WHAT A NEW YORK MAN SAYS

We'll all strike God's HemeTown at sun-down. That which shall have made our journey pleasant and profitable to ourselves and other people shall be the magic to use at the gates of the City whose King is Kindness.
And if there be no city (but there is, beloved) across the marge of silences, well a soul of love has achieved life at all events. A well known New York man writes, "As blotters take the ink Raccoon Plasters take the events.

And if at Land's End our spirits turn to dust with the temple in which we lived, we ourselves, shall live on in other lives. I takked with Socrates to-day and thread the same made a same made as same ma corn." This has been the experience of thousands who have tried the new way of removing painful, agonizing corns. Don't experiment with any other treatwhen they are made a sacrament through friendship.

If that by which I interpret life is not true; than in the name of the gods of the Fleshpots and ment. Get a package of Roccoon Corn Plasters at any drug store or send a postal card to Raccoon, Le Roy, N. Y., for free sample. 9 Wine Jars let us eat and drink and be merry, and give no heed to Lazarus rotting at the gates; in the name of the gods of Grab and Get and Keep let us build bigger barns, and take no thought for those whose houses are haunted by gray wolves; in the name of the gods of Ease work of the tarm women. Special emphasis is being placed on this in the program of the Farm and Home Week to be held at the State School of Agriculture at Alema University navt wash and Plumpness and Frivolty let us seek the flower-strewn ways, and stop our ears against the voices that cry up from the ground; in the name of the gods of Clay and Mammon let us blud-geon mercy and compassion Alfred University next week Special Domestic Science meet Ings will be held each afternoon.
