OPPORTUNITY OR YOU

Some people are always waiting for opportunity to take them the hand. It never does, and it never will. Opportunity is ever present with us, it is by-our side, it dogs t our steps, it never leaves us. But it never reaches out its hand. h We must do the reaching, the grasping, the improving. Don't sit still and wait for opportunity to come to you. Go

ACADEMIC HONORS you every day in the year, every hour of the day. One of our greatest opportunities lies in what you may accomplish in aid of your home town, for what is good for Andover even better for you. If you want Andover to do something your you should first do something for her. Opportunity believes in that and greets the one who does it. Don't expect to receive everything and give nothing. Opporits aid and encouragement. Only fools expect that and fools seldom step beyond the shadow of their own foolishness.

The wise man makes his own opportunity, and that begets other and greater opportunities, and they breed success.

Your future is not up to opportunity—it is up to you. How often have we heard people say "If So and So had only a ' nad the opportunity, he would have made a mark in the world.' Nothing could be more erroneous. Had the person had the initiative to have forged ahead and made his own opportunity he might have made more of a success.

The latent qualities in every person are many. The trouble that they lack the inspiration and patience-to bring them to the front where they become useful.

Many and many a person have it in them to do great things, but they do not know it. They are timid, lack self-confidence in their own abilities. But the man or woman, who does to-day the very best he can make a success of the undertaking at hand, will be ready undertake the big thing that comes along to-morrow-Few are the times that opportunity comes to us in large chunks. It is only a small piece that we can get at and well at once, if we take good care of the small pieces larger ones will be dropping our way as soon as we are in a position to take proper care of them

Opportunity tries us out, and if she finds us ready and capable greater will be the things she entrusts to our keeping. What is true of the individual always holds true of a community For the community is but the collection of individuals. Andover is growing nicely now. We are surely taking good Latin 111. care of the opportunities as they come to us. Others are sure follow. Indeed they are now beginning to reach us in larger size than ever before.

All we have to do to make it the best country town in /New York State is to keep steadily plodding away, and taking care of B the opportunities that are ours to-day. We will have to make, to a large extent, our own opportuni-

We can do so, and will.

As The Editor Sees It.

Say, now, don't we country editors sure have one hum-drum of a time. Here we are sweating icycles in a painful endeavor to grind out a grist of intellectual has for your consumption, an d when we spring this brilliant production upon you about the wote. Foolish ones stay at home most illuminating comment we'll receive will be a grunt.

> A few people go through this world on their brains. Many slip by on their nerve, while a bunch just slide along on the other fellow's grease. But never mind your gun, for we diplomatreally concede that you individually are of the first named, while we other mortals are humbly grasping at the frazzel-end of the Time was when we could make ourselves fairly well understood by bluntly calling it a lie, but now a more appropriate and expressive term will have to be coined for some of the stuff the yellow correspondents are sending up from the border. The other day Villa was reported in five different places, was minus one leg, crippled in the other, shot through the stomach, well and hearty, and dead and buried, all at one and the same time. Even we could not equal that record for sublime truth and veracity. We

We know a fellow, who has been trying for many years to convince his wife that her judgment is at fault on one minor subject. He has argued, pleaded, cajoled, cussed, stormed, raved and rampaged, but to no purpose. The Rock of Gibraltar is a pebble compared to that Amazonian will. But just as he was ready With warm weather hopping to give up the ghost in despair he hit upon the proper and only along, we may expect a noticeable solution. He said it before she got a chance.

This earth is overburdened with brainless, spineless, idiotic, egotistical and exasperating nincompoops. But, then, we haven't any of the breed in this town, you know, so why that sudden blush on your noble brow?

No, dear madam, it is no longer necessary to go through your husband's pockets while he slumbers and snores. Just fill him up with a good breakfast, then tickle him gently under the chin, smooth the wrinkles from his furrowed brow, whisper in his ear men, and he'll promptly shell but everything that he owns, ex-
