JOHN BARRYMORE IN "THE DICTATOR"

Auditorium, Tuesday, February 22nd

John Barrymore, whose every appearance on the screen inspires a carnival of mirth, attains a genuine laugh-triumph in the famous Players Film Company's thrillingly humorous photo-adaptation of the popular stage success, "The Dictator," by the celebrated author, Richard Harding Davis.

The central character of this famous comedy-drama is Brooke Travers, a young American, who is forced by existing and exciting circumstances to become temporarily the Dictator of a small republic in South America, and who in doing so becomes the hero of many momentous situations, some comic, and some very serious indeed, from all of which he emerges the victor, through the aid of his clever wit and never-failing audacity, and is finally rescued from his predicament by a kindly fate in the substantial guise of an American battleship.

Produced in Cuba, the film version of "The Dictator" adheres in atmospheric detail to all the requirements of the unusual story while John Barrymore's personal success cannot be exaggerated.

PETER PARSHALL

Peter Parshall, who was stricken with a shock at Sabinsville, Pa., Monday, Jan. 24th, passed away Tuesday of last week.

The funeral was held at the church in that place Thursday, Rev. Catlin, pastor, officiating.

The large attendance at the funeral showed the esteem in which he was held. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. J. C. Yeale of Sabinsville, and also by three step-children, one brother, David Parshall of Greenwood, and two sisters, Mrs. Clarinda Brundage of Andover, and Miss Emeline Parshall of Greenwood.

AN OLD TIME COUGH MEDICINE

For nearly half a century most families in this section have depended upon Kemp's cough balsam for coughs, grip and sore throat troubles. Each package of the balsam also contains a free treatment of some wonderful new laxative tablets that are highly recommended for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Everybody should use these medicines now, while there is so much grip and sickness.

Colds Cause Consumption?

Andover folks may be proud of Andover weather. But our winters bring catarrh, which disgusts one's friends. It hurts our health. We get to look sickly.

But worst of all catarrh—whether it is chronic or simply cold-in-head catarrh, may cause the worst of diseases. For instance, here's what Mrs. Annie Richardson has written over her signature:

"Shortly after I was ill my little three-year-old boy came down with the same disease that I had, and I cured him with your Jelly. All his life he has been troubled with a terrible cough whenever he took the least cold. I have been up with him all night long and could get nothing to relieve him until I got hold of some Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly."

You can get (free) a book about this—and some Kondon Catarrhal Jelly, if you write immediately to Kondon Mfg. Co., Minneapolis. Or go to your own drug store here in town. They may have some free samples left. If not, get a 25c. tube. This newspaper guarantees that you will get your money's worth, or your money back. But be sure it's the genuine—proved by 25 years' use—in millions of cases. Insist on
