits $28,500.00
Resources $291,500.00
J. S. Phillips, President. E. J. Atwood, Vice. Pres.
F. W. Burrows, Cashier. Ralph E. Temple Asst. Cash.

MAILS CLOSE

Going East

A. M. Train 222	8:55
P. M. Train 26	2:30
P. M. Train 8	8:00

Train 8, mail closes at 7:30
P. M. Tuesdays and Fridays.

Going West

A. M. Train 7	8:55
P. M. Train 541	6:00

W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

Dansville is to have an auto show on March 1 and 2.

C. W. Barnes of Oswego, a prominent lawyer, is dead.

Batavia reports 28 deaths, 27 births and 10 marriages during January.

Pittsburg reports a 50 per cent decrease in the number of money orders sent to Europe.

Andover young people were well represented at the Odd Fellowship dance in Wellsville Friday night.

A sleigh-load of young people went to Independence Saturday to attend a social at the Parish House.

John Kindorff died at the County Home last week. He was taken to Angelica a few weeks ago from Wellsville.

Lumbering in the Adirondacks, which has been at a standstill for several weeks through lack of snow, is in full swing again.

Lawrence Rumsey of Buffalo, who went to Paris over a year ago, has been awarded a commission as pilot in the French aviation corps.

B. Reisman, a former resident of Friendship, has decided to locate here again, and has bought out the A. A. Levey store.

Friendship Register.

Mrs. Alice Coats, wife of ex-supervisor Fred L. Coats of Richburg, died at her home in that place, Feb. 9th. Deceased was born in Canada in 1857.

James Shannon of Alfred Station recently underwent an operation for the removal of cataracts from his eyes. The operation was a success and restored vision is assured him.

Joseph Stiegler, Republican, was elected village president of Dansville. Warner F. Jay, Republican, and E. J. Rowan, Democrat, were elected trustees. The village always had been strongly Democratic.

Miss Elizabeth Gillis died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gillis of Birdsall. Recently, Miss Gillis was a trained nurse, and her health became impaired through caring for others.

Mrs. Katherine Sawyer, charged with attempting to commit suicide because her husband eloped with another woman, collapsed when arraigned in court in Buffalo and had to be taken back to jail for treatment.

The senate has passed the bill of Assemblyman Maier appropriating $20,000 for the canal improvements, and it was sent to the House. The appropriation was authorized by a vote of 10-10.

Mrs. Alice Miles died Feb. 12th at her home in Scio.

Lockport is experiencing an epidemic of measles, in mild form.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oaks of Angelica.

The Rev. H. A. Dies of Attica has accepted a call to a Lutheran church at Boston, Erie County.

Miss Emma M. Robinson and Claude A. Vincent of Alfred Station were united in marriage Feb. 11th.

Miss Evadene Dye of Clarksville and Lawrence Kneiff of Friendship were united in marriage recently.

Assemblyman Coffey has introduced in Albany a "no-seat-no-fare" bill designed to affect all railroads of the state.

On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount.

EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

A movement is on foot in Jamestown to turn vacant lots in that city over to those who will use them for gardening purposes.

Olney Benjamin of Almond has sold his chicken farm to W. L. Trask of Boston, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin expect to locate in Texas.

Samuel A. Carlson, for four successful terms mayor of Jamestown, has issued a letter to his townsmen, announcing his candidacy for a fifth term.

It cost the New York State railroads less to fight snow on its Syracuse lines during December, 1915, and January, 1916, than for the two corresponding months a year ago.

Charles E. Ingham, Supervisor of the Town of Hume, died at his home last Sunday evening. Mr. Ingham served for several years as assistant clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

A large company of members of the Rebekah Lodge gave Mr. and Mrs. Dan Witter a surprise visit at their home on Rochambeau avenue, Thursday evening, Feb. 10th. A pleasant time was reported.

Assemblymen Twomey has offered a bill which would compel canned goods to be labeled with the date on which the goods were packed and would put a two-year limit on the time canned goods might be allowed to remain on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis VanWine came to Andover from Independence Wednesday and will remain for a few weeks in the home of Mrs. LaRue Crandall on Water street. The change is made on account of the illness of Mr. VanWine.

The body of E. A. Richardson was taken to Bolivar from Castile where his death occurred Feb. 6th. Mr. Richardson was 76 years of age and a veteran of the Civil War, serving in Company B, 189th Regiment New York Volunteers.

Allegany County has another murder case to investigate. A company of Austrian and Russian section men employed on the Erie cut-off near Belfast, engaged in a drunken brawl pounded one of their number, James Tesco-vitch by name, with a stove poker, causing his death the following day. It is claimed Tiscovitch refused to drink with them. Four arrests have been made.

On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount.

EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

Sixty students from Alfred University enjoyed a sleigh-ride to Andover Wednesday evening, and a dancing party in Harmony Hall. Bloss Orchestra furnished the music.

Hornell is passing through the worst epidemic of grip and pneumonia that city has ever known. Many industries are reported to be crippled by the illness of their employees.

Stockholders of the Johnson Harvester Company of Batavia have elected their officers. It was stated at the company's plant that 1,000 men are now being employed, which is a larger number than at the same time last year.

