Community Address

PROFESSOR E. J. WARD OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF-EDUCATION.

HIS man is E. J. Ward, the community expert of the United States government. He is the originator of the social center idea; established a bureau for social center work in Rochester five years ago on which was focused the attention of almost the entire nation. The University of Wisconsin wanted Ward for larger field, with a whole state to work in. He went to Wisconsin. Presi-, dent Wilson wanted Ward for a still larger field. He sent for him at , Washington and put him into a position where he can work out his ideas for the benefit of the whole country.

He will make a community address at the Chautauqua on the second day. Every man and woman should hear Ward. He is a dynamo of energy and a marvel in putting into effect practical, workable ideas for community betterment, growth and development.
