Don't Let Anyone Scare You About the High Price of Paint

WE ARE PREPARED TO SUPPLY YOUR ENTIRE WANTS AT THE OLD PRICE

Most of the high prices of paint you hear about originate with those concerns who are paying $100,000 for Saturday Evening Post and other high priced magazine advertising and want you to pay the bill. Your relief from this condition is to buy Moore's House Paint, a paint that relies wholly on quality to sell it.

No high priced magazine tacked on for the consumer to pay. Moore's Paint contains nothing but the very best and most durable pigments thoroughly combined with pure, old fashioned, well settled Linseed Oil. No spurious oils, benzine, water, alkali or other worthless materials enter into its composition.

They have been sold for 25 years in every section of the country, for all classes of painting and have never failed to satisfy the most exacting customers. Right in Andover no other paint has so well proven its value or its right to your entire confidence.

DL. XXX. NO. 17.

TRACISTS WILL SOON ASSEMBLE

any County Women's Convention at Andover May 16. Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. Shuler Speakers.

The Allegany County Suffrage Convention is to be held at Belmont, at the Library building, May 16th. Mrs. Arthur Livermore and Mrs. Shuler Speakers. It is to be one of the most successful of the following year. We give the following list of the wonderful work of the suffrage worker.

MRS. ARTHUR LIVERMORE

Helping Her Voteless Sister

Working for better civic conditions has thrown many a woman into the suffrage fold. As Mrs. Arthur Livermore, who has certainly efficient civic work to fund, is a handi-capped woman, about the tool of enfranchisement.

But Mrs. Livermore has reasons for being a suffragist. She comes from a state of California where women's suffrage was granted. Her father, Judge and Mrs. Wells of San Francisco, California, were her heroes. If she were on the Atlantic coast, she would be a member of the American League for Women's Suffrage. Since, as Henrietta J. Adams, who graduated from Wellesley College, Mrs. Livermore has been one of the prominent women in educational and civic activities. She was one of the founders and the first president of the Women's University of New York City, she was resident of the Wellesley College and organized and led suffrage activities. She has been a suffrage leader for three years. As president of the Suffrage Society in Yonkers, she, during her term of office, succeeded in getting suffrage pledges from all of the enrolled voters of the section. She is at the head of the four directors of the New York State Woman's Party. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Harriet May Mills of Buffalo, making the directorate.

One of the most picturesque of Mrs. Livermore's activities is her work as president of the Fairview School of Yonkers. Under her direction, 600 boys and girls have free garden plots. This has made her known to the reading public as the author of articles on garden schools and the author of many articles, mainly on educational topics.

Her speeches before political and labor organizations have led to an extension of influence beyond the borders of her own section of the State. Among other women who have been inspired by the ability of the woman to vote. When she said in his hearing that she should not have the vote, she retorted: "You know the difference between a man and a woman. A man can vote and a woman can't. I want to know what you are going to do about it."

She has been a member of the National Woman's Party for three years. She has been a member of the National Woman's Party for three years. She has been a member of the National Woman's Party for three years.