C. M. Allen of Glysses, Pa., died at his home in that village Thursday of last week. He was at one time a resident of Andover, being in the jewelry business with O. E. Verry, in what is now the Fowler store. He was 66 years of age.

State Comptroller Travis told Dunkirk hearers in an address he delivered there that $60,000 a year was not a sufficient sum to run the municipal affairs of that city. He said that unless a larger amount was raised Dunkirk would find itself in financial difficulties.

One of the largest hydro-electric developments in the state is planned for Seneca Falls, involving more than $2,000,000, according to an application filed with the public service commission at Albany. The petition asks for approval of $1,600,000 stock and $450,000 bonds.

H. L. Van Auken, proprietor of the James Hotel in Cuba, who was arraigned in county court at Belmont, with Judge Reynolds presiding, on the charge of violating the excise law there last September, in selling liquor without a license, was fined $500 and was let go on probation.

The Red Sand Natural Gas Company of LeRoy will commence drilling for gas in the towns of Fayette and Seneca Falls within the next few weeks. Over 1,300 acres of land has been leased by the company, and only three leases are still to be obtained before actual work is started.

A number of Andover people enjoyed a sleigh-ride Monday evening, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Langworthy, in Railroad Valley, to attend a social given from which the proceeds are to be used toward purchasing new singing books for use at the service of the S. D. Baptist church.

A local corporation made an offer to equip the Hornell Interstate Base-ball Team with a grounds for the opening of the 1916 season. The grounds will be located just outside the city limits, but on the lines of the Hornell Traction Company, and will be fully equipped with a grandstand, diamond and fence.

ALLEGANY-STEUBEN HOLLSTEIN BREEDERS CLUB MEET

The annual meeting of the Allegany-Steuben Hollstein-Friesian Breeders Club was held at Hornell last week. Officers for the current year were elected as follows:

President—E. E. Poole, Alfred.

1st Vice Pres.—U. E. Coston, Greenwood.

2nd Vice Pres.—M. A. Crandall, Andover.

Secretary—L. H. Burdick, Hornell.

Treasurer—Henry Stevens, Canisteo.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY SUPPER

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve the annual Washington Birthday Supper, at the church, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 22nd, from 5:30. Tickets 25c. Everybody come.

Menu

Mashed Potatoes	Roast Pig
Baked Beans	Cabbage Salad
Brown Bread	White Bread
Pickles	Oranges
Molasses Cake	Fried Cakes
Coffee

Supper will be followed by an interesting program and social good time.

ANDOVER GARAGE

James Dougherty will open the Andover Garage March first in the Rollins building on Center street. It was formerly conducted in the P. C. Lynch building on Main street.

Special Prices!

8 Bars Soap	25c
4 Cans Succotash	25c
Sauer Kraut can	7c
2 lbs. Ginger Snaps	15c

E. TRAINER

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY AT THE AUDITORIUM

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 22nd, a Double Paramount Show will be given including the two greatest stars in motion pictures, Mary Pickford and John Barrymore. Miss Pickford will be seen in "The Dawn of a To-Morrow" by Frances Hodgson Burnett, and Mr. Barrymore will appear in the great stage success "The Dictator" by Richard Hardney Davis. Prices 10 and 15 cents. Program begins promptly at 7:30.

New Goods

Our new spring goods are arriving now daily. Better drop in and see them.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods
ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE
MRS. S. J. FOWLER

EAT What you like, When you like, As often as you like.

But if it is MEAT buy it from US "Safety First" is a good motto, and

OUR MEAT IS SAFE

And it is juicy and tender and costs little.

GEO. H. BEEBE

BLOSS BROTHERS' GROCERY

The Secret of a Successful Grocery is in keeping just what the public taste demands. We have no room for unreliable goods and we do not believe in handling anything for which there is no call. No matter what you buy here, you may feel assured of the quality. The prices assure you that you are getting your money's worth.

YOST'S ICE CREAM LUNCHES SERVED
Phone 238 BLOSS BROS.

Andover Sanitary Bakery

Fancy baked, fresh from our own oven, white, uniform

Bread	5-10c
Fresh baked Breakfast Rolls	doz. 10c
Special made Lady Baltimore Cakes with boiling sugar	15-25c
Large Jelly Rolls	each 10c
Richly filled Cream Puffs	doz. 20c
Almond Kisses	doz. 12c
All kinds of Fancy Cookies and Cakes	doz. 10c

Ready Friday and Saturday, Mr. Farmer. Come to town and look for our Restaurant.

HOME BAKERY
Main Street J. CAPITOLIN Andover, N. Y.

Calhoun Clothing Company
"The MEN'S STORE"

ONLY GOODS THAT HAVE A REPUTATION SOLD BY US

We buy direct from the manufacturers and are able to give as low a price as any responsible dealer. Only one price to all. The following firms goods lead:

- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| Browning, King & Co., Tailor-made Clothes. | The "Just Wright" Shoes. |
| Mallory Hats. | Sweet-Orr & Co., Shirts and Pants. |
| Beacon Shoes. | Cooper Clothing. |
| Wilson Shirts. | Anderson Rain Coats. |
| Cooper's Underwear. | Goodyear Gloves and Rubbers. |

CALHOUN CLOTHING CO.