Hear This Trumpeter at Chautauqua

EDNA WHITE, Trumpet Soloist.

SHE heads her own company, the Edna White Trumpeters, the closing musical number of the five day Chautauqua program. There are four of them, and they played to thousands in the Court of the Universe at the Panama-Pacific Exposition last summer and were the feature musical attraction on Manufacturers' Day at the exposition. In Montreal, Canada, they played before an audience of 10,000 a year ago. Wouldn't you like to hear them play? A season ticket will make the cost only a few cents. It will be the grand climax of the five days' program.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.
